TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading:

It was on that occasion that the LORD made a covenant with Abram, saying: "To your descendants I give the land, from the Wadi of Egypt to the Great River, the Euphrates." (Gn 15:18)

Psalm:

The Lord is my light and my salvation. (Ps 27)

Second Reading:

He will change our lowly body
to conform with his glorified body by the power that enables him also to bring all things into subjection to himself. (Phil 3:21)

Gospel:

Jesus took Peter, John, and James
and went up the mountain to pray.
While he was praying his face changed in appearance and his clothing became dazzling white. (Lk 9:28b-29)

A Message from the Pastor

Dear St. John Eudes family,

We continue on our faith journey as we celebrate the Second Sunday of Lent!

In this weekend's Gospel passage, we hear of the Transfiguration of Jesus. His clothes became radiant and the voice of the Heavenly Father could be heard.

We also hear of how a cloud came and cast a shadow over Peter, John, and James. They were frightened. The cloud however, wasn't a negative thing, it wasn't something to be afraid of; rather it was a disruption from the ordinary.

The cloud signified something beyond their understanding. They needed to surrender to the cloud of unknowing and enter into a holy space, to respond to where God was leading them.

Similarly, in the first reading, Abraham went into a trance. A deep, terrifying darkness enveloped him as God shared with him a special message.

When we are in periods of growth or transformation, we have to let go of, or unlearn what we knew before. As God leads us through this season of Lent, we may experience moments or periods of darkness, where we don't necessarily feel in control. That can be scary, even terrifying.

As long as God is leading us, we are in good hands. We too, can hear and heed the words of the Heavenly Father, when he says of Jesus, "this is my chosen Son; listen to him."

Listening and trusting in faith with you,
Father Ethan

Un Mensaje del Pastor

Querida familia de San Juan Eudes,

¡Continuamos en nuestro camino de fe mientras celebramos el Segundo Domingo de Cuaresma!

En el pasaje del Evangelio de este fin de semana, escuchamos de la Transfiguración de Jesús. Sus vestimentas se volvieron radiantes y se pudo escuchar la voz del Padre Celestial.

También oímos hablar de cómo llegó una nube y proyectó una sombra sobre Pedro, Juan y Santiago. Estaban asustados. Sin embargo, la nube no era algo negativo, no era algo a lo que temer; Más bien fue una interrupción de lo ordinario.

La nube significaba algo que estaba más allá de su comprensión. Necesitaban rendirse a la nube del desconocimiento y entrar en un espacio santo, para responder a donde Dios los estaba guiando.

De manera similar, en la primera lectura, Abraham entró en trance. Una oscuridad profunda y aterradora lo envolvió mientras Dios compartía con él un mensaje especial.

Cuando estamos en periodos de crecimiento o transformación, tenemos que soltar o desaprender lo que sabíamos antes. A medida que Dios nos guía a través de esta temporada de Cuaresma, podemos experimentar momentos o períodos de oscuridad, en los que no necesariamente sentimos que tenemos el control. Eso puede ser temeroso, incluso aterrador.

Mientras Dios nos guíe, estamos en buenas manos. También nosotros podemos escuchar y prestar atención a las palabras del Padre Celestial, cuando dice de Jesús: "Este es mi Hijo elegido; Escúchalo".

Escuchando y confiando en la fe contigo,
Padre Ethan

REVEAL Christ's LOVE

For people living in developing countries around the world, lack of access to traditional financial services keeps them from providing for their material needs. A Catholic Relief Services (CRS) program has created Savings and Internal Lending Communities (SILCs) to address this lack by helping poor communities to pool savings, which then can be lent to SILC members to build or grow businesses at low cost. In Chad, Claudine, a mother of six, uses loans from her local SILC to buy large, lower-cost quantities of the ingredients she needs to make the beignets she sells at market. Before the SILC was established, Claudine was barely able to sell enough beignets to live. But now these cost savings allow her to care for her family and pay school fees.

Your support for The Catholic Relief Services Collection helps CRS address the needs of people in developing countries through innovative solutions that strengthen communities and equip them with resources and skills to prosper—and you also support five other Catholic organizations' outreach to other vulnerable people.
