Welcome to St. Therese! We are so happy that you have joined us for this Mass celebration. If you've been away for a while, we know coming back to the church may not have been easy for you, but we are glad you are here.

MEMBERSHIP HAS ITS BENEFITS!

Becoming a member of the St. Therese Parish brings you into a family of Families, a network of loving individuals called together with a divine purpose—becoming Saints. By registering, you are giving us the gift of knowing you, understanding your needs and helping establish you into a group within St. Therese that will best fit what you are looking for. Come to the Parish Office or visit the Information Desk in the Social Room for a registration packet. If you are new to the area, please stop into the Parish Office and introduce yourself. We look forward to getting to know you!

Our six candidates for the Sacrament of Confirmation will be fully initiated into the Church by Bishop Boyea this Sunday, May 7, at 2:30PM at St. Mary Cathedral. Please keep our youth in your prayers as they receive the Seven Gifts of the Holy Spirit more fully into their lives. Thank you to Mrs. Amy Mumby and Mrs. Stephanie Smith for preparing them for this important sacrament over the past two years.

St. Therese Parish will honor our high school graduates at the 10:30AM Mass on Sunday, June 4. A breakfast hosted by the Knights of Columbus for the graduates and their families will follow in Fr. Murray Hall. We are requesting that each graduate submits a senior picture to the parish office for a special display. Please register for the Graduation Mass and Breakfast by Wednesday, May 24.

Our parish has a strong devotion to the Sacred Heart of Jesus which we commemorate on the First Friday of the month at the end of Mass by praying the Litany of the Sacred Heart. From 1673-1675 A.D., Jesus appeared to St. Margaret Mary Alacoque, a French Visitation nun, and revealed His Sacred Heart to her in a series of apparitions. He promised 12 blessings to those who display an image of the Sacred Heart in their homes, as well as those who receive Communion on the First Fridays of the month. A national organization called the Men of the Sacred Heart has contacted me and asked for my assistance in promoting further devotion to the Sacred Heart at St. Therese Parish. Each parish household that registers will receive a kit containing a framed image of the Sacred Heart of Jesus, blessed salt and a consecration prayer to be used at home. The Men of the Sacred Heart request a donation ($10 is recommended but any donation is fine) to cover the costs of materials and shipping. Please send the donation directly to the Men of the Sacred Heart in the envelope provided. The images of the Sacred Heart and salt will be blessed at prayer services following the 4:30PM Vigil Mass on Saturday, June 10, and 10:30AM Mass on Sunday, June 11, at St. Therese Church. If you would like to participate in this special prayer service, please register with the parish office by Wednesday, May 24. You can call the parish office directly or fill out the registration form in the bulletin and place it in the collection basket or mail it to the parish office. This will ensure that you have a prayer kit on the day of the blessing. If you already have an image of the Sacred Heart in your home, you might like to have a second one or to give one to a family member or friend.

The Diocesan Services Appeal continues. We have achieved 78% of our $52,411 goal with 40% of our parish households participating. Thank you to those who have made a pledge or one-time donation.

Continue to pray for peace throughout the world, including in the United States. Our nation has been plagued by another wave of senseless gun violence over these past weeks. Human rage seems to be at the center of these most recent detestable events. We pray that Jesus Christ, the King of Peace, brings healing to the victims' families and to our country.

God bless you,
Fr. John Fain

St. Margaret Mary Alacoque, a French Roman Catholic Visitation nun and mystic, is greatly recognized for her devotion to the Sacred Heart of Jesus.

She was born in 1647 in France as the only daughter of Claude and Philiberte Lamyn Alacoque. Margaret had always shown an intense love for the Blessed Sacrament and preferred silence over typical childhood play. She began practicing severe corporal mortification after her first communion at 9-years-old.

She continued this until rheumatic fever confined her to her bed for four years. After making a vow to the Blessed Virgin Mary to consecrate herself to religious life, Margaret instantly returned to perfect health. In recognition of this favor, Margaret added the name Mary to her baptismal name.

St. Margaret Mary Alacoque experienced visions of Jesus Christ for most of her life, but thought they were a normal part of life and continued to practice austerity.

After the death of her father, Margaret and her family were forced into poverty when a relative refused to hand over the family's assets. Margaret's only comfort in life was her frequent visits to pray before the Blessed Sacrament at a local church.

At 17-years-old, Margaret's family was able to regain control of their assets. Margaret's mother started encouraging her to become more social, in hopes she would find a suitable husband. Margaret eventually gained the support from the community's confessor, St. Claude de la Colombiere, who declared her visions were genuine.

