BISHOP DEELEY CELEBRATES NEOPHYTE MASS IN PORTLAND

PORTLAND---Asking God to “bless, these your sons and daughters, whom you chose to share in the Easter sacraments,” Bishop Robert Deeley celebrated the annual Neophyte Mass on May 30 at the Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception in Portland

The Neophyte Mass is an opportunity for those who were baptized and fully initiated into the Catholic Church at Easter to celebrate together and to receive a blessing from the bishop, as well as the support of the congregation. A number of neophytes gathered on Sunday representing the much larger group of new Catholics baptized and initiated during Easter Vigil Masses across Maine. “Even though the last 15 months have been challenging for programs of any kind, some people in our midst have been able to persevere in being prepared to receive those sacraments at Easter and in the Easter season,” said Bishop Deeley during his homily. “Their wish to be part of the worshipping community of the Church, to encounter with us the living Christ, who sends his Spirit to strengthen us and to guide us in living our faith, reminds all of us of the gift we have in faith and encourages us in our mission to bring the message of Christ to others.”

This year, the Neophyte Mass fell on the Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity...Bishop Deeley said that what we learn of God in this feast is the most important thing we need to know. “God is love and God lives that love in the relationship between Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. God’s love is shared with us and we, in turn, are called to share what we have heard with others. We are called, as Jesus told the disciples in the Gospel, to bring his teaching to others. His teaching is his way of life: service in love.”

And those celebrated at the Neophyte Mass are the newest disciples. “Treasure the relationship with God who is love,” said the bishop. “We know him through his Son, Jesus. We are moved to pray to him through the Spirit of Jesus living within us. Deepen your relationship with Trinity in your lives, and, in joy, share it with others. Become the evangelizers Jesus sent us all to be.”

FAMILY FAITH FORMATION

We will be having our last Faith Formation Meeting of this year’s program on Sunday, June 13th at 1:00pm at Our Lady of Good Hope Church. We invite all of our members and their families, past and present to join us as we gather with Fr. Bob, Fr. Hyacinth and our catechists for an in-person meeting! Jon Moro will be there to talk about his David and Goliath sculptures and then we will go outside and celebrate being together and enjoy ice cream and treats! Please email us at Kathleen.luppens@portlanddiocese.org to let us know how many from your family will be coming.

GRADUATION MASSES

On Sunday, June 13th, Graduation Masses will be celebrated at St. Francis of Assisi in Belfast at the 8:30am Mass and at Our Lady of Good Hope in Camden at the 11am Mass. All high school seniors of St. Brendan the Navigator Parish and their families are invited and encouraged to attend! Graduates—you are welcome to wear your cap and gown -- for more details and if graduates could let us know they’re coming, please call or text Carol Brownawell at 410-714-4549.

How your gifts are making a difference throughout Maine...

The central mission of Harvest magazine is to make Jesus known by bringing the Gospel message to the people of God and serving as an instrument of teaching, communication and community building, as well as allowing and encouraging the responsible discussion of issues within the diocese.

Harvest includes stories of faith from throughout the Diocese of Portland, as well as regular columns such as "The Last Word" and "In the Know with Father Joe," which answers your questions about Catholicism.

The Catholic Appeal helps support this ministry — thank you!

Options for Attending Mass at This Time (June 6, 2021)

Please remember Bishop Robert Deeley's dispensation from Sunday Mass is still in effect. Below are options for attending Mass—in person or live-streamed. See the front page of the bulletin for both the weekend and week-day schedule.

Please know that updates are ongoing and evolving...and let us all be patient and kind through the unwinding!

Based on the Governor's recent Executive Order and the current guidance offered by the federal and State CDC, please take into account the following as of Monday, May 24. Further information on the protocols for the actual celebration of Mass itself, the functioning of parish offices, and the guidance for summer faith formation activities will be issued in the next few weeks.

