penitential practices so that we'd be more ready for Easter. We want God to fill us with grace.

How about Easter practices? What can we do to enter more deeply into the truth that Jesus rose from the dead and will raise us from the dead someday?

During Spring, we often do spring cleaning. We might clean-up the yard as the leaves and flowers grow and the grass turns green. There's a mini-resurrection happening in nature right now. We might work inside the house to get it clean and better ready for visitors.

Another thing we might do in our home is prepare a place for prayer and reading if we don't already have such a place. For myself, I'm moving furniture around in the rectory to make it more conducive for reading, prayer, and deep sleep. It's like the rectory is going through a mini-resurrection.

I invite you to come to daily Mass. We're going more deeply into life in the early Church by going through the Acts of the Apostles for the first reading. We're also exploring the many Resurrection scenes with Jesus. Going more deeply into he practice of our faith helps us to be more open to a mini-resurrection that the Holy Spirit desires to do in us.

Thank You

I want to thank everyone who helped in any way during Holy Week and the Easter Triduum. We had 1216 people for Palm Sunday and 1148 people for Easter Sunday. These rank as the 1st and 3rd most people we've had since the pandemic started. Ash Wednesday comes in 2nd with 1189 people.

I thank the ushers for helping parishioners and visitors and the musicians for making our liturgies more beautiful. I thank the readers, servers, EMHCs, and livestreaming camera operators for their service. I thank Joe Pittarelli and the RCIA team for getting our candidates ready. I thank Tom, Matt, Joe, & Cathy for decorating for Easter. Thanks to our SVDP conference for helping the poor.

I thank everyone who has ever sent me a card, note, or gift for Easter, my birthday, Christmas, St. Patrick's Day, and all the other occasions. Thank you for your prayers, kind notes, and generous gifts.

God love you,
Fr. Jim

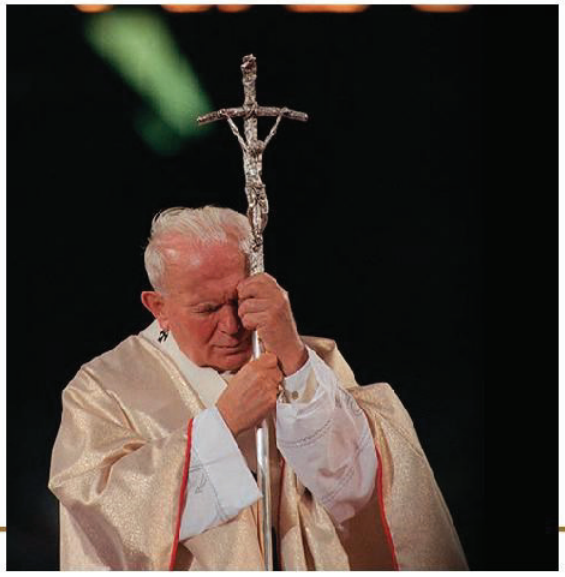
Divine Mercy Sunday

Second Sunday of Easter

"Jesus told Sr Faustina: 'Humanity will not find peace until it turns trustfully to divine mercy' (Diary, p. 132). . . It is not a new message but can be considered a gift of special enlightenment that helps us to relive the Gospel of Easter more intensely, to offer it as a ray of light to the men and women of our time." –St. John Paul II, Divine Mercy Sunday, 2000

In 1931, Jesus appeared to Sr. Faustina in Poland and expressed his desire for a feast celebrating his mercy. The Feast of Mercy was to be on the Sunday after Easter and was to include a public blessing and liturgical veneration of His image with the inscription "Jesus, I trust in You." All priests were to proclaim God's great mercy on this day.

This promise of mercy has been affirmed by the Church, which has made Divine Mercy Sunday an occasion for receiving a plenary indulgence, "the remission before God of the temporal punishment due to sin whose guilt has already been forgiven" (CCC, no. 1471). The plenary indulgence is granted to the faithful under the usual conditions (Confession, Eucharist, prayer for the intentions of the pope, and complete detachment from sin, even venial sin). The faithful may either take part in the prayers and devotions held in honor of Divine Mercy in any church or chapel or recite the Our Father and Creed in the presence of the Blessed Sacrament exposed or reserved in the tabernacle, adding a devout prayer to the merciful Lord Jesus.



The Easter Season

Easter isn't just a day, it's a whole season and stretches all the way to the feast of Pentecost.

At masses all through the Easter season, our usual practice of reading from the Old Testament is replaced be reading from the Acts of the Apostles. These readings tell the story of the church's earliest days, and the beginnings of our faith's spreading throughout the ancient world. These stories of heroism, controversies, persecutions and miracles all testify to the continued presence of the Risen Christ in the world, through the lives of his disciples, and the actions of the Holy Spirit.

All of this should be an encouragement and a sign of hope for us today. Despite war, violence, personal struggles, and an under-performing economy, God has not abandoned us, nor left us to our own devices. The risen savior is still with us. These 50 days of Easter ask us to reflect on his presence, and–even in the face of danger or fear–to live with joy.

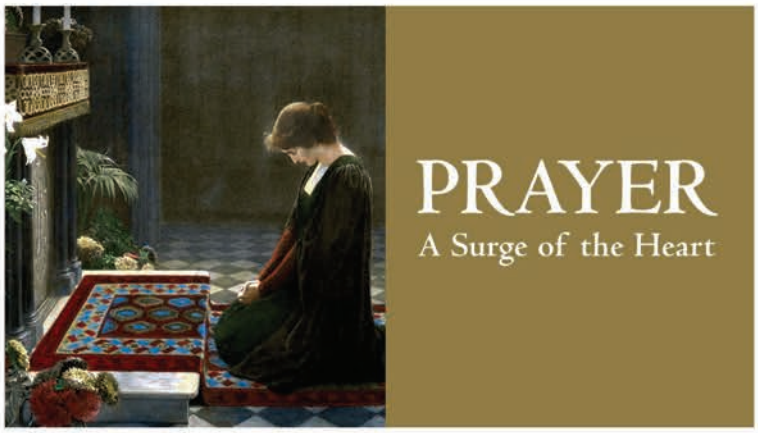
PRAYER: A SURGE OF THE HEART

Now that Lent is over, finding time to pray can be difficult. Modern life is very busy with so many distractions at every turn, and there's always another job to be done. This inspiring presentation challenges us to make more time for God in our lives and highlights the importance of an ever-deepening life of prayer.



LEARN

FORMED NOW! WHO IS ST. CATHERINE OF SIENA?

In light of St. Catherine of Siena's feast day, join Dr. Tim Gray and Dr. Elizabeth Klein as they celebrate this holy woman: a nurse and mystic with papal influence who became a doctor of the Church.

LISTEN

CAN YOU TRUST GOD? BY DR. TIM GRAY

To be a saint, we must trust God wholeheartedly. Since the fall of our first parents, however, humanity has been tempted to mistrust the Father's love for us. Scripture scholar Dr. Tim Gray takes us on a journey that addresses the pervasive misconceptions about God, showing us that there is no reason not to follow him.
