Dear Parish Family and Friends of Holy Angels,

Tomorrow, Monday, August 28, is the great feast of the son of St. Monica: St. Augustine, a Father of the Church and the “Doctor of Grace.” He is known as the most famous convert after Saul of Tarsus became St. Paul, Apostle to the Gentiles. Besides having written the most famous autobiography of Christian conversion, The Confessions of St. Augustine, which every Christian should read, he has many famous lines, but the most renowned being, “Our hearts are restless, [Lord God,] until they rest in you!” Here is it in context to the writing around it:

Great are You, O Lord, and greatly to be praised; great is Your power, and of Your wisdom there is no end. And man, being a part of Your creation, desires to praise You — man, who bears about with him his mortality, the witness of his sin, even the witness that You resist the proud, — yet man, this part of Your creation, desires to praise You. You move us to delight in praising You; for You have made us for Yourself, and our hearts are restless until they rest in You. Lord, teach me to know and understand which of these should be first: to call on You, or to praise You; and likewise to know You, or to call on You. But who calls upon You without knowing You? For he that knows You not may call upon You as other than You are. Or perhaps we call on You that we may know You. But how shall they call on Him in whom they have not believed? Or how shall they believe without a preacher? Romans 10: 14 And those who seek the Lord shall praise Him. For those who seek shall find Him, Matthew 7:7 and those who find Him shall praise Him. Let me seek You, Lord, in calling on You, and call on You in believing in You; for You have been preached unto us. O Lord, my faith calls on You — that faith which You have imparted to me, which You have breathed into me through the incarnation of Your Son, through the ministry of Your preacher.

He wrote and offered the most eloquent and articulate epistles, meditations, reflections and some of the most superb sermons and homilies of all time.

Some of the best lines in our recently concluded book study of Jesus and the Jewish Roots of the Eucharist came from St. Augustine. In his homilies on the Gospel of St. John:

*The manna also came down from heaven; but the manna was a shadow, this [the Bread of Life that is the Holy Eucharist] is the truth. ‘If anyone shall have eaten of this Bread, he will live forever; and the Bread which I shall give, is my Flesh for the life of the world.’
(Tractate on St. John, 26:13)*

For Augustine, the Eucharistic mystery was so real that he even called Christians to give to it the adoration due to God alone: ‘No one eats that Flesh unless he has first adored it . . . and we sin by not adoring’ (On the Psalms 98:9).

St. Augustine, pray for us to be great believers and charitable Catholics!

In the Holiest Hearts of Jesus, Mary and Joseph,

Fr. Richard McDonald

Reverence for the Eucharist: Be Amazed! What the saints have said about Eucharistic Adoration . . .

Sometimes, it's just plain helpful to hear what others have to say about a topic. This is especially true when those "others" bear the title "Saint." Take one or more of these reflections into your next visit with Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament.

"In a world where there is so much noise, so much bewilderment, there is a need for silent adoration of Jesus concealed in the Host. Be assiduous in the prayer of adoration and teach it to the faithful. It is a source of comfort and light, particularly to those who are suffering." - Pope Saint Benedict XVI

"A thousand years of enjoying human glory is not worth even an hour spent sweetly communing with Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament." - St. Pio of Pietrelcina

"Perpetual Eucharistic Adoration with exposition needs a great push. People ask me: 'What will convert America and save the world?' My answer is prayer. What we need is for every parish to come before Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament in holy hours of prayer." - St. Teresa of Calcutta

"What does the poor man do at the rich man's door, the sick man in the presence of his physician, the thirsty man at a limpid stream? What they do, I do before the Eucharistic God. I pray. I adore. I love." - St. Francis of Assisi

"Let your door stand open to receive Him, unlock your soul to Him, offer Him a welcome in your mind, and then you will see the riches of simplicity, the treasures of peace, the joy of grace. Throw wide the gate of your heart, stand before the sun of the everlasting light." - St. Ambrose

"Until we have a passionate love for our Lord in the Most Blessed Sacrament we shall accomplish nothing." - St. Peter

"If people spent one hour per week in Eucharistic Adoration, abortion would be ended." - St. Teresa of Calcutta

"I understand that, each time we contemplate with desire and devotion the Host in which is hidden Christ's Eucharistic Body, we increase our merits in heaven and secure special joys to be ours later in the beatific vision of God." - St. Gertrude the Great

"The best, the surest and the most effective way of establishing PEACE on the face of the earth is through the great power of Perpetual Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament." - Pope Saint John Paul II

NEW CHORAL MUSIC EXPERIENCE FOR THE YOUTH: CATHOLIC ACADEMY OF SACRED MUSIC

Take part in the ultimate Catholic sacred music choral experience, open to very young children through 12th grade. Students will learn the rudiments of music reading, healthy vocal technique and expressive singing, all while engaging with some of the greatest music ever written.

Instructor, Dr. Lucas Tappan, DMA.

Dr. Lucas Tappan is music director at Most Pure Heart of Jesus Church in Topeka. He will offer this music experience at Holy Angels beginning in the fall. It will be open to very young children through 12th grade (children under 7 must be accompanied), in the Leavenworth, Wyandotte and Johnson Counties and surrounding areas and meet once a week in the church basement of the little church.

Come and See experience (at no cost or obligation) on Monday, September 11 (9:00-11:00am) in the basement of the little church so you and your children can experience a typical class. (children must be accompanied at this first class).

*Should you wish to enroll your children in the CHORAL MUSIC EXPERIENCE after the Come and See Experience, there is a $150 fee per child 7 and older for the entire year (for the first 3 children in one family, after which additional children are free)

Please contact Dr. Tappan if you plan to attend the Choral Music Experience or wish to enroll:

A Holy Life: The Writings of St. Bernadette of Lourdes

This will be a 6 to 7 week book discussion as we learn the secrets to St. Bernadette's holiness and happiness. The story of the apparitions of Our Lady to Bernadette Soubirous are well known, but in this study we will become familiar with the saint's own spiritual insights and profound holiness.

Though St. Bernadette suffered greatly throughout her life, the heroic response of this humble, self-effacing nun transformed excruciating suffering into spiritual fruitfulness. Her letters and writings, in this book, serve as a model for others passing through their own trials. Anyone pursuing a deeper spiritual life will appreciate knowing Bernadette as she truly was, and the inspiring spiritual works of wisdom she offers to us all.

Grab your copy of this wonderful book and join us on our journey! If you have any questions, do not hesitate to contact Jamie Oswald at jamieoswald2010@gmail.com or at 913-9561428.

Hope & Healing Meets Sept. 2

Our next meeting for those working through the loss of a loved one will be 9 am, Saturday, Sept. 2, at the home of Melanie Savner. Our "kitchen table" topic will include unresolved issues with the person who passed, and memories of your loved one, including how to remember. If you are interested in this casual support group, please call Melanie at 913-707-6963.

Have you been thinking about becoming a Catholic someday?

To become Catholic is to take a firm stance about one's beliefs, one's practices and one's way of life. It is even more than that actually. Becoming a Catholic means encountering and embracing Jesus Christ in the fullness of HIS teaching and presence. Therefore the choice to become a Baptized and Confirmed believer united to Jesus by the gift of the Holy Eucharist can only be made after careful preparation and spiritual strengthening. The process of preparation and strengthening to become Catholic involves the "Order of Christian Initiation of Adults," or OCIA.

The OCIA process is carried out at most parishes. At Holy Angels, we are always ready to accept new inquirers who are not Catholic yet or those Catholic Adults who wish to complete their initiation through the sacraments of Confirmation and/or First Holy Communion. We also invite returning Catholics who would like a new start in their faith.

If you would like to register or have questions please call the church office at 913-724-1665 or contact Greg and/or Judy Beck at 913-683-3520 or beckjamb@gmail.com
