Contest Instructions

1. Essays must be typed, double-spaced and 500-750 words
2. The essay must reflect the assigned prompt and be original work. Please do not use an AI composer. AI submissions will be disqualified.
3. The student's name appears on the entry form but not on the essay
4. The essay and the filled-in entry form must be submitted by January 5, 2026.
5. The essay must have the title of the essay on the title page only
6. Essays will not be returned.
7. Resource materials are available at www.kofc.org/essay select support materials then Resource page.

The Knights of Columbus is an international Catholic family fraternal service organization with more than two million members in more than 17,000 local councils worldwide. The Knights donate tens of millions of service hours and hundreds of millions of dollars to charitable and benevolent causes, sponsoring projects and activities that benefit their parish, councils, communities, families and youth.

Winners of each of the five grade level contests of the Council will be awarded a scholarship of $100. Winning essays will be forwarded to the Knights of Columbus organization for entry into subsequent higher-level chapter, regional and national essay contests.

The goal of the Catholic Citizenship Essay Contest is to give students an opportunity to define the role of a Catholic citizen, and to strengthen the bond between the Knights of Columbus and local schools.

Judging

1. How clearly is the theme presented?
2. Does the essay have proper grammar, spelling and essay structure.
3. Creativity, imagination, and a compelling style

Important Notice – Beware of Scammers

Please be aware of individuals falsely claiming to represent St. Anne Church. If anyone contacts you asking for money, donations, or financial information on behalf of St. Anne or Fr. Ron, do NOT respond. Instead, please contact the church office immediately. Your safety and security are our priority. Thank you for helping us keep our community protected.

Aviso Importante – Cuidado con Estafadores

Por favor, esté atento a personas que falsamente dicen representar a la Iglesia Santa Ana. Si alguien se comunica con usted pidiendo dinero, donaciones o información financiera en nombre de Santa Ana o Padre Ron, NO responda. En su lugar, por favor comuníquese de inmediato con la oficina de la iglesia. Su seguridad es nuestra prioridad. Gracias por ayudarnos a proteger a nuestra comunidad.
