St. Katherine Drexel was born in Philadelphia in 1858. She took an avid interest in the well being of black and native Americans. She began by donating money but soon realized more was necessary.

She founded the Sisters of the Blessed Sacrament for Black and Native American peoples, dedicating her life and fortune of $20 million to this work.

She opened the first mission school for Indians and many others for blacks in the south. She founded Xavier University in New Orleans.

Katherine became only the 2nd recognized American born saint in 2000.

CALLING ALL ST. BERNARD PARISHIONERS!

St. Bernard church was consecrated in 1975, it has never had a statue of its patron saint. The pastoral team at St. Bernard decided to make that a top goal for 2023! After much research the statue chosen is hand-carved and hand-painted from Lindenwood, and the estimated cost is $16,100. The goal is to have the statue in time for the Feast of St. Bernard this summer—the timing for ordering is end of March, so that leaves about a month to collect the remaining funds. If you are interested in donating to the St. Bernard Statue fund, please make a check payable to St. Brendan the Navigator and in the memo portion of the check please write "statue." You may place your check in the St. Bernard collection basket at Mass or mail to: St. Brendan the Navigator Parish, 7 Union Street Camden, ME 04843. For more information on fundraising efforts for the St. Bernard statue or how to get involved please contact: any of the team members — Deacon Robert Cleveland, Claire Redden, Kevin Bailey, Eric Hebert, Ian and Emily Emmott, Jack Kurowski, Gayle Gallant and Lori Pezanowski. or call the parish office at 236-4785.
