SUNDAY GOSPEL REFLECTION

The world is filled with people whose basic needs aren't met, whether for clean water, nutrition, safety, education, meaningful work, stable family life, basic medical resources, religious freedom, and the right to life. So how can we possibly believe what Psalm 145 says to us this week, "The hand of the Lord feeds us, he answers all our needs"? Does he? What about the countless poor? Can't we identify at least a few unmet needs in our own lives right now? Is the Bible promoting wishful thinking and laziness in helping others?

No. The psalm flows from Israel's experience of God's relentless fidelity again and again —especially in the Passover from Egypt. This divine providence is recalled when Jesus feeds the needy multitudes in the Gospel of John. Passover arrives once again, and the people are hungry like the ancient Israelites on the wilderness journey. What is new is that in Jesus God not only provides for their needs, but He learns what it's like to have those human needs. He shares them too. He feeds them bread and fish; and even more, He hungers to provide them, and us, much more than just that kind of perishable food.

Our deepest need is for God. Like the multiplied bread, all earthly provisions ultimately fail, for we all finally die. Of course, our obligation to meet the needs of the poor is basic. But Christ promises to feed us with the one bread that never fails: God Himself. He is humanity's eternal food. If we eat this bread, we taste the faithfulness of God who answers all our needs, even when every earthly thing fails.

MEDITACIÓN SOBRE EL EVANGELIO

Qué rico es comer hasta quedar satisfecho y más aún si el platillo que saboreamos es nuestra comida favorita. Imaginemos, ahora, que todo el mundo tuviera que comer y todos los días saborearan platillos succulentos en su mesa. Qué felicidad sería para todos, saber que juntos cambiaríamos la sociedad para tener todos suficiente comida en la mesa y el hambre y la guerra no existieran más. ¡Ese es el sueño de Dios! ¿Cuál es el nuestro? Ojalá sea cuidar los alimentos que consumimos y no desperdiciar la comida. "El hambre en el mundo es un escándalo y un crimen contra los derechos humanos. Es necesario un cambio radical", dice el Papa Francisco.

San Juan nos relata, en el Evangelio de hoy, la milagrosa multiplicación de los panes, donde todos comieron y hasta sobró, quedando satisfechos todos: "Recojan los pedazos que han sobrado para que no se pierda nada" (Juan 6:12). Qué maravilla, todos comieron y hasta sobró. Jesús se compadece de aquella gente que lo seguía, por atracción a sus milagros. Todos sabían que curaba a los enfermos, sacaba demonios y perdonaba los pecados. Ahora, se multiplica el pan y los peces y todos comieron quedando satisfechos. Y con las sobras se llenaron doce canastos para que muchos otros comieran. Es tal como nos dice el Papa Francisco sobre el cuidado de la casa común. Y nos recuerda que Jesús es el Pan que da vida, que se reparte y no se acaba. ¡Comamos todos de ese Pan, que es el mismo Jesús en la Eucaristía!