St. Margaret Mary, who later became known as Novice Mistress, led the monastery in observing the Feast of the Sacred Heart privately, and inspired the construction of a chapel built to honor the Sacred Heart.

One night, after attending a ball in an evening dress, Margaret had a vision of Christ, scourged and bloody. He accused Margaret of forgetting about him. He showed her that His heart was full of love for her because of the promise she made to His Blessed Mother as a child. After this vision, Margaret was determined to fulfill the vow she made years ago. She entered the Visitation Convent at Paray-le-Monial in May 1671 to become a nun.

St. Margaret Mary was admitted to wearing the religious habit in August 1671 but was not officially admitted to profession until November 1672. Although she was described as humble, simple, kind and patient, Margaret had to prove the authenticity of her vocation.

During her time in this monastery, Margaret received several private revelations of the Sacred Heart of Jesus. These visions showed her the "form of the devotion, the chief features being reception of Holy Communion on the first Friday of each month, Eucharistic adoration during a 'Holy hour' on Thursdays, and the celebration of the Feast of the Sacred Heart." The Lord Jesus requested His love be made evident through her.

In her vision, she was instructed to spend an hour every Thursday night meditating on Jesus' Agony in the Garden of Gethsemane, a practice, known as "The Holy Hour," that later became widespread.

In December 1673, Jesus appeared to Margaret Mary again, and allowed her to rest her head on His heart. His human heart was to be the symbol of His divine-human love. He revealed to her the wonders of His love. He explained to her that He wished to make these wonders known to all the world, and that He chose her for His work.

Margaret Mary convinced her superior, Mother de Saumaise, her visions were authentic. However, she struggled with convincing others of the validity of her apparitions, even those in her own community. A group of theologians declared her visions delusions and suggested she eat better. Even parents of children she instructed began calling her an imposter.

Margaret eventually gained the support from the community's confessor, St. Claude de la Colombiere, who declared her visions were genuine. Finally, all opposition from the community, regarding Margaret's visions, ended in 1683, when Margaret Mary became the assistant to the Superior.

St. Margaret Mary, who later became known as Novice Mistress, led the monastery in observing the Feast of the Sacred Heart privately, and inspired the construction of a chapel built to honor the Sacred Heart.

Margaret Mary died a couple of years later, at the age of 43, on October 17, 1690, while being anointed. She spoke the words, "I need nothing but God, and to lose myself in the heart of Jesus."

After her death, the devotion to the Sacred Heart was adopted by the Jesuits but remained controversial within the Church. The practice did not become officially recognized until 75 years later.

St. Margaret Mary Alacoque was the topic of discussion long after hear death. People talked about her mission and qualities, her revelations and spiritual maxims and her teachings on the Sacred Heart. On September 18, 1864, Margaret Mary was beatified by Pope Pius IX. When her tomb was opened a few years later, two immediate cures took place and her body laid incorrupt.

St. Margaret Mary Alacoque was officially canonized on May 13, 1920 by Pope Benedict XV and, in 1928, Pope Pius XI upheld the Church's position regarding the credibility behind her visions of Jesus Christ. He stated Jesus "manifested Himself" to Margaret and the chief features of devotion to the Sacred Heart are "reception of Holy Communion on the first Friday of each month, Eucharistic adoration during a 'Holy hour' on Thursdays, and the celebration of the Feast of the Sacred Heart."

The Mission Continues Our Catholic faith is an essential part of our mission in life because it's an extraordinary gift we're given to help us live with the ultimate goal of heaven in mind. I am amazed every day that I get to be Catholic—that the Catholic faith is for me! And the very best part—it's for everyone! Our faith, rich in tradition and full of ways to participate, grow closer to God, and share the Good News, is meant for everyone. And that means we each have a calling to share it. But before we can share our love for our faith with others, we have to know why we love it. This week spend some time asking yourself...what do I love about being Catholic?
Parent Power and the Domestic Church Week 12 Reflection: As parents, the first thing we have to remember is that we lead by example, especially in matters of faith and prayer. It seems in 2023 we have so many more distractions from developing a culture of prayer in our lives and homes. However, in 2023 we also have some resources that weren't available in the past - and they're right at our fingertips. I invite you to check out one or more of the following apps on your smartphone…Hallow, Amen, Laudate, Ave Maria Radio, Jesus Calling, Pray, #Bible, and Truth & Life. Easter is the perfect time to make prayer a greater priority in your daily family life. And there's nothing wrong with using technology to do just that!

Jesus said to his disciples: "Do not let your hearts be troubled. You have faith in God; have faith also in me. In my Father's house there are many dwelling places. If there were not, would I have told you that I am going to prepare a place for you? And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come back again and take you to myself, so that where I am you also may be.
