ENCYCLICAL LETTER
LAUDATO SI'
OF POPE FRANCIS
ON CARE FOR OUR COMMON HOME*QUESTION AT THE HEART OF THE ENCYCLICAL:

"What kind of world
do you want to leave to those who come after us?" ¹⁶⁰

Concern for the environment
is no longer optional.

A person of faith should show
even more responsibility regarding creation, which is a gift from God.

THE TITLE

Taken from St. Francis' prayer: Canticle of the Creatures.

It reminds us that the earth "is like a sister with whom we share our life." ¹ "This sister now cries out to us because of the harm we have inflicted on her by our irresponsible use and abuse of the goods with which God has endowed her." ²

INCLUDE IN YOUR EXAMINATION OF CONSCIENCE:

How have I lived in communion with all creatures and with nature?

THE MESSAGE

"Humanity still has the ability to work together in building
our common home." ¹³
We are capable of rising above ourselves, "choosing again what is good, and making a new start." ²⁰⁵

Laudato Si' is a call to conversion
and action,
an invitation to
change direction
by taking on the task of caring for
our common
home.

MAIN THEMES

1. the relationship between the poor and the fragility of the planet
2. the conviction that everything in the world is connected
3. the critique of new paradigms and forms of power derived from technology
4. the call to seek other ways of understanding the economy and progress
5. the value proper to each creature
6. the human meaning of ecology
7. the need for direct and honest debate
8. the serious responsibility of international and local policy
9. the throwaway culture and the proposal of a new lifestyle
