3rd Sunday of Easter

We continue to celebrate and give thanks for the gift of the Resurrection.

As we continue to celebrate this glorious season of Easter, our readings today show us how the Resurrection was preached and made manifest to the early Church. They also indicate how Jesus' first followers were strengthened in their faith, becoming enthusiastic and faithful witnesses to the risen Lord.

Act of Spiritual Communion

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.

Acte de Communion spirituelle

Seigneur Jésus, je crois en ta présence dans le Saint Sacrement. Je t'aime plus que toute chose et je désire que tu viennes aujourd'hui encore en mon âme. Comme bien d'autres chrétiens dans le monde, je ne peux te recevoir sacramentellement aujourd'hui dans mon Cœur. Eloigné(e) de ma communauté, je suis pourtant avec chacun de mes frères et sœurs, disponible aujourd'hui à Ta Parole. Je sais que Tu es là, véritablement présent, à l'écoute de la clameur du monde. Viens me visiter spirituellement. Viens me parler comme à chacun de tes amis. Tiens-moi dans la communion de tous les saints. Tiens-moi uni(e) à toute l'Église du ciel et de la terre Je veux m'unir à toi tout entier(ère). Ne permets pas que je sois séparé de toi. Amen

The Pope's Prayer Intention for May

Saint of the Week:

May 6 - Saint François-Xavier de Montmorency-Laval commonly referred to as François de Laval (1623-1708) was born in France and was educated by the Jesuits and ordained in 1647. He became the first Roman Catholic bishop of Quebec and was one of the most influential men of his day because of his pivotal role in the establishment of the Catholic Church in New France. It was evident from early in his life that Laval was destined for missionary work. He provided relief to the poor, cared for the sick and engaged in different kinds of charitable activities. He founded the Seminary of Quebec in 1663 to ensure more local clergy for the Church of New France. This Seminary eventually became Laval University, named in his honour. He was beatified in 1980 by Pope John Paul II. In 2014, Pope Francis made him a saint by equipollent canonization. Laval's remains have been entombed in a shrine for personal veneration in the Cathedral of Notre-Dame de Quebec which he had founded.

Saint de la semaine :

6 mai - Saint François de Laval (1623-1708) Né en France en 1623. Premier évèque de Québec, il établit les fondements de la jeune Église au Canada en mettant sur pied diverses institutions dont le Séminaire de Québec, une école d'arts et métiers et de nombreuses paroisses. On l'a surnommé le Père de l'Église canadienne. Décédé à Québec le 6 mai 1708, il a été canonisé par le pape Francois en 2014. « Il donne tout et vit en pauvre », disait sainte Marie de l'incarnation de monseigneur de Laval.

Intention de prière du Saint-Père

Our Lady of the Cape Pilgrim Statue Tour
Mary visits her children

The Marian Devotional Movement is visiting various dioceses in Canada in 2022 as it spearheads pilgrim statue tours of Our Lady of the Cape to provide opportunities for Canadians to venerate Canada's National Madonna, to promote consecration to the Immaculate Heart of Mary and to promote enrollment in the Confraternity of the Most Holy Rosary. The best preparation for welcoming and participating in the Our Lady of the Cape Pilgrim Statue Tour is viewing the Bridge of Roses docudrama at a public screening or streaming it in your own home. This investment of 70 minutes of your time will inspire and educate you on the mostly unknown magnitude of the story of Our Lady of the Cape. You can access the film in multiple languages here: https://www.bridgeofrosesfilm.com/.

Procession from the Peace Fountain in Windsor to Paroisse St. Jerome, Windsor, on Sunday May 1st at 2:00 P.M. (gather at the Peace Fountain at 1:00 PM)

Visite de la Statue pèlerine de Notre Dame du Cap
Marie rend visite à ses enfants

Le Mouvement de dévotion mariale se rendra dans divers diocèses du Canada en 2022 pour organiser des tournées de statues de pèlerins de Notre-Dame du Cap afin de donner aux Canadiens l'occasion de vénérer la Madone nationale du Canada, de promouvoir la consécration au Cœur Immaculé de Marie et de favoriser l'inscription à la Confraternité du Très Saint Rosaire. La meilleure préparation pour accueillir et participer à la tournée de la statue de pèlerin de Notre-Dame du Cap est de visionner le docudrame Le Pont des roses lors d'une projection publique ou de le regarder en streaming chez vous. Cet investissement de 70 minutes de votre temps vous inspirera et vous instruira sur l'ampleur généralement inconnue de l'histoire de Notre-Dame du Cap.
