Our Eucharistic Procession Litany

For our Eucharistic Procession, We Praise You, O Lord.
For allowing us to witness to THE Mystery of our Faith, We Praise You, O Lord.
For increasing our devotion to Your Son Jesus, in the Holy Eucharist, We Praise You, O Lord.
For showing us that belief in The Real Presence is the Answer to all the world’s ills, We Praise You, O Lord.
For inspiring so many priests and their flocks to attend, We Praise You, O Lord.
For the joy we all felt in walking with Your Son, We Praise You, O Lord.
For the honor of living our Catholic Faith in public, We Praise You, O Lord.
For the fire of the Holy Spirit that was in each one of us, We Praise You, O Lord.
For the peace we experienced, We Praise You, O Lord.
For the bond we had with fellow Catholics we never even met before, We Praise You, O Lord.
For You defying the weather maps that said we had no business being out there, We Praise You, O Lord.
For the fact that it rained before and after the Procession, but not a drop during the Procession, We Praise You, O Lord.
For the kindness and generosity of Zelda Hartje, administrator of the Pembina County Historical Museum, in allowing us to start the Eucharistic Procession at St Anthony church, We Praise You, O Lord.
For giving us the perseverance in a six-mile walk, We Praise You, O Lord.
For the horses, standing at attention, as Jesus was passing by, We Praise You, O Lord.
For the excitement we still experience in having been a part of this pilgrimage, We Praise You, O Lord.
For the ability to revel in our Catholic Faith, We Praise You, O Lord.
For people of all ages that made the trek, We Praise You, O Lord.
For all the youth that participated, and for their infectious energy, We Praise You, O Lord.
For so many families that were present, We Praise You, O Lord.
For all of the young men who led us in the Procession,

We Praise You, O Lord.
For all who carried the canopy in such a distinguished way, We Praise You, O Lord.
For the Knights of Columbus members who showed the dignity of this event, being attired in full regalia, We Praise You, O Lord.
For all the altar servers who nobly carried out their tasks, We Praise You, O Lord.
For the enthusiasm that was more than obvious, We Praise You, O Lord.
For those who sang and prayed, making this Procession a holy endeavor, We Praise You, O Lord.
For those who provided prayer support for this majestic adventure, We Praise You, O Lord.
For all the people who supplied valuable transportation to others, We Praise You, O Lord.
For the folks in cars and golf carts, equipping us with water and first aid if needed, We Praise You, O Lord.
For the caring souls who furnished us with refreshments after the Procession, We Praise You, O Lord.
For all the people who attended their first Eucharistic Procession, We Praise You, O Lord.
For all the non-Catholics that were a part of this journey, We Praise You, O Lord.
For the paved bike path that kept us on task and separate from the road, We Praise You, O Lord.
For all vehicles on the main road who were witnessed to, We Praise You, O Lord.
For giving us a greater love of our Catholic Faith, We Praise You, O Lord.
For the short but robust Prayer Service at the completion of the Procession at St Brigid, We Praise You, O Lord.
For the fellowship we enjoyed after the Procession, in the basement of the church, We Praise You, O Lord.
For giving us hope and light, in a world that is sometimes despondent and dark, We Praise You, O Lord.
For showing us that Your Son keeps His promise to be with us until the end of the world, We Praise You, O Lord.
For igniting a flame in our souls for next year’s Eucharistic Procession! We Praise You, O Lord.
Amen.
