Deputy Grand Knight's Message

Dear Brother Knights

The Summer is passing by.

When you see tomatoes being harvested time is flying.

Not much to report Council wise as there has been no meetings as of yet. I'm not sure when that will happen.

It does make me feel more comfortable with mandated mask wearing for Chatham-Kent when entering an establishment. That will keep us all safe.

Be healthy and be safe.

Dear Fellow Knights and Families,

Is everyone as tired of this pandemic as I am?

Life goes on. Because of the restrictions we still are unable to hold our monthly meetings. If there is anything urgent that you feel needs to be addressed by the Knight please let your executive know.

I have been keeping busy getting ready for the fall trapping season by cleaning and weather proofing my traps. I have also bought a bunch of new equipment. My son Willi has given me a old trolling motor in good working order that I will be using with my canoe.

I am also helping Brother Tom Landschoot with the harvesting of potatoes. At least sales for these seem to be picking up.

As you know our churches are open with limited seating. The masses that I have attended have not been to capacity so if you are thinking about coming out please do so. The seating is well spaced out and there are parishioners there to make sure everyone is safe and social distancing. Hope to see you there sometime.

Not much more I can add as it's the same old same old.

Maybe the only thing is our children and grandchildren going back to school. Lets pray that all will be safe.

From Our Chaplain

Sunday August 30, 2020—22nd Sunday Year A “And the truth will set you free”. We are all familiar with this scripture but sometimes telling the truth, proclaiming the truth can be painful and may disturb others. Jeremiah cries out to God, “O Lord, you have enticed me (other translations say “duped me”) and I was enticed; you have overpowered me, and you have prevailed”. Jeremiah has felt the irresistible pull of God’s love and truth. He knows what he must proclaim“there is something like a burning fire shut up in my bones”. Jesus in the Gospel reveals to the apostle the awful truth of his Passion and its necessity. He ends his proclamation reminding them that ,”on the third day (he will) be raised” but they fail to hear, to comprehend what he is saying. Peter means well but gives misplaced sympathy or compassion. “God forbid it...this must never happen to you”. This must happen to him Peter, for you and for all of us. The “scandalous” truth of God’s love for us demands fidelity even to the cross, complete self emptying on the part of Jesus. The truth can be hard, even “scandalous” but it will set us free! Have a safe and good week

Fr. Christopher

POPE'S PRAYER TO MARY DURING CORONAVIRUS PANDEMIC

O Mary, you shine continuously along our journey as a sign of salvation and hope.

We entrust ourselves to you, Health of the Sick, who at the Cross were near to the pain of Jesus, keeping your faith firm.

You, Salvation of the Roman people, know what we need, and we trust that you will provide for those needs so that, as at Cana of Galilee, joy and celebration may return after this moment of trial.

Help us, Mother of Divine Love, to conform ourselves to the will of the Father and to do what Jesus tells us, He who took our sufferings upon Himself, and took up our sorrows to bring us, through the Cross, to the joy of the Resurrection. Amen.

We seek refuge under your protection, O Holy Mother of God. Do not despise our pleas - we who are put to the test - and deliver us from every danger, O glorious and blessed Virgin.

From Our Deacon

Return to the “New Normal”

There was a radio and TV commercial that came out each year around this time showing happy parents shopping for school supplies to the Christmas tune “The Most Wonderful Time of the Year”. This September has proven to not be the most wonderful time. It is a very challenging time, one full of hard decisions and worries for our kids and our families. It is also a time to be understanding and empathetic about the decisions that others make for their own families and self, decisions that do not need added social pressure.

How we choose to protect ourselves from Covid is very very personal. We should not need to justify not attending a function in person, or choosing to wear a mask in places that do not legally demand it. On the flip side, we should not judge anyone else who makes decisions differently than we might have made if we were to find ourselves in their situation. This is a time when we must accept the decisions of others without judgment. It is a very difficult thing to do, especially within our own thoughts.

In the month ahead, families will choose if and how to send their beloved children to school safely, and have them return home and also keep home safe from the virus. Perhaps usual celebrations will still not happen in our families even though it may be lawful to do so ... and that is OK, and must be respected and honoured. No one really knows the anxiety that someone else might feel in what seems like a safe situation to another person.

Please be kind and leave the judging to God. Everyone is trying to do the best for their own. Be safe.

God Bless, keep safe and well.

Bingos

A new format has been started at the Riverview Bingo Palace and there is no longer individual club bingos. Each organization works 2 hour sessions a couple of times of month. Both our council and St. Peter's Parish are looking for more volunteers to work these sessions. If you are interested in learning more please call Stan Powell at 519 401-2034. If we can get a few more people we may be able to get more sessions and thus generate more money to help with the church and its ministries

Miracle for Mikey: Dickson boy's cure opens door to K of C founder's beatification

Andy Telli, Tennessee Register

Mikey Schachle, 5 years old, climbs onto a stump in the yard of his family's home in Dickson, Tennessee. He carefully takes stock of the short distance to the trampoline buried in the ground below him, then slowly steps off the stump into space and falls happily onto the trampoline as some of his 12 brothers and sisters surround him with smiles and hugs.

It's a scene that would have been impossible for his parents, Dan and Michelle Schachle, to imagine five years ago when they sat in a doctor's office to hear that their still unborn son had zero chance of living more than a few days or weeks.

It took a miracle to save Mikey.

On Wednesday, May 27, Pope Francis approved the promulgation of a decree recognizing Mikey's cure from a deadly case of fetal hydrops while still in his mother's womb as a miracle attributed to the intercession of Venerable Father Michael J. McGivney, founder of the Knights of Columbus.

With the approval of the miracle, Father McGivney's cause for sainthood moves to the next step, beatification, when he will receive the title "Blessed."

"I think God had a plan for Father McGivney. I think God had a plan for Michael," Dan Schachle said of his son's miraculous cure. "You have to be open to God's grace, you have to be open to God's plan, because if you're not open to God's plan, he can't use you."

'Stewards of Father McGivney's vision'

The Schachles like to tell people they met in prison. Michelle was a single mother with twin daughters working in the office of the chief of security at South Central Correctional Facility in Clifton, Tennessee, and Dan was working as a guard.

Their friendship blossomed into a romance and they were married on Sept. 20, 1997. Michelle's daughters were 4 years old. "Dan married the three of us," she said. After marrying, Dan adopted the two girls.

Mikey Schachle, 5, lives with his parents Daniel and Michelle in Dickson. Pope Francis approved the promulgation of a decree recognizing Mikey's cure from a deadly case of fetal hydrops while still in his mother's womb as a miracle attributed to the intercession of Venerable Father Michael J. McGivney, founder of the Knights of Columbus. With the approval of the miracle, Father McGivney's cause for sainthood moves to the next step, beatification, when he will receive the title "Blessed."
