PRAYER

"Almighty God, our creator and guide, may we put our faith into action and serve you with all our heart." Amen.

From toddlerhood to old age, we grow in mastery of our own lives, our bodies, and our destiny. This mastery is hard won, and we don't let go of autonomy easily. Much of this self-mastery involves the avoidance of pain or discomfort, so when we hear things like "take up your cross" and "lose your life," we tend to resist the message. James says that faith without works is dead. Ouch! That is really a direct message! One way to look at this, as well as the part about losing our life to find it, is that faith is a process of more and more openness to God's direction of our lives. It is very hard for us to give up control, but perhaps what we are being asked to do is not to become passive and babyish, but to allow God to direct where our self-mastery will lead and what it will accomplish. We are asked to relinquish the need to control the results of our efforts; to risk, as Jesus did, the loss of everything we are working to achieve. We are asked to let God take the lead and to control the results, even though we may never see those results.

Sunday Gospel Reflections From Bishop Parkes

Take Up Your Cross and Follow Jesus

"He summoned the crowd with his disciples and said to them, 'Whoever wishes to come after me must deny himself, take up his cross, and follow me.'" – Mark 8:34

In early July we witnessed the Tampa Bay Lightning win the Stanley Cup. In February, we saw our Buccaneers win the Super Bowl and last year we saw the Rays go to the World Series. The teams are models of success. But that success did not come without tremendous sacrifice of time away from family and friends, sacrificing their personal goals for the team, and for some of the players, even a cut in pay to keep the team together.

Life is difficult and requires some sacrifice. Parents give a great deal to their children so that the kids might succeed in life. A servant-leader in the office sacrifices his or her time and efforts for the good of the team. In Mark's Gospel this weekend, Jesus says, "Whoever wishes to come after me must deny himself, take up his cross, and follow me." They now are faced with the man, who they have followed for some time, telling them that they must deny themselves of all they know, take up a cross and follow Him. Remember, the cross back then was a form of execution carried out by the Romans. Hearing this must have been somewhat shocking to the disciples. They probably would not fully comprehend this until seeing their savior carrying His own cross to His death.

We must also remember that the cross is heavy, challenging, and sometimes too much to bear. But, for Christians, it symbolizes hope and eternal life. The disciples would come to believe this and bring others with them.

Being a Christian today is more challenging than ever. It means giving up things of this world. Are you willing to give up watching the ball game to go to Mass? Are you willing to give up an afternoon at the movies to spend time doing some charitable work or ministry? Are you willing to be ridiculed by co-workers, neighbors, or others for your beliefs? You can be sure that discipleship has a price. How much and what are you willing to sacrifice? Have the courage today to examine what you might sacrifice so that you might more closely follow Jesus Christ.

- Bishop Gregory Parkes

As of August 16, we received $48,491 or about 60% of our Annual Pastoral Appeal (APA) Assessment. Thus far, 270 parishioners have donated for a participation rate of 31%. Our goal is 100% participation.

Realistically, to reach our goal of $81,541, we will need to pull together another $33,050. That will mean about 175 additional pledges at the current average contribution of $190.

Every dollar helps. If you have not yet contributed to the Annual Pastoral Appeal, please do so. If you have already given, please consider giving a little more. Please contact the parish office, 352-746-2144, for instructions for making a donation.

APA is one of our responsibilities to the Diocese of St. Petersburg as it directly funds more than 50 diocesan ministries, programs and services each year.

If we do not reach our assessment from donations to APA, the parish will have to take from Offertory donations to make up the difference.

Our Pastor Father Erwin and the Finance Council extend a heartfelt "Thank You!" to all who have given thus far.

"Give and gifts will be given to you; a good measure, packed together, shaken down, and overflowing, will be poured into your lap. For the measure with which you measure will in return be measured out to you." (Luke 6:38)

2021 MISSION CO-OP Collection Today

Please be generous in the second collection in order to help our brothers and sisters who are in dire need of our assistance. Thank you very much.

Reflexiones del Evangelio Dominical del Obispo Parkes

Toma tu cruz y sigue a Jesús

"Después llamó a la multitud y a sus discípulos, y les dijo: "

El que quiera venir conmigo, que renuncie a sí mismo, que cargue con su cruz y que me siga". - Marcos 8, 34

A principios de julio fuimos testigos cómo los Tampa Bay Lightning ganaron la Copa Stanley. En febrero vimos a nuestros Buccaneers ganar el Super Bowl y el año pasado vimos a los Rays ir a la Serie Mundial. Nuestros equipos son modelos de éxito. Pero ese éxito no llegó sin un tremendo sacrificio de tiempo alejados de su familia y amigos, el sacrificio de sus objetivos personales por el equipo, y para algunos de los jugadores, incluso un recorte de sueldo para mantener el equipo intacto.

La vida es difícil y requiere algunos sacrificios. Los padres dan mucho a sus hijos para que éstos tengan éxito en la vida. Un líder que sirve en una oficina sacrifica su tiempo y sus esfuerzos por el bien del equipo. En el Evangelio de san Marcos de este fin de semana, Jesús dice: "El que quiera venir conmigo, que renuncie a sí mismo, que cargue con su cruz y que me siga". Ahora se encuentran con que el hombre, al que han seguido durante algún tiempo, les dice que deben negarse a sí mismos de todo lo que conocen, tomar una cruz y seguirle. Recuerda que la cruz en aquel entonces era una forma de ejecución utilizada por los romanos. Oír esto debió ser algo alarmante para los discípulos. Probablemente no lo comprenderían del todo hasta que vieran a su salvador llevando su propia cruz hasta la muerte.

Debemos también recordar que la cruz es pesada, desafiante y a veces demasiado para soportar. Pero, para los cristianos, simboliza la esperanza y la vida eterna. Los discípulos llegarían a creer esto así como sus seguidores.

Ser cristiano hoy en día es más desafiante que nunca. Significa renunciar a las cosas de este mundo. ¿Estás dispuesto a dejar de ver el partido de béisbol para ir a la Misa? ¿Estás dispuesto a renunciar a una tarde en el cine para dedicar tiempo a alguna obra de caridad o ayudar en un ministerio? ¿Estás dispuesto a que tus compañeros de trabajo, tus vecinos u otras personas te ridiculicen por tus creencias? Puedes estar seguro de que cuesta el ser discípulo. ¿Qué cosas y cuánto de ellas estás dispuesto a sacrificar? Ten el valor de examinar hoy lo que podrías sacrificar para seguir más de cerca a Jesucristo. - Monseñor Gregory Parkes
