These numbers are up 25% over last year.

We receive many items from Fulfill, the county food bank, but need the items below for our families. We buy them if they aren't donated so it would be a great help!

PASTOR'S Corner

Dear Parishioners, New Bulletin Format & Style

We're continuing to make our new bulletin more readable, simplified, and organized. Besides presenting you with information from various groups, we also try to imagine what you seek and what is good for you to know.

We will be including pictures from around the campus to help you feel more connected to our parish. I invite parish groups to submit pictures of your activities or groups. Make sure everyone in the picture is ok with the picture being published in the bulletin. Last week, I included a current picture of the front of our church. After Easter I'll feature other pictures from around campus.

Page 10 will usually feature three recommended items on Formed.org. Our parish has a subscription. The content is free to everyone in our parish.

Depending on how much room is available, I will write my weekly letter on page 7 or 8. I hope to include bulletin inserts about important topics. Last week, I included a two page article about Advanced Medical Directives.

This week is Holy Week. We focus on the suffering and death of Jesus Christ and look forward to the celebration of His resurrection on Easter Sunday. On page 9, I selected the "Be Not Afraid" article from RespectLife.org because I really want to encourage all of you who may be suffering more than usual in these difficult days.

The main purpose of this new bulletin is to better present Jesus Christ so that we might get to know Him, love Him, and serve Him better in this world as preparation for being happy with Him forever in Heaven.

We're on this journey to the Father's house together. So, we include news items about our parish and parish groups and from neighboring parishes.

God love you,

Fr. Jim

BE NOT Afraid

When battered by life's storms, or immersed in a dense fog of suffering and uncertainty, we may feel alone and unequipped to handle the circumstances. Yet with words that echo through thousands of years into the corners of our hearts, the Lord says to us, "Do not fear: I am with you" (Isaiah 41:10).

He speaks these words not as one who merely observes our pain, but as one who experienced immense suffering. And the very wounds that bear witness to his suffering indicate the essence of our identity and worth: we are loved by God.

Reflecting on the healed wounds of the Risen Christ, we see that even our most difficult trials can be the place where God manifests his victory. He makes all things beautiful. He makes all things new.

He is always with us. Jesus promised this when he gave the disciples the same mission he gives to each of us: Go.

Go be my hands and feet to a world enslaved by fear. Go to the woman who is unexpectedly pregnant and fears the future. Go to your friend who fears reprisal at work because he takes a stand for the protection of human life. Go to your aging parent in failing health who fears being a burden. And go to others, too, for their support.

We don't need to have everything figured out. We can simply follow the guidance of Our Blessed Mother, the first disciple: "Do whatever he tells you" (John 2:5).

Walk with each other. Do not be afraid to embrace God's gift of life. Whatever storms or trials we face, we are not alone. He is with us.
