The Eucharist: Flesh and Blood

Is your parish celebrating this Solemnity with a Corpus Christi Procession? This traditional way of honoring the Eucharist goes back to the 1300's, and is a beautiful public proclamation of our faith in Christ's real presence in the Sacrament.

What exactly does our Faith teach about the Eucharist (which comes from the Greek word for “thanksgiving”)? From the very beginning, the Church has understood this Sacrament to be Christ Himself, as he clearly states in today's Gospel: “My flesh is true food, and my blood is true drink. Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood remains in me and I in him.” The earliest effort we know to explain this in writing came in the 2nd century, when St. Justin wrote that this bread and wine are truly the flesh and blood of Jesus: “For not as common bread and common drink do we receive these; but as Jesus Christ our Savior, having been made flesh by the Word of God, had both flesh and blood for our salvation, so likewise... the food which is blessed by the prayer of His word, and from which our blood and flesh by transmutation are nourished, is the flesh and blood of that Jesus who was made flesh.”

Later, the explanation of this change was developed further. We now say that Christ is “really, truly, and substantially present” in the Eucharist. It is really His Presence, it has “real being,” not just mental existence. It is truly the Presence of Christ, not just a symbol or representation. And no matter what our senses tell us, we know that the substance is Christ, who is wholly present – Body, Blood, Soul, and Divinity – in each element and every part of them. In every drop and every crumb, Christ is wholly present: really, truly, and substantially.

This is hard for us to fit into our skulls because it is a mystery. But God certainly must be more than we can understand - if God fit into the confines of our skulls, He would be very small indeed! God is Mystery, and the Gift of the Eucharist is a mystery. But a mystery is not an impossibly locked and sealed door! It is more like an endless series of doors that we continue to open and walk through and find delight in, but which we will never exhaust. There is always more to learn and rejoice in!

So today, let us give thanks and praise to God for all of His gifts, especially the Gift of Himself, remaining with us and nourishing our weary souls in the Eucharist.

As Pope St. John Paul II said, “This is the wonderful truth, my dear friends: the Word, which became flesh two thousand years ago, is present today in the Eucharist.”

Courageously Living: Christian, Remember Your Dignity

May 4, 2023 | Over 1,500 years ago, Pope St. Leo the Great uttered a statement that has reverberated down the ages to our very day: Christian, remember your dignity. (reflection first appeared in the Heart of the Revival newsletter)

Made in God's image and likeness, we are unlike any other creature: we share in God's attributes by way of reason, free will, and the capacity to love as God loves. How remarkable!

Yet, we face attacks to our Christian dignity every day. These often come from without and are ever more easy to recognize: cultural pressures, entertainment that chips away at morality, and laws that place human desires above God's plan for his beautiful world, just to name a few.

Attacks upon our dignity also come from within. St. Paul calls these "works of the flesh" and he lists them clearly for us in Galatians 5:19-21: "Now the works of the flesh are obvious: immorality, impurity, licentiousness, idolatry, sorcery, hatreds, rivalry, jealousy, outbursts of fury, acts of selfishness..."

The good news is, we are not alone to confront sin in our lives. The Spirit of the Lord literally dwells in us when we are in the state of grace. Even when we are outside the state of grace, actual grace is always available to us to draw us back into a relationship with God.

Paul helps us understand this as he goes on to list the fruits—or signs of the presence—of the Spirit in our lives in Galatians 5:22-23: "...love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, generosity, faithfulness, gentleness, self-control."

We belong to Jesus. At every Mass, our encounter with him is deepened as we pray the Mass and receive Jesus in Holy Communion. We become more aware of our Christian dignity—that in Christ, we are adopted children of the Father who will never let us down.

Let's allow Jesus to be our guide and let's allow the Holy Spirit to transform us ever more into the holy men and women God has created us to be. Then, my dear friends, how fruitful will our missionary efforts be as we journey alongside Jesus for the life of the world!

Christian, remember your dignity! -Sister Alicia Torres, F.E.

La Eucaristía: Cuerpo y Sangre

¿Su parroquia está celebrando esta Solemnidad con una Procesión de Corpus Christi? Esta forma tradicional de honrar la Eucaristía se remonta a los años 1300 y es una hermosa proclamación pública de nuestra fe en la presencia real de Cristo en el Sacramento.

¿Qué enseña exactamente nuestra Fe acerca de la Eucaristía (lo cual proviene del griego y significa “acción de gracias”)? Desde el principio, la Iglesia ha entendido que este Sacramento es el mismo Cristo, como bien dice en el Evangelio de hoy: “Mi carne es verdadera comida y mi sangre es verdadera bebida. El que come mi carne y bebe mi sangre, permanece en mí y yo en él.” El esfuerzo más antiguo que conocemos para explicar esto por escrito se produjo en el siglo II, cuando San Justino escribió que este pan y vino son verdaderamente la carne y la sangre de Jesús: “Porque no los recibimos como pan común y bebida común; pero como Jesucristo nuestro Salvador, hecho carne por la Palabra de Dios, tuvo carne y sangre para nuestra salvación, así también... el alimento que es bendecido por la oración de Su palabra, y del cual nuestra sangre y carne por transmutación se nutren, es la carne y la sangre de aquel Jesús que se hizo carne”.

Posteriormente, se desarrolló más la explicación de este cambio. Ahora decimos que Cristo está “real, verdadera y sustancialmente presente” en la Eucaristía. Es realmente Su Presencia, tiene “existencia real”, no solo existencia mental. Es verdaderamente la Presencia de Cristo, no sólo un símbolo o representación. Y no importa lo que digan nuestros sentidos, sabemos que la sustancia es Cristo, quien está totalmente presente - Cuerpo, Sangre, Alma y Divinidad- en cada elemento y cada parte de ellos. En cada gota y cada migaja, Cristo está totalmente presente: real, verdadera y sustancialmente.

Es difícil para nosotros encajar esto en nuestros cráneos porque es un misterio. Pero Dios ciertamente debe ser más de lo que podemos entender: si Dios encajara en los confines de nuestros cráneos, ¡sería realmente muy pequeño! Dios es Misterio, y el Don de la Eucaristía es un misterio. ¡Pero un misterio no es una puerta imposiblemente cerrada y sellada! Es más como una serie interminable de puertas que continuamos abriendo y atravesando y en las que nos deleitamos, pero que nunca agotaremos. ¡Siempre hay más para aprender y regocijarse!

Así que hoy, demos gracias y alabamos a Dios por todos Sus dones, especialmente el Don de Sí mismo, que permanece con nosotros y alimenta nuestras almas cansadas en la Eucaristía.

Como dijo el Papa San Juan Pablo II: “Esta es la verdad maravillosa, mis queridos amigos: la Palabra, que se hizo carne hace dos mil años, está presente hoy en la Eucaristía”.
