YOUTH GROUP WITH FATHER DIVINE

Wednesdays in January after the 6:30pm Mass at St. Francis of Assisi in Belfast. Exploring Christus Vivit (Junior High and High School)

This year we've been exploring The Creed with our families. So far we've looked at who God is, what faith is, salvation history and our story in God's plan. We focused last month on the Incarnation, the Annunciation and the Immaculate Conception and how God keeps His promise to humanity. For January and February we will be looking at Jesus. What we can learn from Him? Why was Jesus baptized and what is the sacrament of Baptism? What is the significance of the Resurrection? How can our families serve others?

If your family hasn't joined us yet, no worries, it's never too late to come and check out family faith formation. We'd love to see you! For more information contact Christine Fee in the parish office at 236-4785 or see our "Grow in Faith" section of our parish website at www.stbrendanparish.net.

Prayer of St. Brendan

Help me to journey
beyond the familiar
and into the unknown.
Give me the faith to leave old ways
and break fresh ground with You.

Christ of the mysteries,
I trust You to be stronger than each storm within me.
I will trust in the darkness and know that my times, even now,
are in Your hand.

Tune my spirit to the music of heaven,
and somehow,
make my obedience count for You.

Act of Contrition

O my God, I am heartily sorry for having offended Thee, and I detest all my sins, because I dread the loss of heaven, and the pains of hell; but most of all because they offend Thee, my God, Who are all good and deserving of all my love. I firmly resolve, with the help of Thy grace, to confess my sins, to do penance, and to amend my life. Amen.

OR

My God, I am sorry for my sins with all my heart. In choosing to do wrong and failing to do good,
I have sinned against you whom I should love
above all things. I firmly intend, with your help, to do penance, to sin no more, and to avoid whatever leads me to sin. Our Savior Jesus Christ suffered and died for us. In his name, my God, have mercy.

Prayers for the new year! Tear out page and fold in half twice to make booklet.

Guardian Angel Prayer

Angel of God,
my guardian dear,
to whom God's love
commits me here,
ever this day,
be at my side,
to light and guard,
rule and guide.
Amen.

'From infancy to death human life is surrounded by their (the angels) watchful care and intercession. Beside each believer stands an angel as protector and shepherd leading him to life. Already here on earth the Christian life shares by faith in the blessed company of angels and men united to God. ' [Catechism of the Catholic Church; 336.]

Prayer for Vocations

Loving and Generous God, it is You who call us
by name and ask us to follow You.
Help us to grow in the Love
and Service of our Church
as we experience it today.

Give us the energy and courage
of Your Spirit to shape its future

Grant us faith-filled leaders who will embrace Christ's Mission of love and justice.

Bless the Diocese of Portland
by raising up dedicated and generous leaders from our families and friends who will serve Your people as Sisters, Priests, Brothers, Deacons and Lay Ministers.

Inspire us to know You better
and open our hearts to hear Your call.

We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Memorare

Remember, O most gracious Virgin Mary, that never was it known that anyone who fled to thy protection, implored thy help, or sought thine intercession
was left unaided.

Inspired by this confidence,
I fly unto thee, O Virgin of virgins,
my mother; to thee do I come,
before thee I stand, sinful and sorrowful.
O Mother of the Word Incarnate,
despise not my petitions,
but in thy mercy hear and answer me.
Amen.

Prayer to St. Michael the Archangel

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our defense against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray, and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly hosts, by the power of God, thrust into Hell Satan, and all the other evil spirits who prowl about the world for the ruin of souls. Amen.

Prayer for Priests

Gracious and loving God,
we thank you for the gift of our priests.
Through them, we experience
your presence in the sacraments.
Help our priests to be strong in their vocation.
Set their souls on fire with love
for your people.
Grant them the wisdom, understanding,
and strength they need
to follow in the footsteps of Jesus.
Inspire them with the vision of your Kingdom.
Give them the words they need to spread the Gospel.
Allow them to experience joy in their ministry.
Help them to become instruments
of your divine grace.
We ask this through Jesus Christ,
who lives and reigns as our Eternal Priest.
Amen.

Prayer of St. Gertrude

Eternal Father, I offer You
the most precious blood
of thy Divine Son, Jesus,
in union with the Masses
said throughout the world today,
for all the Holy Souls in Purgatory,
for sinners everywhere,
for sinners in the universal Church,
for those in my own home,
and in my family.
Amen.

*According to tradition,
St. Gertrude the Great was told by Our Lord that the prayer above, each time she piously recited it,
would release 1,000 souls (or a vast number) from their suffering in purgatory.*

ROMAN CATHOLIC
DIOCESE of PORTLAND

EMAIL & TEXT SAFETY IN THE DIOCESE OF PORTLAND

This is just a reminder to all that texting and phishing email scams are happening on a regular basis in the Diocese of Portland. On occasion, texts or emails claiming to come from the bishop, priests, or other staff members are received but are not actually from them. Their phones or email have not been hacked, however, scammers have created accounts with fraudulent information, so that it appears to be coming from a known recipient. Typically, these are coming from @gmail.com addresses. These phishing emails are attempts by scammers to trick you into giving out personal information such as your bank account numbers, passwords, credit card numbers, or to purchase gift cards. Never follow links, open attachments, or reply to suspicious or unsolicited messages.

These signs can help you identify phishing scams:

- the sender's email address or phone number doesn't match the name of the company that it claims to be from;
- the message starts with a generic greeting, like "Dear customer."
- a link appears to be legitimate but takes you to a website whose URL doesn't match the address of the company's website.
- the message looks significantly different from other messages that you've received from the company/person.
- the message requests personal information like a credit card number or account password.
- the message is unsolicited and contains an attachment.

What to do:

- DO NOT send any personal information over email such as your bank or credit card accounts/passwords/login information, etc.
- You may verify the sender's address by hovering over the name or clicking the email details in the "From:" column to see the email address. A valid email from Father or staff will always send emails from an @portlanddiocese.org address.
- If an email seems suspicious or questionable, always call the person or parish that sent the email to verify that they sent it.
- In general, never click links from unsolicited emails.
- Including malicious attachments that contain viruses and malware is a common phishing tactic. Malware can damage files on your computer, steal your passwords or spy on you without your knowledge. Don't open any email attachments you weren't expecting.

Be skeptical when it comes to your text and email messages. If it looks even remotely suspicious, don't open it.

OLGH BIBLE STUDY

How blind are we? That is the lesson this week. Instead of feeling outnumbered and overwhelmed, let us "see" God's host of angels around us.

Lesson: <https://youtu.be/QWvjHOM-BYg>

This series is intended to open up new ideas that you can try in your own prayer life. One example is Lectio Divina, which is meditation on a scripture passage. St Benedict established this prayer method in the 6th century. You can read more about how to do the steps of the practice here:
