Memorial of St. Wenceslaus, Martyr

Dear Parish Family and Friends of Holy Angels,

Just last weekend the earth went through the autumnal equinox, and this Sunday heralds the colorful month of October. Yet, today, on the martyr's feast, thoughts are on a favorite Christmas carol: "Good King Wenceslaus." It is the combination of the pleasantly infectious melody, the great lines in the stanzas calling each of us back to living out the tenants of basic Christianity, and the idea of reflecting on having a truly noble, Catholic king as ruler – as truly Catholic culture!

Good King Wences'las looked out,
on the Feast of Stephen,
When the snow lay round about,
deep and crisp and even;
Brightly shone the moon that night,
tho' the frost was cruel,
When a poor man came in sight,
gath'ring winter fuel.
"Hither, page, and stand by me,
if thou know'st it, telling,
Yonder peasant, who is he?
Where and what his dwelling?"
"Sire, he lives a good league hence,
underneath the mountain;
Right against the forest fence,
by Saint Agnes' fountain."
"Bring me flesh, and bring me wine,
bring me pine logs hither:
Thou and I shall see him dine,
when we bear them thither."
Page and monarch, forth they went,
forth they went together;
Through the rude wind's wild lament
and the bitter weather.
"Sire, the night is darker now,
and the wind blows stronger;
Fails my heart, I know not how;
I can go no longer."
"Mark my footsteps, my good page.
Tread thou in them boldly.
Thou shalt find the winter's rage freeze thy blood less coldly."
In his master's steps he trod,
where the snow lay dinted;
Heat was in the very sod
which the saint had printed.
Therefore, Christian men, be sure,
wealth or rank possessing,
Ye who now will bless the poor,
shall yourselves find blessing.

The whole calendar of the Church resonates with saints, martyrs and angels. In looking at the Roman Martyrology, one can actually view quite a number of saints for each day of the year. Of course, some are more celebrated some places rather than other places.

Next weekend, October 7 and 8, we celebrate the Patronal Feast of the Parish – the Holy Angels – at each of the weekend Masses. Pastors have the privilege of moving the patronal feast of the parish to a Sunday near the holy day landing in the week, so we happily celebrate our feast this year on the first full weekend of October coinciding with our Fall Family Festival to which I hope all parishioners – and non-Catholic people within our parish boundaries – will come!

Dear Parishioners, when you see unfamiliar faces at next weekend's festival, greet them with a smile and welcome the persons, making them feel at home! In encountering Holy Angels' Parish warmth and hospitality, maybe they will become parishioners!

In the Holiest Hearts of Jesus, Mary and Joseph,

Fr. Richard McDonald

"Sew Many Angels"

is planning a sewing and assembly workshop to provide baptismal bibs to Alexandra's House who distribute Wee Care Gift Bags to comfort the parents of their special little angels. Donna Thomas and Kittie Umscheid organize and lead the bib workshops.

Please join us for our semi-annual bib assembly workshop in the Holy Angels Parish Hall on Friday, October 13th and Saturday, October 14th from 9:30 a.m. - 5:00 p.m. Machines and all supplies will be provided. If you prefer to work on your own machine, please bring it along with its necessary supplies (presser foots, needles, etc.). Include a sack lunch or snack and drink. We appreciate any amount of time you can assist; all experience levels are beneficial. There are many non-sewing tasks too, so don't feel you can't help if you don't sew! We also need help to mark, cut, pin, and iron.

If you are interested, please call, text, or email one of us so we can list your name, phone number, and email so we may contact you if there are any last-minute changes.

If you are unable to participate, a donation for supplies is always welcome. Drop off cash or checks in an envelope to the church office. Label the envelope Sew Many Angels and make any checks out to Donna Thomas. (Do not make them out to Holy Angels). Thank you, our goal is 200 bibs per year.

Many thanks to all who have helped in the past!!

Session 4

The Overthrow of Satan
 Saturday, Oct. 8, 7-8 am

This weekend Holy Angels is blessed to display the Knights of Columbus Silver Rose in our parish. The Silver Rose honors Our Lady of Guadalupe, expresses our unity and reaffirms our dedication to the sanctity of human life. It is to the Blessed Mother that we turn in prayer as we work to end the Culture of Death that grips our society. As we think in terms of "One Life, One Rose" it is most appropriate that we turn to our Lady of Guadalupe-- patroness of the America's-- who made known her will through Juan Diego and the miracle of the roses.

Guide Book & Directory Advertising Opportunity

We are in the process of updating our annual Guide Book & Directory for the church. This book will contain everything pertinent to our church: the various ministries, organizations, committees, activities, functions and events plus a complete directory of all members. This book is being provided and direct-mailed to each family at no cost to our church, and it is again being subsidized by local businesses that advertise. If you own or manage a business and would like to find out about advertising in our book, please call the Church Office.

Recent survey results by Guide Book Publishing show that 92.1% of families would rather patronize a Guide Book & Directory advertiser over a non-advertiser. It "will pay" to advertise in our new Guide Book & Directory.

Update Membership Information

Does our Church database have YOUR family membership record correct? Here is your chance to update YOUR record for our annual Guide Book & Directory (if you haven't already done so). It is time for us to update our database with any changes, additions, or deletions that may have occurred in YOUR family over the past year. Have you changed your phone number? Have you moved? Are you preparing to move soon? Are all of your children still at home and are they all included in your membership record? Do you want your record published? If you have not already informed the Church Office about changes to your record, please let us know now so that the information in the Guide Book & Directory is correct. The Church Office number is 913-724-1665.

Thank you for your help!
