Catechists are needed at each Church, usually only one or two Sundays a month. You don't have to have teaching experience—all you need is a love for God and His children! If you are interested in joining our program, please contact Sr. Kathleen at Kathleen.luppens@portlanddiocese.org ASAP. You can also call the office at 207-236-4785.

FIRST SATURDAY FILMS AT ST. FRANCIS SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 6TH AFTER THE 4PM MASS

Join us for a covid-protocol movie and pizza night at St. Francis on first Saturdays (this weekend, Nov. 6th!) following the 4pm Mass. Let the office know if you think you might be coming, 236-4785.

This month's movie is The Reluctant Saint: The Story of St. Joseph Cupertino. This is a heartwarming and true story of the humble Franciscan friar who literally rose to sainthood in the impoverished village of seventeenth century Italy. Joseph's peasant mother convinces the reluctant Abbott to accept her son into the monastery. With the support of the kindly local Bishop who sees in him a great deal more than others do, and by a series of miraculous incidents, the simple but pious Joseph is ordained a priest. (1962 with Ricardo Montalban). Come and be inspired!

ST. FRANCIS ROSARY MAKERS SUNDAY, NOV. 7TH, AFTER THE 8:30AM MASS

Veteran rosary makers, beginners, or the merely curious, from all our churches are welcome! We make three different styles rosaries—there is a way for everyone! We will space ourselves on the large tables in the Parish Hall at St. Francis and request masks at this time. FMI, call the parish office. 236-4785.

THE WIDOWS' FAITH: SCOTT HAHN REFLECTS ON THE THIRTY-SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

We must live by the obedience of faith, a faith that shows itself in works of charity and self-giving (see Galatians 5:6). That's the lesson of the two widows in today's liturgy.

The widow in the First Reading isn't even a Jew, yet she trusts in the word of Elijah and the promise of his Lord. Facing sure starvation, she gives all that she has, her last bit of food—feeding the man of God before herself and her family. The widow in the Gospel also gives all that she has, offering her last bit of money to support the work of God's priests in the Temple.

In their self-sacrifice, these widows embody the love that Jesus last week revealed as the heart of the Law and the Gospel. They mirror the Father's love in giving His only Son, and Christ's love in sacrificing Himself on the Cross.

Again in today's Epistle, we hear Christ described as a new high priest and the suffering servant foretold by Isaiah. On the Cross, He made sacrifice once and for all to take away our sin and bring us to salvation (see Isaiah 53:12).

And again we are called to imitate His sacrifice of love in our own lives. We will be judged, not by how much we give—for the scribes and the wealthy contribute far more than the widow. Rather, we will be judged by whether our gifts reflect our livelihood, our whole beings, all our heart and soul, mind and strength.

Are we giving all that we can to the Lord—not out of a sense of forced duty, but in a spirit of generosity and love (see 2 Corinthians 9:6–7)?

Do not be afraid, the man of God tells us today. As we sing in today's Psalm, the Lord will provide for us, as He sustains the widow.

Today, let us follow the widows' example, doing what God asks, confident that our jars of flour will not grow empty, nor our jugs of oil run dry.

Yours in Christ,
Dr. Scott Hahn, Founder and President

OLGH BIBLE STUDY

A new Adult and Teen Bible study series has begun at Our Lady of Good Hope in Camden. The topic is St. Paul's Letter to the Romans. In this letter, Paul explains what he calls "The Gospel of God." Do you wonder what that means? How would you describe God's good news? Come learn more with us in this new study.

Study sessions will begin this fall with online taped lessons. Once the current infections slow down we hope to be able to meet in person again. But for now, it is safer to continue our pandemic video lessons. If you have questions or you want to receive a weekly email about the study contact Mary Smyth, mlstocme@gmail.com.

LIFTING UP THE LOWLY (LUKE 1:52): CCHD IN MAINE

Since 2015, 22 Maine parishes have begun or expanded programs aimed at ending the cycle of poverty with imaginative and resourceful projects funded in part by the Campaign for Human Development. Such projects have helped with:

- financial literacy training
- heating and weatherization tips and materials
- developing ministries for the aging
- job search skills
- welcoming Catholic immigrants
- obtaining temporary housing for homeless families
- addressing addiction in the local community
- offering nutrition and cooking classes in association with food pantries

Contributing to the national collection in mid-November helps the Catholic Church witness to God's concern for the poor and serve many of the 38 million Americans living in poverty.
