Holy Spirit Mission Statement

We, the Family of Faith at Holy Spirit, proclaim that by our Baptism we share in Christ's mission as Priest, Prophet and King. We recognize our responsibility to give worship to God, reverence to all people, respect to all creation and to share the Good News of Jesus Christ. Acknowledging our own brokenness and our need to hope, we seek to be a forgiving and welcoming community committed to service by the sharing of life and love with all, and working together to make peace and justice a reality in our world. Strengthened by the presence of God in our lives, we undertake all of this through Our Lord Jesus Christ, Amen. Alleluia

From The Pastor's Desk

So where do you keep your old love letters? Are they tied up with a pretty ribbon and hidden in a box under the bed? Or maybe they are lying somewhere in the back of your closet under a pile of old books. But more important than where you keep them, why are you keeping them? All of those old letters and card that meant so much to you when you first received them – aren't they just so much history now, just fond memories of the past? Why are you having so much trouble throwing them out?

You say you're not quite sure why you're hanging on to them? Well, let me guess. Those old letters and card are such beautiful reminders of some of the best times in your life that you think if you throw them away, you are denying that those times existed at all. You would be denying wonderful love you experienced, a love that told you that life was worth living and that you were worthy of life. By the way, if you don't have any old love letters, maybe it's time to start writing some!

Love letters are beautiful things. But don't worry if you don't have any hidden under your bed, because we all have a very large and beautiful love letter from God – we call it the Holy Scriptures, The Bible, The Word of God. And today, the only thing I want to do is remind you of that love letter and encourage you to look at it once again.

Our love letters from those who have loved us and do love us are like anchors in the sea of life, if I may be allowed to use an overworked and somewhat simple image. As we sail through life in our little boats, sometimes this sea gets so rough that we need to get into a place of shelter and throw the anchor out for a while so that we can regain a sense of security. True human love can give us that feeling of not being lost and alone. God has given us to one another and told us that the best thing we can do is to bring our love to each other.

As we read those old love letters, we once again are able to picture our beloved. Their words bring them alive to us once more, and so it is with reading the Sacred Scriptures. We hear how God took care of the chosen people – how God continually sheltered them, forgave them, consoled them, and finally how God sent Jesus as the Word Made Flesh, so that we could see how great God's love for us really is.

The Catechism of the Catholic Church tells us that, "The Church forcefully and specifically exhorts all the Christian faithful...to learn the surpassing knowledge of Jesus Christ, by frequent reading of the divine Scriptures." [par. 133]

So how are we supposed to do this reading and reflecting on the Scriptures? There are many different ways, but let me suggest one way. A very simple and effective way is to take the Scripture readings for the coming Sunday, and allow those readings to be part of our prayer during the week. What really matters is to allow God's Word to slowly become a part of your thinking, breathing and living. God's love letter can change our lives as it has done for so many people since the days when Jesus walked on earth.

Fr. Joe

Good-Bye from your Director

I wanted to take this opportunity to say Thank You to everyone I have had the pleasure of working with, celebrating with, and growing in faith with over the past 5 years. My last day as your Community Life Director will be October 23. It has been a privilege to be a part of this parish team and I look forward to stepping back into a volunteer role and enjoying more time with my family as my daughter approaches the end of high school. You will still see me and my family here participating and celebrating in our faith and following God to where my path leads next. May God continue to bless each of you, this parish and the next Director of Community Life.

Blessings,
Cindy Meyer ☺

Get ready for a fa "BOO" lous time on Halloween night, Thursday, October 31 from 6:00 - 8:00 p.m. in the Community Center gym for our annual.....

There'll be lots of games, snacks, treats and maybe even a few tricks. Be sure to bring a treat bag for all your loot and wear your cutest costume (let's keep it from being too creepy) and enjoy an evening of ghostly fun! To keep our event safe for all, full-face masks and toy guns of any kind will NOT be allowed. We will have security on-site for the entire evening. Admission is a canned food item for Holy Spirit's food pantry.

We are also graciously accepting donations of bagged Halloween candy, treats and prizes (we'll need a lot as this is one of our largest COMMUNITY events!). Please drop your donations off at the Community Center front desk, attention Deborah. Also, if you would like to volunteer to help out (Confirmation families, here's a great service project!), contact Deborah or Devyn.

4th Grade Mornings/Evenings with Mom & Dad sessions are this Sunday, October 20 the dining room/classroom.

Mom & Dad, plan on joining your child for some one-on-one time and experience what they are learning in their Faith Formation class. "Choose today whom you will serve...as for me and my household, we will serve the LORD."
Joshua 24:15

Please consider serving in these ministries and stop by our Liturgy Commission Ministry Fair in the Narthex today, October 20th after all Masses!

Altar Server Ministry: A very special way to serve God for the youth (at least 10 years old) and adults to help the Priest and Deacon during mass and special ceremonies

Extra Ordinary (Eucharistic) Ministry: What a blessing to be an Eucharistic Minister for He has chosen you to be in the presence of "BODY and BLOOD OF CHRIST". Couples and teenagers (16 and over who are in religious education classes) are encouraged to serve.

Funeral Ministry: An opportunity to help people at the moment of their greatest need for assistance and comfort.

Hospitality Ministry (usher): Assist in any way to keep the congregation, the church and the liturgy proceeding in orderly fashion.

Lector Ministry: 'The Lord has given me a well-trained tongue that I might speak to the weary a word that will rouse them'. Isaiah 50:4
Having a "well trained tongue" involves more than just practicing the words of the reading. You will find a closer and deeper relationship with the word of God as revealed through scripture. (Youth need to have received the Sacrament of Confirmation.)

Music Ministry: Sing to the Lord! Praise God with singing by joining Music Ministry. Singing together is much more fun and beautiful than singing alone. Remember, choir members will always have reserved seat in the church.

Sacristy: Assist in keeping the altar area clean, orderly and prepared for liturgy. Also keep all vestments and the altar vessels clean and orderly.

Liturgical Environment Ministry: Strives to prepare the worship space to promote an inviting Christian atmosphere for all seasons of the Church year, according to the guidelines of the Church, pastor and liturgy commission.

Please, pray and answer God's call to serve. Do not feel that you are not worthy to participate in this ministry. None of us are 'worthy' but we all are chosen. It is a cherished privilege to participate in God's banquet.

"What good is it, my brothers, if someone says he has faith but does not have works?" James 2:14
