From the Pastor's Desk

Our Scripture readings for this Twelfth Sunday in Ordinary Time challenge us to preach Christ through our words and lives without fear.

Scripture lessons summarized: The first reading tells us how the prophet Jeremiah trusted in the power of God while he faced opposition for his prophetic ministry. He was intimidated by attacks upon his character, but he was unafraid to speak out in the name of the Lord. The psalmist in today's Responsorial Psalm (Ps 69) trusts in God when he is misunderstood and ill-treated, even by his brothers and relatives. In the second reading, Paul assures the Christians in Rome that they need not be afraid of opposition, both because they share in the death of Jesus and because they are united with Christ, the new Adam, in his Resurrection. Today's Gospel passage is taken from the end of Jesus' instruction to his disciples as he sends them forth to carry on his mission of preaching and healing. He asks them to live simple lives and to expect opposition and rejection. After having foretold future opposition and persecution, Jesus encourages his disciples to stand firm. Three times they are urged, "Do not fear!" "Do not be afraid!" Instead of shrinking from their task, they are to proclaim the Gospel boldly because they will be protected, just as Jeremiah was assured of God's protection. Hence, Jesus commands his disciples not to fear their persecutors. He presents before them the image of the sparrow to reinforce the disciples' trust and hope in God. The readings hint at the opposition we future Christians will encounter as we carry on the work of Jesus in the world, and they encourage us to persevere in doing the work of Jesus. They assure us that we will be successful, despite the opposition we encounter.

Life messages:

#1 We need not be afraid because our life is in the hands of a loving God. Sometimes we are afraid that we will make a wrong decision. At other times, we are afraid of what others will think when we speak up for Jesus. We are afraid of what the future will bring to our children. We are also afraid of growing old. Sometimes we are afraid of what declining health will bring us. At the root of these fears is the fear of loss. Every fear we have is grounded in the knowledge that we have something or someone to lose. I can lose my job, family, house, money, reputation, health, and even life itself. Rejection and loss are the basis of our fears. But we forget one thing: whatever trouble or crisis affects us, we know that God understands it better than we ourselves do. Our Heavenly Father knows exactly what is happening. What a release from fear it is to know that God is with us; that our life is in the hands of a loving God! The next time fear grips us we need to remember that being faithful to Christ wherever we meet him in this life is much more important than our fear of loss or rejection by others. Also, let us take a moment to recall some of the great promises of God. Let us remind ourselves that God cares – we are each a dear child of His, and He cares for each of us. "Don't be afraid; you are worth more than many sparrows." The last verse of Psalm 27 sums it up nicely: "Trust in the Lord. Have Faith; do not despair. Trust in the Lord."

Please share your memories, a story or sentiment of Fr. Sebastian via email, with subject line: "Fr. Sebastian memory." Please send your memories/stories to ragsdalemaureen@gmail.com

Our Lady of Sorrows Catholic Church

In addition to celebrating Father Sebastian and thanking him for his Pastoral guidance over the past 6 years, we will be celebrating our last Mass as the parish of Our Lady of Sorrows. While the changes we are encountering bring some sadness, let us come together as a community to remember and honor all that came before us and had a vision of forming a beautiful church in south St. Louis; Archbishop Glennon, Monsignor Stolte, the original 77 parish families, the 8 pastors that have led the people of OLS since 1953, and the people that made and currently make up the parish of Our Lady of Sorrows.

Let us gather once more and celebrate all that Our Lady of Sorrows has been to the neighborhood and to so many individuals and families throughout the past 116 years. For this special celebration we will have one Mass the weekend of July 29 – 30, 2023, which will be Sunday, July 30, 2023 at 10:00 a.m.

Please remember to RSVP for the celebration of Father Sebastian and Our Lady of Sorrows by July 15, 2023.

Building on Tradition

Parish Mission Statement: We, the Catholic community of Our Lady of Sorrows, are disciples of Jesus Christ through our Baptism. Nourished by Word and Sacrament we seek to form adults, teens, and children in the ways of the Gospel, while welcoming new members to our parish and our Catholic faith. As a Eucharistic people, guided by the Holy Spirit, we minister to all, especially the ill, elderly, and those in need, through works of fellowship, charity and justice. We strive to continue the mission of our parish begun a century ago through the prayerful intercession of Mary, Our Mother.
