"ENJOY THE HOSPITALITY OF THE TRINITY (WITH RUBLEV'S ICON)" by Bill Gaultiere

St. Andrei Rublev painted The Hospitality of Abraham in 1411 for the abbot of the Trinity Monastery in Russia. This icon of the Holy Trinity depicts the three mysterious strangers who visited Abraham (Genesis 18:1-15). In the icon he depicts the three heavenly visitors sitting at a table with a cup placed before them on the table. Most scholars understand the figures to be seated left to right in their doxological order of Father, Son, and Spirit....

"Rublev depicts the three as One Lord. Each holds a rod in his left hand, symbolizing their equality. Each wears a cloak of blue, the color of divinity. And the face of each is exactly the same, depicting their oneness.

"The Father is like the figure on the left. His divinely blue tunic is cloaked in a color that is light and almost transparent because he is the hidden Creator. With his right he blesses the Son – he is pleased with the sacrifice he will make. His head is the only one that is lifted high and yet his gaze is turned to the other two figures.

"The Son is portrayed in the middle figure. He wears both the blue of divinity and reddish purple of royal priesthood... With his hand he blesses the cup he is to drink, accepting his readiness to sacrifice himself for humanity...

"The Spirit is indicated in the figure on the right. Over his divinely blue tunic he wears a cloak of green, symbolizing life and regeneration. His hand is resting on the table next to the cup, suggesting that he will be with the Son as he carries out his mission...

"Did you notice the beautiful circular movement in the icon of Father, Son, and Spirit?... The Father blesses the Son, the Son accepts the cup of sacrifice, the Spirit comforts the Son in his mission, and the Father shows he is pleased with the Son. Love is initiated by the Father, embodied by the Son, and accomplished through the Spirit."

The more we look at this holy image with the eyes of faith, the more we come to realize that it is painted not as a lovely decoration for a convent church, nor as a helpful explanation of a difficult doctrine, but as a holy place to enter and stay within. (Henri Nouwen)

LAUDATO SI'

LAUDATO SI' ('PRAISE BE TO YOU') ON CARE FOR OUR COMMON HOME

Many of you have heard of Pope Francis' 2015 encyclical, Laudato Si' (translated: "Praise Be to You" and subtitled "On Care for Our Common Home"). The need to address ecological concerns by all Catholics is not a new appeal from the Vatican. Care for the world began getting modern-day attention starting with Pope John the XXIII. In 1964, Pacem in Terris addressed destruction of the earth from wars.

Pope Saint Paul VI in 1971 in an Apostolic Letter referred to the ecological environment as "a tragic consequence of unchecked human activity." Saint John Paul II in 1979 in Redemptive Hominis called for global ecology conversion and Pope Benedict XVI, appealed to us in 2007, 2008, 2009 and 2011 "Man does not create himself. He is spirit and will, but also nature."

What is new? The approaches to better understanding the issues of our resources and providing paths to reach attainable goals. Laudato Si' is a letter to Catholics and to the world! The world and Catholics are responding, and it is exciting!

Six parishioners at St Francis started meeting weekly during Lent. We followed the guideline for a retreat by studying and reading from Laudato Si', praying together, learning how to be silent and listen. Our intention was to first educate ourselves and to examine individually how we treat the resources of the earth and to see all the blessings God has provided us. The question being "are we respecting these gifts" The focus is on Prayer and Action.

The Laudato Si' group here at St Francis would like to begin sharing information about Laudato Si' in the bulletin and on the white board located in the Church Hall. We hope by first increasing our knowledge, praying for understanding and listening to our hearts and the spirit we will begin gathering in the Fall with more parishioners to create a plan of action.

We are already ahead of the plan! Here at St Francis we have recycle containers in the kitchen. Many parishioners here and at St. Bernard buy Fair-Trade Coffee. We have provided window inserts in all 3 churches in our parish which has reduced fuel use.

It's a perfect time for us to find unity in a common goal of respecting the earth and recognizing that a gift from God comes with responsibility. Through prayer, listening and then acting we can make a difference plus grow spiritually!

Stay tuned for upcoming features on:

- Response to the Cry of the Earth
- Response to the Cry of the Poor
- Ecological Economics
- Adoption of Sustainable Lifestyles
- Ecological Education
- Ecological Spirituality Community Resilience & Empowerment

We welcome and encourage questions and ideas! Contact Dianne Smith at derjsmith@hotmail.com or any other Social Justice and Peace members, or check in with the St. Francis Laudato Si' group: Martha Block, Michael Cyr, Barbara Edmonds, Elissa Koskela, Tim Pritchard and Dianne Smith.

HELP FOR COUPLES

How can you help a couple whose marriage seems stuck in misery?

Couples can slowly drift apart or are torn apart by terrible words or actions. For many, it has been years since they knew the joy of a loving relationship. Retrouvaille is a Christian peer ministry of Catholic origin that is helping couples put the pieces back together. Over 76% of those who attend the weekend are still married five years later. Over 95% would recommend a weekend to a struggling couple. Our next weekend is August 12, 2022 in the Greater Boston area. FMI: retrouvaille@gmail.com or call 1 (800) 470-2230

FREE SEMINAR ON MAINE PROBATE, WILLS, TRUSTS, MEDICAID, AND NURSING HOME ISSUES, IN AUGUSTA, JUNE 11

How can you afford $295,000 for nursing home care? Is the probate process really so stressful and expensive? Get the answers to these questions and many more at a free seminar sponsored by the Knights of Columbus and Maine Senior Law. The seminar will be held at St. Monica Hall on 5 Kendall Street in Augusta on Saturday, June 11, from 10 a.m. to 11:30 a.m. Attorney Bob Boudreau and associate attorney Brenden Smith will serve as the presenters. If you plan on attending, please call (866) 529-6246 or email info@maineseniorelaw.com.

THAT MAN IS YOU!

That Man is You! has concluded its Saturday morning program at Our Lady of Good Hope for this past semester. Stay tuned for details for the Fall program later this summer! FMI, contact Joe Cammelieri at 975-4634 or email jccam@tidewater.net.
