The Very Rev. Fr. Mark W. Lewis
Pastor
pastorstlukesdcordinariate@gmail.com

Welcome to St. Luke's at Immaculate Conception.
We are delighted to have you with us.
We are a parish of the Personal Ordinariate of
the Chair of Saint Peter,
which was established on January 1, 2012
by Pope Benedict XVI in response to repeated requests by Anglicans seeking to become Catholic.
Ordinariate parishes are fully Catholic while retaining elements of their Anglican heritage and traditions,
including liturgical traditions.

If you are visiting,
please make yourself known to
Fr. Mark Lewis and join us for refreshments
after the Mass
in the school auditorium.

Masses are Sunday through Friday,
8:30 am

THE PERSONAL ORDINARIATE OF
THE CHAIR OF SAINT PETER
That we all may be one

THE THIRD SUNDAY AFTER EPIPHANY JANUARY 22, 2017

THE 2017 MARCH FOR LIFE will be held this Friday, January 27, 2017. We will have Mass that morning before the March at 10 am. This will also serve as a gathering point for members of the Ordinariate who plan to attend the March. There will be no 8:30 am Mass that morning.

JANUARY CORPORAL WORK OF MERCY: WARM SOCKS & GLOVES
Cold weather is here and with it special peril for the homeless, who are at risk for hypothermia and frostbite. Therefore our Corporal Act of Mercy for the month of January is collecting socks and gloves for the homeless. Thickness is the key consideration for both socks and the gloves for the homeless. Men's sizes are preferred. If you buy cotton socks, remember that sometimes two pairs are worn at the same time when it is cold. We will collect the socks and gloves at the coffee hour after Mass.

EVENING PRAYER AT THE ABBEY is a quiet service of thanksgiving and reflection held on the first Saturday of each month (from October to May) at St. Anselm's Abbey in Northeast DC. The service is followed by a time of fellowship in the Abbey's Fort Augustus Room.

Please join us next month on February 4th at 4 pm at St. Anselm's Abbey, located at 4501 South Dakota Ave. NE, Washington DC. All are welcome.

YOU ARE INVITED to join Fr. Lewis and the members of the Pastoral Council in prayer 7pm every day. We invite all members to join in five minutes of prayer for St. Luke's.

We ask that you pray for:

- Guidance by the Holy Spirit for our mission,
- God's blessings upon our endeavours,
- His will to be accomplished among us.

We also ask that you pray for yourselves, for:

- Personal holiness,
- Freedom from rancor and self-seeking,
- A deeper love for God, His Church, and the Faith.

Please take just five minutes to pray for St. Luke's!

PRAYERS FOR THE SICK

Those who have asked for our prayers: Lelia Moran, Anne White, JoAnn Lewis, Doris Johnson, J.D. Ruff, Charles Sommerkamp; and all who are sick and all caregivers who minister to the sick.

Please call or email the office to add a name to the prayer list. Before calling, please be sure you have spoken to the person [or a member of his family] about adding the name—we do not want to inadvertently disregard someone's desire for privacy.

Names of those who are sick or injured will be kept on the list for 3 weeks unless you specifically request a shorter period of time or call to ask that the name be removed. Names added this week will appear in boldface type.

REQUEST A MASS INTENTION

You are invited to make an offering in honor of a deceased or living loved one, a person's birthday, anniversary, or any another special occasion. These mass intentions will be offered by Fr. Lewis at our 8:30 am masses. Forms for mass intentions [as well as mass cards to share your intention] are available on the information table at coffee hour; requests also may be emailed to MassIntentionsStLukes@gmail.com. The usual mass stipend is $10. An offered mass will give both spiritual support for your loved ones and material support to our fledgling parish.

KNOW YOUR FAITH

MARIANNE COPE OSF, also known as Saint Marianne of Moloka'i, (January 23, 1838 – August 9, 1918) was baptized Maria Anna Barbara Koob, later anglicizing her last name to Cope. She was born January 23, 1838, in Germany. The following year her family emigrated to Utica, New York. By the time she was in eighth grade, her father had become an invalid. As the oldest child, Cope left school to work in a textile factory to help support her family.

By the time their father died in 1862, the younger children in the family were of age to support themselves, so Maria pursued her long-felt religious calling. She entered the novitiate of the Sisters of the Third Order Regular of Saint Francis in Syracuse, New York. She became first a teacher and then a principal in newly established schools for the region's German-speaking immigrants. By 1870, Cope became a member of the governing council of her religious congregation. She helped found the first two Catholic hospitals in Central New York.

In 1883, Cope, by then Superior General of the congregation, received a plea for help from King Kalākaua of Hawaii to care for leprosy sufferers. More than 50 religious congregations had already declined his request for Sisters to do this, because leprosy was considered to be highly contagious. She responded enthusiastically to the letter:

I am hungry for the work and I wish with all my heart to be one of the chosen Ones, whose privilege it will be, to sacrifice themselves for the salvation of the souls of the poor Islanders... I am not afraid of any disease, hence it would be my greatest delight even to minister to the abandoned lepers.’

Cope arrived in Honolulu in 1883 with six other Sisters; their task was to manage Kaka’ako Branch Hospital on O’ahu, which served as a receiving station for Hansen’s disease patients gathered from all over the islands. The more severe cases were processed and shipped to the island of Moloka’i for confinement in the settlement at Kalawao, and then later at Kalaupapa.

Two years later, the king awarded Mother Marianne with the Cross of a Companion of the Royal Order of Kapiolani for her care of his people. The work continued to increase. In November 1885, Cope opened the Kapiolani Home to provide shelter to homeless female children of leprosy patients. In 1888 the authorities pleaded with Cope to establish a new home for women and girls on the Kalaupapa peninsula of Molokai. She accepted the call, knowing that it might mean she would never return to New York. “We will cheerfully accept the work...” was her response.

In November 1888 Cope moved to Kalaupapa. She cared for the dying Father Damien, SS.CC., who was already known internationally for his work in the leper colony, and began to take over his burdens.

When Father Damien died on April 15, 1889, the government officially gave Cope charge for the care of the boys of Kalaupapa, in addition to her existing role in caring for the female residents of the colony. A community of Religious Brothers was sought to come and care for the boys. After the arrival of four Brothers of the Sacred Heart in 1895, Cope withdrew the Sisters to the Bishop Home for leprosy women and girls.

Despite direct contact with the patients over many years, Cope did not contract the disease. She died on August 9, 1918, due to natural causes; she was buried on the grounds of the Bishop Home. In 2005 her remains were returned to Syracuse for reinterment at her mother house.

Cope was declared a saint by Pope Benedict XVI on October 21, 2012, along with Kateri Tekakwitha, a 17th-century Native American. Cope is the 11th person in what is now the United States to be canonized by the Catholic Church.
