Holy Spirit Mission Statement

We, the Family of Faith at Holy Spirit, proclaim that by our Baptism we share in Christ's mission as Priest, Prophet and King. We recognize our responsibility to give worship to God, reverence to all people, respect to all creation and to share the Good News of Jesus Christ. Acknowledging our own brokenness and our need to hope, we seek to be a forgiving and welcoming community committed to service by the sharing of life and love with all, and working together to make peace and justice a reality in our world. Strengthened by the presence of God in our lives, we undertake all of this through Our Lord Jesus Christ, Amen. Alleluia!

From The Pastor's Desk

Have you ever been to a circus? Almost every circus always has at least one high wire act. During this act, the performer walks a tightrope high in the air. The skill most needed for this type of dangerous undertaking is balance. Without balance, he would not be able to take more than a few steps without crashing down to the ground. And strange as it may seem, the object that many tightrope walkers use for balance is a large pole that they hold usually around chest level. Looking at them, we wonder how such a large object can help them. But the pole actually gives them more of a chance at balance than anything else.

In a very real way, you and I are in a kind of circus that requires continual balance. Life is often heavy on one side and we quickly sense that something is not going as it should. Usually that heavy side is made up of too much activity. Many of us are constantly trying to catch up with ourselves. We are just going too fast and we don't know how to get out of the rat race. We laugh at all of those predictions made so many years ago about how much leisure time we were going to have in the future. Those so-called prophets promised us that with more and better inventions our lives were going to be so much easier. Well, that has clearly not been the case. Many people are working longer hours than they ever imagined. The stress level for many people is at a clearly unacceptable level. We seem to have lost our balance.

Even two thousand years ago, Jesus was very aware of the necessity of balance. He knew that he needed to preach and to show signs that God's kingdom had come – curing the sick, casting out demons, forgiving sins; but he also knew quite clearly that he needed prayer and quiet to stay firmly grounded in his relationship to his Father. And so we hear in today's Gospel that: in the morning, while it was still very dark, Jesus got up and went out to a deserted place, and there he prayed. It seems that even Jesus needed that space apart, that quiet time of prayer to his Father. His loving and mysterious union with his Father was at the heart of his life.

When our lives are made up of 99% activity and only 1% prayer, we sense that something is not right. In fact, when we are overly active, the little time that we give to prayer is often just prayer on the run. Our prayer becomes just another activity. We often reserve just the minimal time for prayer and so when we get to it, we feel we have to get it all done in a hurry. Maybe we spend three minutes in prayer before we go to bed or when we rise in the morning. And that's it. It's hardly enough nourishment to get us through the day.

We simply need time to reflect and become aware of whom we are in God's eyes. We need the time and space to examine our lives and ask ourselves if everything we do is absolutely necessary. We must periodically ask ourselves in quiet and prayer about our relationships. Are we loving in a Christian and non-possessive way, or are we loving only so that we will receive love? And we don't need to ask these questions just once. They must be part and parcel of a reflective style of spirituality.

We know that the person who walks high above the air on a tightrope needed a lot of practice to attain such great balance. In our own lives, we should try not to become too discouraged when we have to renew our efforts at balance in our own lives. Any attempt we put forth to bring harmony into our lives is well worth the effort.

Fr. Joe

CHILDREN'S FAITH FORMATION

THANK YOU, THANK YOU to everyone who came out and supported our WACKY WAFFLE SUNDAY! What an incredible response we had! In fact, it was a bit unexpected and sent us to the store to purchase a second round of food supplies BEFORE the 9:30 a.m. Mass! How wonderful to see our wonderful parish community in action. Check back next week for our final tally of donations. Hopefully, we will have collected enough in donations to purchase our cordless vacuum cleaners! Yea!

And a huge, huge thank you to our wonderful Confirmation families who came in and rocked it in the kitchen! To Maribel Beltran & the Canchola Family; Monica Holland & family; Norma Scott & family; our two amazing Serrano families; and Gabriela Vasquez & family! Can these families cook a mean breakfast or what?!?...☺

Additionally, a shout out to my awesome group of catechists who stepped in to help, as well: Julie & Alisa Aguinaga; Jessica & Nathaniel Huckleba; Esther Jasso and Adrianna Mendoza & dad, Joe Lopez. And what can be said about the Limones Family who always seems to be there for those last minutes needs and the dreaded clean-up. They are a truly blessing to our parish. And Cindy Meyer, you deserve a big bouquet of roses...

2nd Grade Mornings with Mom & Dad are this Sunday, February 4 in the dining room during your child's normal Faith Formation time. Parents, plan on joining your child for another fun, faith-filled session but remember these sessions are NOT part of the sacramental preparation process. Also, Mornings with Mom & Dad are meant to give you and your child some quality one-on-one time, so please take advantage of our wonderful nursery for younger siblings. This allows all families attending to enjoy the session without disruption. 1st Grade Mornings with Mom & Dad are next Sunday, February 11.

The three week Theology of the Body (TOB) Mini-Series for Grades 4-6 will begin on Sunday, February 18. 2018 BISHOP'S ANNUAL APPEAL FOR CATHOLIC MINISTRIES

Next weekend, February 10-11, is Commitment Weekend which is an opportunity to help the Catholic Diocese of Dallas raise necessary funds for The Bishop's Annual Appeal. This year's theme for The Bishop's Annual Appeal is "Be the Miracle," so take a moment to visit the Dallas Catholic Diocese's website before attending Mass next weekend and watch a few short videos that capture how God uses your gifts to perform miracles every day. You can view the videos by visiting: www.dallasbishopsappeal.com.

Built on the basic building blocks of our faith, The Bishop's Annual Appeal is enhancing lives of those around us by supporting Catholic education, social service ministries through Catholic Charities, pastoral services and formation of seminarians.

Through your generous support, we are able to serve thousands of families and individuals throughout the Dallas Metroplex. You can donate directly online NOW—www.dallasbishopsappeal.com
