REFLECTION ON SUNDAY'S READINGS

GOD'S PEOPLE GATHER

Our readings today remind us of the larger story of the Bible, of God's purposes and promises for the world. Because of humanity's rejection of God, as told in Genesis, human communities were first dispersed. Isaiah proclaims that one day God will gather these communities to be healed and reconciled with God. In Luke's Gospel, Jesus echoes Isaiah and teaches that all peoples in God's promised future "will recline at table in the kingdom of God." Notice that in Isaiah, the nations coming to God do not lose their ethnicity or unique identity. They bring their own distinct cultural gifts to God's table. Each people has its unique history with God, has received distinct blessings from God, and each is accountable to God. Today, we live in a global and multi-cultural Church. When God's diverse peoples gather in worship today, may we honor and celebrate each other's gifts and blessings.

REFLEXIÓN SOBRE LAS LECTURAS DEL DOMINGO

EL PUEBLO DE DIOS SE REÚNE

Nuestras lecturas de hoy nos recuerdan de la historia más amplia de la Biblia, de los propósitos y promesas de Dios para el mundo. Debido al rechazo de Dios por parte de la humanidad, como lo narra el libro del Génesis, las comunidades humanas fueron las primeras en dispersarse. Isaías anuncia que un día Dios reunirá a estas comunidades para sanarlas y reconciliarlas con Dios. En el Evangelio de Lucas, Jesús hace eco de Isaías y enseña que todos los pueblos del futuro prometido por Dios "se sentarán en la mesa del Reino de los Cielos". Date cuenta de que, en Isaías, las naciones que se acercan a Dios no pierden su identidad étnica o única. Ellos traen sus propios dones culturales inconfundibles a la mesa de Dios. Cada pueblo tiene su historia única con Dios, ha recibido bendiciones distintas de Dios, y cada uno es responsable ante Dios. Hoy, vivimos en un Iglesia global y multicultural. Cuando los distintos pueblos se reúnen hoy en el culto, podemos honrar y celebrar los dones y bendiciones de cada uno.

EUCHARISTIC REVIVAL
From the 2021 USCCB document on the Eucharist, the doctrinal source text for the Eucharistic Revival, "The Mystery of the Eucharist in the Life of the Church"

How can Jesus Christ be truly present in what still appears to be bread and wine?

In the liturgical act known as the epiclesis, the bishop or priest, speaking in the person of Jesus Christ, calls upon the Father to send down his Holy Spirit to change the bread and wine into the Body and Blood of Christ, and this change occurs through the institution narrative, by the power of the words of Christ pronounced by the celebrant. The reality that, in the Eucharist, bread and wine become the Body and Blood, Soul and Divinity of Christ without ceasing to appear as bread and wine to our five senses is one of the central mysteries of the Catholic faith. This faith is a doorway through which we, like the saints and mystics before us, may enter into a deeper perception of the mercy and love manifested in and through Christ's sacramental presence in our midst. While one thing is seen with our bodily eyes, another reality is perceived through the eyes of faith. The real, true, and substantial presence of Christ in the Eucharist is the most profound reality of the sacrament. "This mysterious change is very appropriately called by the Church transubstantiation." Though Christ is present to us in many ways in the liturgy, including in the assembly gathered, the presiding minister, and the word proclaimed, the Church also clearly affirms that "the mode of Christ's presence under the Eucharistic species is unique." As St. Paul VI wrote, "This presence is called 'real' not to exclude the idea that the others are 'real' too, but rather to indicate presence par excellence, because it is substantial and through it Christ becomes present whole and entire, God and man."28 In the sacramental re-presentation of his sacrifice, Christ holds back nothing, offering himself, whole and entire. The use of the word "substantial" to mark the unique presence of Christ in the Eucharist is intended to convey the totality of the gift he offers to us.

Reflection on St. Monica– Feast Day: August 27th

Today, with Google searches, online shopping, text messages, tweets, and instant credit, we have little patience for things that take time. Likewise, we want instant answers to our prayers. Monica is a model of patience. Her long years of prayer, coupled with a strong, well-disciplined character, finally led to the conversion of her hot-tempered husband, her cantankerous mother-in-law and her brilliant but wayward son, Augustine.
St. Monica is the patron saint of Alcoholics, Conversion, Mothers, and Wives.

¿QUÉ PODEMOS APRENDER DE SANTA MÓNICA?

1 A ORAR
Esposa de un hombre violento y madre de un hijo déspota, Mónica entendió que sólo Dios podía tocar sus corazones.

2 A TENER FE
Mónica nunca perdió la esperanza de ver la conversión de su hijo, incluso después de que lo corriera de la casa.

3 A PERSEVERAR
Nunca dejó de rezar por la conversión de su familia. Su esposo cambió y su hijo Agustín llegó a ser Doctor de la Iglesia.
