MASSSES OF REMEMBRANCE 2021

The Mass of Remembrance is a special Liturgy held every year in our parish, usually during the month of November, to remember all those who have died during the past year. All the families of the deceased are invited to share in this special Mass to remember their loved ones. Our Worship and Spirituality committee members work hard to personally reach out to all our families and invite them to this special Mass that can aid and comfort families in their grieving process. During this Mass, the names of the deceased are read and each family lights a candle in remembrance of their loved one. All parishioners are invited to attend and pray for our deceased.

This year's Masses of Remembrance will be held:

St. Bernard: Saturday, October 30th at 6:00pm vigil Mass

St. Francis of Assisi: Sunday, November 7th at 8:30am Mass

Our Lady of Good Hope: Weekend of November 7 TBD

Cathy and Lou Castellani, summer parishioners, made a contribution to help provide flowers in the coming months. Your help is greatly appreciated by honoring Christ with the beauty of flowers for our weekend mass schedule.

SEEING THE SON OF DAVID: SCOTT HAHN REFLECTS ON THE 30TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Today's Gospel turns on an irony—it is a blind man, Bartimaeus, who becomes the first person outside of the Apostles to recognize Jesus as the Messiah. And his healing is the last miracle Jesus performs before entering the holy city of Jerusalem for His last week on earth.

The scene on the road to Jerusalem evokes the joyful procession prophesied by Jeremiah in today's First Reading. In Jesus this prophecy is fulfilled. God, through the Messiah, is delivering His people from exile, bringing them back from the ends of the earth, with the blind and lame in their midst.

Jesus, as Bartimaeus proclaims, is the long-awaited Son promised to David (see 2 Samuel 7:12–16; Isaiah 11:9; Jeremiah 23:5). Upon His triumphal arrival in Jerusalem, all will see that the everlasting kingdom of David has come (see Mark 11:9–10).

As we hear in today's Epistle, the Son of David was expected to be the Son of God (see Psalm 2:7). He was to be a priest-king like Melchizedek (see Psalm 110:4), who offered bread and wine to God Most High at the dawn of salvation history (see Genesis 14:18–20).

Bartimaeus is a symbol of his people, the captive Zion of whom we sing in today's Psalm. His God has done great things for him. All his life has been sown in tears and weeping. Now, he reaps a new life.

Bartimaeus, too, should be a sign for us. How often Christ passes us by—in the person of the poor, in the distressing guise of a troublesome family member or burdensome associate (see Matthew 25:31–46)—and yet we don't see Him.

Christ still calls to us through His Church, as Jesus sent His Apostles to call Bartimaeus. Yet how often are we found to be listening instead to the voices of the crowd, not hearing the words of His Church.

Today He asks us what He asks Bartimaeus: "What do you want me to do for you?" Rejoicing, let us ask the same thing of Him—what can we do for all that He has done for us?

Yours in Christ,
Dr. Scott Hahn, Founder and President

OLGH BIBLE STUDY ~ NEW YEAR!

A new Adult and Teen Bible study series has begun at Our Lady of Good Hope in Camden. The topic is St. Paul's Letter to the Romans. In this letter, Paul explains what he calls "The Gospel of God." Do you wonder what that means? How would you describe God's good news? Come learn more with us in this new study.

Study sessions will begin this fall with online taped lessons. Once the current infections slow down we hope to be able to meet in person again. But for now, it is safer to continue our pandemic video lessons. If you have questions or you want to receive a weekly email about the study contact Mary Smyth, mlstocme@gmail.com.

SAINTS AND FEASTS THIS WEEK

October 28: Sts. Simon and Jude, Apostles

However meagre in details is the history of these glorious apostles, we learn from their brief legend how amply they contributed to this great work of generating sons of God. Without any repose, and even to the shedding of their blood, they "edified the body of Christ"; and the grateful Church thus prays to our Lord today: "O God, through the work of the apostles you have spoken your Word of love, your Son, into our world's deafness. Open our ears to hear; open our hearts to heed; open our will to obey, that we may proclaim the good news with our lives."

The rosary is the book of the blind, where souls see and there enact the greatest drama of love the world has ever known; it is the book of the simple, which initiates them into mysteries and knowledge more satisfying than the education of other men; it is the book of the aged, whose eyes close upon the shadow of this world, and open on the substance of the next. The power of the rosary is beyond description."

WINDOW DRESSERS NEED VOLUNTEERS October 18-27

The Window Dressers need volunteers to help make warmth- and money-saving window inserts in Searsport at 42 Prospect St. from Oct. 18th—27th. This program provides a wonderful opportunity for parishioners to meet neighbors and work together to help neighbors and friends stay warm for many winters to come. FMI contact parishioner Dianne Smith for more info at 207-322-4443 or dcjrsmith@hotmail.com.

LIFTING UP THE LOWLY (LUKE 1:52): CCHD IN MAINE

Since 2015, 22 Maine parishes have begun or expanded programs aimed at ending the cycle of poverty with imaginative and resourceful projects funded in part by the Campaign for Human Development. Such projects have helped with:

- financial literacy training
- heating and weatherization tips and materials
- developing ministries for the aging
- job search skills
- welcoming Catholic immigrants
- obtaining temporary housing for homeless families
- addressing addiction in the local community
- offering nutrition and cooking classes in association with food pantries

Contributing to the national collection in mid-November helps the Catholic Church witness to God's concern for the poor and serve many of the 38 million Americans living in poverty.

Congratulations Sisters of Curé of Ars!

The Parish would like to extend our warmest thoughts and prayers to Sr. Kathleen and Sr. Anna on the 10th Anniversary of their decree as the Sisters of the Curé of Ars. While we associate them with Faith Formation, their main mission is to pray for priests. As the sisters say, "We invite you to join us in praying for the priests in Maine and around the world, for without priests, we would not have the Eucharist, the food for our souls, and we would not have the Sacrament of Reconciliation which renews our souls!"

Blessing of a Child in the Womb

God, author of all life,
bless, we pray, this unborn child;
give constant protection
and grant a healthy birth
that is the sign of our rebirth one day into the eternal rejoicing of heaven...

~Excerpt from the Prayer of Blessing

OCTOBER IS RESPECT LIFE MONTH

The "Rite for the Blessing of a Child in the Womb" was crafted to support parents awaiting the birth of their child, to encourage parish prayers for -- and recognition of -- the precious gift of the child in the womb, and to foster respect for human life within society. It may be offered within the context of the Mass as well as outside of Mass.