Now in effect:

- Masks are no longer required.
- No capacity limits.
- No more contact tracing information.
- Multiple entrances into the church can now be used.
- All the pews will be available for seating as social-distancing has been eliminated.
- Parish staff and volunteers cannot ask whether a parishioner is vaccinated upon entering a church facility. Staff and volunteers must treat vaccinated and unvaccinated individuals equally. Staff and volunteers must treat individuals without masks and any individuals choosing to wear masks equally.
- Dedicated space available for those who prefer more socially-distanced seating.

The following remains in effect:

All the usual protocols for the celebration of Mass which have been in place since June 1, 2020 will continue for the time being, except there will no longer be any requirement for social distancing or the wearing of the masks in the church or in the sanctuary, before or after Mass or during Mass itself.

The following can take effect:

- Extraordinary ministers may bring Holy Communion to the homebound. The homebound person and the minister must both agree to the arrangement.
- Choirs can rehearse indoors without distancing or masks. Further guidance on choirs singing during Mass will be issued in the coming weeks.

In addition, the following are recommended:

- Cleaning the church once each day if it has been occupied
- Having hand sanitizer available as people enter the church
- Continuing to live-stream the celebration of Mass
- Opening doors and windows for ventilation
- Increasing hospitality to welcome people as they arrive and to answer their questions
- It is recommended that unvaccinated individuals wear a mask in indoor settings. Parents are the responsible parties for deciding whether children are masked, not staff or volunteers.

Please feel free to reach out to parish staff if there are any questions or concerns at 207-236-4785.

MORE UPDATES TO COME!

Stay tuned for updated guidance on groups returning to meet in the church halls — keep an eye on parish emails — and if you are not signed up to receive parish emails yet, please email Christine Fee at christine.fee@portlanddiocese.org, noting your own email and the church you attend most.

★ Important Update on Livestream Masses ★

As this bulletin is being prepared, St. Bernard and St. Francis of Assisi churches are having new livestream systems installed!

(Our Lady of Good Hope was set up in April.) If all goes as planned the two livestreamed Masses this weekend at St. Bernard (6pm on Saturday, May 29) and St. Francis (8:30am on Sunday, May 30) will be livestreamed to the parish website. Just click on the "Livestream Masses and Events" button on the front page of the parish website at www.stbrendanparish.net or go to www.stbrendanparish.net/livestream. At that page, scroll to the video screen that says "Watch livestream Masses here" and click on the arrow at Mass time, and you will see the sanctuary.

The scheduled livestream Masses for each weekend will be noted at the top of the web page or see the "LS" notation on the Mass Intention schedule on page 3 of the bulletin.

The livestreamed Masses will also be viewable in the archive area afterwards, which is the second video on that page. The most recent Mass will be up front, while a blue "Playlist" tab in upper right corner will give a list of recent additional archived Masses.

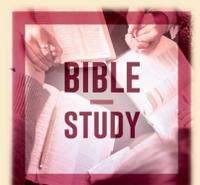

Other Livestream Options:

- Bishop Deeley will celebrate a Mass each Sunday at 10am, Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception in Portland. Visit: www.portlanddiocese.org/online-Mass.
- Online Mass guide for streaming Masses: <https://mass-online.org/daily-holy-mass-live-online>
- TV: EWTN, Channel 27: at 8am, 12pm, 7pm

AUDIO TIP: Hard to hear live-stream Masses? Try using external speakers with your device—makes a huge difference!

Solemnity of The Most Holy Body and Blood of Jesus Christ ~ June 6, 2021

READING 1: EX 24:3-8

When Moses came to the people and related all the words and ordinances of the LORD, they all answered with one voice, "We will do everything that the LORD has told us." Moses then wrote down all the words of the LORD and, rising early the next day, he erected at the foot of the mountain an altar and twelve pillars for the twelve tribes of Israel. Then, having sent certain young men of the Israelites to offer holocausts and sacrifice young bulls as peace offerings to the LORD, Moses took half of the blood and put it in large bowls; the other half he splashed on the altar. Taking the book of the covenant, he read it aloud to the people, who answered, "All that the LORD has said, we will heed and do." Then he took the blood and sprinkled it on the people, saying, "This is the blood of the covenant that the LORD has made with you in accordance with all these words of his."

