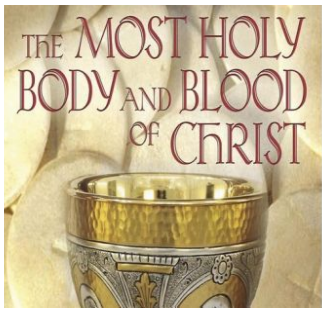
REFLECTION: June 14, 2020
The Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ (Corpus Christi)



Jesus offers us the abundant supernatural life of heaven itself - but we can miss it or even refuse it. To refuse Jesus is to refuse eternal life, unending life with the Heavenly Father. To accept Jesus as the bread of heaven is not only life and spiritual nourishment for this world but glory in the world to come. When we receive from the Lord's table we unite ourselves to Jesus Christ, who makes us sharers in his body and blood and partakers of his divine life. Ignatius of Antioch (35-107 A.D.) calls it the "one bread that provides the medicine of immortality, the antidote for death, and the food that makes us live for ever in Jesus Christ" (Ad Eph. 20,2). This supernatural food is healing for both body and soul and strength for our journey heavenward. When you approach the Table of the Lord, what do you expect to receive? Healing, pardon, comfort, and rest for your soul? The Lord has much more for us, more than we can ask or imagine. The principal fruit of receiving the Eucharist or Lord's Supper is an intimate union with Christ. As bodily nourishment restores lost strength, so the Eucharist strengthens us in charity and enables us to break with disordered attachments to creatures and to be more firmly rooted in the love of Christ. Do you hunger for the "bread of life"?
"Lord Jesus, you nourish and sustain us with your very own presence and life-giving word. You are the bread of life - the heavenly food that sustains us now and that produces everlasting life within us. May I always hunger for you and be satisfied in you alone."

REFLECCIONE: 14 de junio de 2020
Santísimo Cuerpo y Sangre de Cristo (Corpus Christi)

Jesús nos ofrece la abundante vida sobrenatural del cielo mismo, pero podemos perderla o incluso rechazarla. Rechazar a Jesús es rechazar la vida eterna, la vida sin fin con el Padre Celestial. Aceptar a Jesús como el pan del cielo no es solo vida y alimento espiritual para este mundo, sino gloria para la vida eterna. Cuando recibimos de la mesa del Señor, nos unimos a Jesucristo, quien nos hace partícipes de su cuerpo y sangre y participantes de su vida divina. Ignacio de Antioquía (35-107 d.C.) lo llama "el único pan que proporciona la medicina de la inmortalidad, el antídoto para la muerte y el alimento que nos hace vivir para siempre en Jesucristo" (Ad Eph. 20,2). Este alimento sobrenatural es curativo tanto para el cuerpo como para el alma y la fuerza para nuestro viaje hacia el cielo. Cuando te acercas a la Mesa del Señor, ¿qué esperas recibir? ¿Curación, perdón, consuelo y descanso para tu alma? El Señor tiene mucho más para nosotros, más de lo que podemos pedir o imaginar. El fruto principal de recibir la Eucaristía es una unión íntima con Cristo. A medida que la nutrición corporal restaura la fuerza perdida, la Eucaristía nos fortalece en la caridad y nos permite romper con apegos desordenados a las criaturas y arraigarnos más firmemente en el amor de Cristo. ¿Tienes hambre del "pan de vida"? "Señor Jesús, nos alimentas y nos sostienes con tu propia presencia y palabra vivificante. Tú eres el pan de vida, el alimento celestial que nos sostiene ahora y que produce vida eterna en nosotros. Que siempre tenga hambre de ti y esté satisfecho en ti solo ".
