St. Brendan the Navigator Parish is offering a gathering at two of our church locations this Fall as a guide for those exploring our Catholic Faith options or who are just wondering about life's deeper questions, such as "Why am I here?," "What is the purpose of my life?," "Does or could Christianity really fit into my life experiences of death, sorrow, happiness, science, family, and faith?" On Tuesday evenings from September 19 through October 24th, 6:00pm at Our Lady of Good Hope in Camden (Upper Room) and St. Francis parish hall in Belfast, we will be showing 30-minute episodes of Chris Stefanic's The Search followed by a discussion guided by a team of parishioner leaders to explore questions and insights raised from the episodes.

EUCCHARISTIC REVIVAL

<https://www.stbrendanparish.net/eucharistic-revival>

Excerpts from the Catechism of the Catholic Church on the Eucharist (1415-1419)

1415 Anyone who desires to receive Christ in Eucharistic communion must be in the state of grace. Anyone aware of having sinned mortally must not receive communion without having received absolution in the sacrament of penance.

1416 Communion with the Body and Blood of Christ increases the communicant's union with the Lord, forgives his venial sins, and preserves him from grave sins. Since receiving this sacrament strengthens the bonds of charity between the communicant and Christ, it also reinforces the unity of the Church as the Mystical Body of Christ.

1417 The Church warmly recommends that the faithful receive Holy Communion when they participate in the celebration of the Eucharist; she obliges them to do so at least once a year.

1418 Because Christ himself is present in the sacrament of the altar, he is to be honored with the worship of adoration. "To visit the Blessed Sacrament is . . . a proof of gratitude, an expression of love, and a duty of adoration toward Christ our Lord" (Paul VI, MF 66).

1419 Having passed from this world to the Father, Christ gives us in the Eucharist the pledge of glory with him. Participation in the Holy Sacrifice identifies us with his Heart, sustains our strength along the pilgrimage of this life, makes us long for eternal life, and unites us even now to the Church in heaven, the Blessed Virgin Mary, and all the saints.

OUR LADY OF GOOD HOPE BIBLE STUDY

This week we begin our study of The Letter to the Hebrews. This is the 19th book of the New Testament. It is unique in the New Testament because it has such a heavy emphasis on the history of the people's experiences with the God of the Old Testament and the connection of prior knowledge of God as the underpinning for understanding Jesus Christ.

But who exactly were "The Hebrews"?
The word sort of translates to "The Wanderers"

Aren't we all wanderers?

Lesson: https://youtu.be/N_Y2WZhR2v8

So glad you are on this journey with me. I am looking forward to seeing where it goes. (You do realize I never really know in advance, right?)

To receive weekly emails please contact Mary Smyth at goodhopebiblestudy@gmail.com

Did you know?

The Catholic Church is entirely responsible for the composition of the Bible, which books are included, as well as the breakup of the chapters and verses. Protestants have removed some books of the Bible because some of the verses were inconsistent with their theology. Martin Luther was a prime offender in this regard, removing Tobit, Judith, 1 and 2 Maccabees, Wisdom, Sirach and Baruch. He also made an effort to remove James and Revelations, but this was rejected by his followers and those two books were kept. Catholics are often accused of "adding" the books, but despite this common belief, it is false. Older, pre-Protestant, Catholic translations of the Bible include them.

BUILD YOUR FAITH ON FORMED.ORG

Though they never appear in canonical Scripture, Sts. Joachim and Anne—the grandparents of Jesus—hold a place of great importance in the Church's tradition. Discover more about the parents of the Blessed Virgin Mary in this episode of Catholic Saints with Mary McGeehan and Augustine Institute professor Dr. Carl Vennerstrom.

St. Hildegard of Bingen

b. 1098

d. September 17, 1179

Feast: September 17

On May 10, 2012, Pope Benedict XVI gave St. Hildegard an equivalent canonization, and laid down the groundwork for naming her a Doctor of the Church. Five months later, she officially became a Doctor of the Church, making her the fourth woman of 35 saints to be given that title by the Roman Catholic Church. Pope Benedict XVI called Hildegard, "perennially relevant" and "an authentic teacher of theology and a profound scholar of natural science and music."
