Solemnity of Sts. Peter and Paul, Princes of the Apostles

Dear Holy Angels Family and Friends,

I am especially happy to be writing from Vacaville, "Cowtown," California where I am waiting for the Silver Jubilee Mass to start to celebrate and to give thanksgiving for the twenty-five years of sacerdotal life of my priest friend and fellow seminarian alumnus, Fr. Blaise Berg's. While he is now a seminary professor and formator of seminarians, until this last year he was involved for many years in parish work.

While at St. Patrick's Seminary, whose photos were in the bulletin insert letter from last weekend, I was able to give some extra time to prayer and reflection. Then, too, Fr. Berg and I took a pilgrimage to Carmel By the Sea where Father Junipero Serra, the Apostle of California – and one might truly say, Apostle to the United States – canonized recently by Pope Francis, is laid to rest. The saint came to the shores of California before we were birthed as a nation and directed and helped establish twenty-one missions – pearls along that long Pacific coast – to engage the native Americans in worthwhile farming, teaching then enterprises, but most of all handing on our precious and priceless Catholic Faith. It is amazing, just at that particular mission of San Carlos Borromeo, where he is interred with contemporaries under the sanctuary floor, to appreciate the phenomenal restoration work of so much of the mission campus. It is a real thing of beauty! And when we appreciate all the effort that he and other Franciscans made in instilling the love of the Holy Trinity and welcoming the natives to the embrace of Holy Mother Church, we realize just what a great saint he is! He and the other Franciscans made sure that the missions were a good distance from the presidios of the Spanish soldiers, as he wanted to protect the natives from the military when they might get out of control.

It is all-so appropriate that St. Junipero is the patron of vocations and Serra vocation clubs in the United States! Alas! While I was impressed with the young vocation director, Fr. Cameron Faller of the Archdiocese of San Francisco, whom I met over a holy hour over which he presided that Fr. Berg and I attended, and then conversing with him and learning about their vocations afterwards over dinner with several other priests, I was saddened to learn that their own Serra Clubs are no longer in existence while ours in our Archdiocese and in dioceses around us, are thriving.

While what Fr. Declan Gibson said is true – that we must direct and focus our prayers in our chosen adoration hours of prayer for particular merit and for God's will – we must wed to those hours as well a desire always to foster vocations to the priesthood of Jesus Christ and to the religious life, as well as to holy matrimony with spiritually healthy families. We thank God for the countless single individuals through their own holy lives how in many ways have fostered countless vocations as well.

Please offer to give an hour of yourself in prayer over to Christ's infinite power by being in Christ's Eucharistic presence in our adoration chapel. Sign up for "The Door Is Always Open" adoration program we are fostering. Call Mike or Ginny on the bulletin cover or call the office or stop by after Mass at the adoration information table.

Even if you are not convinced of this powerful program, please avail yourselves of hearing about it in a week's time, and come, at 1:30 pm this next Sunday, July 16, to our parish hall for prayer, orientation and fellowship with some drinks and eats to celebrate getting our adoration program underway!

In the Eucharistic Heart of Jesus Christ, King of the Apostles,

Fr. Richard McDonald

HEADPHONES AVAILABLE FOR THE HARD OF HEARING.
PLEASE ASK AN USHER OR GREETER.

Prayer to Become a Living Monstrance

Lord Jesus, please fashion me into a living Eucharistic monstrance so that I may be a vessel of mercy carrying Your love to others. Through our Eucharistic incorporation, grant that I may be a child of the light, salt of the earth, bread for the hungry, water for the thirsty, new wine, and healing oil for others. May people see You in my servant's heart, You in the light of my eyes, in the warmth of my heart, in the works of my hands, in the words of my voice, in the incense of my prayer, in the lightness of my laughter, in the glistening of my tears, in the lowliness of your creature. Hide me, I pray, in the gilded monstrance of Your most merciful Sacred Heart so that I will be a living monstrance radiating healing rays of mercy."

ASPIRATION

Eucharistic Heart of Jesus, have mercy on us!

The Knights of Columbus will be collecting food and paper products during the month of July for BLAS. Tubs will be set out and food will be picked up and delivered to BLAS weekly. Thank you for your support!

Dear Friends,

It is an established and known fact that people who sing are happier than those who do not. That is reason enough to consider participating in the

SUMMER SOLFEGE SINGALONG