RESPONSORIAL PSALM: 116:12-13, 15-16, 17-18

R. I will take the cup of salvation, and call on the name of the Lord.

How shall I make a return to the LORD for all the good he has done for me?
The cup of salvation I will take up, and I will call upon the name of the LORD.

R. I will take the cup of salvation, and call on the name of the Lord.

Precious in the eyes of the LORD is the death of his faithful ones.
I am your servant, the son of your handmaid; you have loosed my bonds.

R. I will take the cup of salvation, and call on the name of the Lord.

To you will I offer sacrifice of thanksgiving, and I will call upon the name of the LORD.
My vows to the LORD I will pay in the presence of all his people.

R. I will take the cup of salvation, and call on the name of the Lord.

READING 2: HEB 9:11-15

Brothers and sisters: When Christ came as high priest of the good things that have come to be, passing through the greater and more perfect tabernacle not made by hands, that is, not belonging to this creation, he entered once for all into the sanctuary, not with the blood of goats and calves but with his own blood, thus obtaining eternal redemption. For if the blood of goats and bulls and the sprinkling of a heifer's ashes can sanctify those who are defiled so that their flesh is cleansed, how much more will the blood of Christ, who through the eternal Spirit offered himself unblemished to God, cleanse our consciences from dead works to worship the living God.

For this reason he is mediator of a new covenant: since a death has taken place for deliverance from transgressions under the first covenant, those who are called may receive the promised eternal inheritance.

GOSPEL ACCL: Rv1: 8

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

I am the living bread that came down from heaven, says the Lord; whoever eats this bread will live forever.

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

GOSPEL: Mk 14:12-16, 22-26

On the first day of the Feast of Unleavened Bread, when they sacrificed the Passover lamb, Jesus' disciples said to him, "Where do you want us to go and prepare for you to eat the Passover?" He sent two of his disciples and said to them, "Go into the city and a man will meet you, carrying a jar of water. Follow him. Wherever he enters, say to the master of the house, 'The Teacher says, "Where is my guest room where I may eat the Passover with my disciples?"' Then he will show you a large upper room furnished and ready. Make the preparations for us there." The disciples then went off, entered the city, and found it just as he had told them; and they prepared the Passover. While they were eating, he took bread, said the blessing, broke it, gave it to them, and said, "Take it; this is my body." Then he took a cup, gave thanks, and gave it to them, and they all drank from it. He said to them, "This is my blood of the covenant, which will be shed for many. Amen, I say to you, I shall not drink again the fruit of the vine until the day when I drink it new in the kingdom of God." Then, after singing a hymn, they went out to the Mount of Olives.

SAINTS AND FEASTS THIS WEEK

June 9: St. Ephrem, Deacon and Doctor of the Church,

June 11: The Most Sacred Heart of Jesus

June 12: The Immaculate Heart of the Blessed Virgin Mary

SEQUENCE

Lo! the angel's food is given
To the pilgrim who has striven;
see the children's bread from heaven,
which on dogs may not be spent.
Truth the ancient types fulfilling,
Isaac bound, a victim willing,
Paschal lamb, its lifeblood spilling,
manna to the fathers sent.
Very bread, good shepherd, tend us,
Jesus, of your love befriend us,
You refresh us, you defend us,
Your eternal goodness send us
In the land of life to see.
You who all things can and know,
Who on earth such food bestow,
Grant us with your saints, though lowest,
Where the heav'nly feast you show,
Fellow heirs and guests to be.
Amen. Alleluia.

AN ACT OF SPIRITUAL COMMUNION

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.
