MASSSES OF REMEMBRANCE 2021

The Mass of Remembrance is a special Liturgy held every year in our parish, usually during the month of November, to remember all those who have died during the past year. All the families of the deceased are invited to share in this special Mass to remember their loved ones. Our Worship and Spirituality committee members work hard to personally reach out to all our families and invite them to this special Mass that can aid and comfort families in their grieving process. During this Mass, the names of the deceased are read and each family lights a candle in remembrance of their loved one. All parishioners are invited to attend and pray for our deceased.

This year's Masses of Remembrance will be held:

St. Bernard: Saturday, October 30th at 6:00pm vigil Mass

St. Francis of Assisi: Sunday, November 7th at 8:30am Mass

THE LAW OF LOVE: SCOTT HAHN REFLECTS ON THE 31ST SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Love is the only law we are to live by. And love is the fulfillment of the Law that God reveals through Moses in today's First Reading (see Romans 13:8-10; Matthew 5:43-48).

The unity of God—the truth that He is one God, Father, Son, and Spirit—means that we must love Him with one love, a love that serves Him with all our hearts and minds, souls and strength.

We love Him because He has loved us first. We love our neighbor because we can't love the God we haven't seen unless we love those made in His image and likeness, whom we have seen (see 1 John 4:19-21).

And we are called to imitate the love that Christ showed us in laying His life down on the Cross (see 1 John 3:16). As we hear in today's Epistle, by His perfect sacrifice on the Cross, He once and for all makes it possible for us to approach God. There is no greater love than to lay down your life (see John 15:13). This is perhaps why Jesus tells the scribe in today's Gospel that he is not far from the kingdom of God.

The scribe recognizes that the burnt offerings and sacrifices of the old Law were meant to teach Israel that it is love that God desires (see Hosea 6:6). The animals offered in sacrifice were symbols of the self-sacrifice, the total gift of our selves, that God truly desires.

We are called today to examine our hearts. Do we have other loves that get in the way of our love for God? Do we love others as Jesus has loved us (see John 13:34-35)? Do we love our enemies and pray for those who oppose and persecute us (see Matthew 5:44)?

Let us tell the Lord we love Him, as we do in today's Psalm. And let us take His Word to heart, that we might prosper and have life eternal in His kingdom, the heavenly homeland flowing with milk and honey.

Yours in Christ,
Dr. Scott Hahn, Founder and President

OLGH BIBLE STUDY

A new Adult and Teen Bible study series has begun at Our Lady of Good Hope in Camden. The topic is St. Paul's Letter to the Romans. In this letter, Paul explains what he calls "The Gospel of God." Do you wonder what that means? How would you describe God's good news? Come learn more with us in this new study.

Study sessions will begin this fall with online taped lessons. Once the current infections slow down we hope to be able to meet in person again. But for now, it is safer to continue our pandemic video lessons. If you have questions or you want to receive a weekly email about the study contact Mary Smyth, mlstocme@gmail.com.

THAT MAN IS YOU!

That Man Is You! is up and running again! We meet on Saturdays at 8am at Our Lady of Good Hope in Camden. (No food or drink is allowed to be distributed but you may bring your own.) That Man is You! is an interactive men's program focused on the development of men in the modern world. It combines the best scientific research with the teachings of the Catholic faith and the wisdom of the saints to develop the vision of authentic men capable of transforming themselves, their families and greater society. New members are welcome! To find out more, contact Joe Cammelleri at 975-4634 or email jccam@tidewater.net.

The Church is composed of the faithful living upon the earth and those who have gone before us. The latter includes the Saints in Heaven and the faithful Souls being purified in Purgatory. Just as on November 1st we honor those who are with God, on November 2nd Catholics celebrate a Commemoration of All the Faithful Departed. Also known as All Souls Day, on this day we honor them for their fidelity in life, as well as pray for them, since they are being purified before entering the All Holy Presence of God. As Revelation 21:27 says of the Heavenly Jerusalem, "... nothing unclean shall enter in."

The Church had an early practice of remembering the souls of the departed in the Mass. This included inscribing their names on tablets. A version of this is in every Mass today, in the prayer for the faithful departed in Christ known as the Memento of the Dead, as well as in the practice of offering Mass for particular individuals. The celebration of a special day began in some monasteries in the 6th century, and by the 10th century spread to dioceses, becoming fixed in some places to November 2nd, the day after All Saints Day. This date was itself adopted at Rome in the 13th century.

The month of November is dedicated to the Holy Souls in Purgatory. The Church commemorates all her faithful children who have departed from this life, but have not yet attained the joys of heaven. St. Paul warns us that we must not be ignorant concerning the dead, nor sorrowful, "even as others who have no hope ... For the Lord Himself shall come down from heaven ... and the dead who are in Christ shall rise."

The Church has always taught us to pray for those who have gone into eternity. Even in the Old Testament prayers and alms were offered for the souls of the dead by those who thought "well and religiously concerning the resurrection." It was believed that "they who had fallen asleep with godliness had great grace laid up for them" and that "it is therefore a holy and wholesome thought to pray for the dead, that they may be loosed from sins." We know that a defiled soul cannot enter into heaven.

"I saw my Guardian Angel, who ordered me to follow him. In a moment I was in a misty place full of fire in which there was a great crowd of suffering souls. They were praying fervently, but without effect for themselves; only we can come to their aid. The flames which were burning them do not touch me at all. My Guardian Angel did not leave me for an instant. I asked these souls what their greatest suffering was. They answered me in one voice that their greatest torment was longing for God . . . [I heard an interior voice] which said, My mercy does not want this, but justice demands it."

WINDOW DRESSERS NEED VOLUNTEERS October 18-27

The Window Dressers need volunteers to help make warmth- and money-saving window inserts in Searsport at 42 Prospect St. from Oct.18th—27th. This program provides a wonderful opportunity for parishioners to meet neighbors and work together to help neighbors and friends stay warm for many winters to come. FMI contact parishioner Dianne Smith for more info at 207-322-4443 or dcjrsmith@hotmail.com.

LIFTING UP THE LOWLY (LUKE 1:52): CCHD IN MAINE

Since 2015, 22 Maine parishes have begun or expanded programs aimed at ending the cycle of poverty with imaginative and resourceful projects funded in part by the Campaign for Human Development. Such projects have helped with:

- financial literacy training
- heating and weatherization tips and materials
- developing ministries for the aging
- job search skills
- welcoming Catholic immigrants
- obtaining temporary housing for homeless families
- addressing addiction in the local community
- offering nutrition and cooking classes in association with food pantries

Contributing to the national collection in mid-November helps the Catholic Church witness to God's concern for the poor and serve many of the 38 million Americans living in poverty.
