The Very Rev. Fr. Timothy Perkins
Interim Administrator
Fr. John Vidal
Incoming Pastor [October 2017]

Welcome to St. Luke's at Immaculate Conception.

We are delighted to have you with us.

We are a parish of the Personal Ordinariate of the Chair of Saint Peter, which was established on January 1, 2012
by Pope Benedict XVI in response to repeated requests by Anglicans seeking to become Catholic.
Ordinariate parishes are fully Catholic while retaining elements of their Anglican heritage and traditions, including liturgical traditions.

If you are visiting,
please introduce yourself
to the priest and join us for refreshments
after the Mass
in the school auditorium.

Mass: Sunday, 8:30 am

FOURTH SUNDAY AFTER TRINITY
JULY 9, 2017

MITE BOX COLLECTION

Today is the second Sunday of the month, when we collect the spare change you are gathering for the Building Fund.

Don't have a mite box? You can get one from the ushers after mass and start collecting.

And you can always just bring up whatever spare change you have in your pocket. No contribution is too small to matter.

Help us Build Our Future by participating in the Mite Box Collection.

OUR CELEBRANT THIS MORNING IS FR. RICHARD KRAMER.

Fr. Kramer is an Ordinariate priest who serves as the Director of the Office of Family Life in the Archdiocese of Washington. He will be assisting us during the interim before our new pastor, Fr. John Vidal, arrives. Please introduce yourself to Fr. Kramer after mass.

CORPORAL WORK OF MERCY FOR JULY: FOOD PANTRY RESTOCKING

Immaculate Conception operates an emergency food pantry for people in need who live within a twenty-block radius of the church.

Our corporate act of mercy for July is helping to restock the pantry.

Canned foods and other non-perishables such as rice or spaghetti are appropriate and welcome. Contributions will be collected at the coffee hour or in the vestibule during the month of July, and we will give them to the pantry at the end of the month. We hope all members of the parish will participate.

KNOW YOUR FAITH

BONAVENTURE (1221 – 15 July 1274), born Giovanni di Fidanza, was an Italian medieval Franciscan, scholastic theologian, and philosopher. The seventh Minister General of the Order of Friars Minor, he was also Cardinal Bishop of Albano. He is known as the “Seraphic Doctor.” He entered the Franciscan Order in 1243 and studied at the University of Paris, where he took his degree in company with Thomas Aquinas.

Bonaventure was one of the greatest philosophers of the Middle Ages. His Commentary on the “Sentences” remains without doubt Bonaventure's greatest work; all his other writings are in some way subservient to it. It was written, superiorum praecepto (at the command of his superiors) when he was only twenty-seven and is a theological achievement of the first rank. It comprises more than four thousand pages in folio and treats extensively and profoundly of God and the Trinity, the Creation and Fall of Man, the Incarnation and Redemption, Grace, the Sacraments, and the Last Judgment, which is to say, that it traverses the entire field of Scholastic theology.

Under his leadership, the Franciscans steered a moderate and intellectual course that made them the most prominent order in the Catholic Church until the coming of the Jesuits. His theology was marked by an attempt to integrate faith and reason completely. He thought of Christ as the “one true master” who offers humans knowledge that begins in faith, is developed through rational understanding, and is perfected by mystical union with God.

cantor

INTROIT Dominus illuminatio mea [Psalm 27: 1, 2, 3]

The Lord is my light and my salvation, whom then shall I fear? The Lord is the stronghold of my life, of whom shall I be afraid? When mine enemies pressed sore against me, they stumbled and fell. Ps. Though an host of men were laid against me: yet shall not my heart be afraid. Glory be..., The Lord...

COLLECT

O God, the protector of all that trust in thee, without whom nothing is strong, nothing is holy: increase and multiply upon us thy mercy; that, thou being our ruler and guide, we may so pass through things temporal, that we finally lose not the things eternal; grant this, I heavenly Father, for the sake of Jesus Christ thy Son our Lord, who liveth and reigneth with thee, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, ever one God, world without end. Amen.

FIRST READING Zechariah 9: 9-10

Thus says the LORD: " Rejoice greatly, O daughter of Zion! Shout aloud, O daughter of Jerusalem! Lo, your king comes to you; triumphant and victorious is he, humble and riding on an donkey, on a colt the foal of an donkey. I will cut off the chariot from Ephraim and the war horse from Jerusalem; and the battle bow shall be cut off, and he shall command peace to the nations; his dominion shall be from sea to sea, and from the River to the ends of the earth.

cantor

GRADUAL Propitius esto [Psalm 79: 9, 10]

Be merciful unto our sins O Lord: wherefore do the heathen say, Where is now their God? ♫. Help us, O God of our salvation: for the glory of thy Name, deliver us, O Lord.

SECOND READING Romans 8: 9, 11-13

Brethren: You are not in the flesh, you are in the Spirit, if in fact the Spirit of God dwells in you. Any one who does not have the Spirit of Christ does not belong to him. If the Spirit of him who raised Jesus from the dead dwells in you, he who raised Christ Jesus from the dead will give life to your mortal bodies also through his Spirit which dwells in you. So then, brethren, we are debtors, not to the flesh, to live according to the flesh— for if you live according to the flesh you will die, but if by the Spirit you put to death the deeds of the body you will live.

cantor

ALLELUIA Deus, qui sedes [Psalm 9: 4b, 9]

Alleluia, alleluia. Thou, O God, art set in the throne that judgest right: be thou the refuge of the oppressed in due time of trouble. Alleluia.

GOSPEL Matthew 11: 25-30

At that time Jesus declared, "I thank you, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, that you have hidden these things from the wise and understanding and revealed them to infants; yes, Father, for such was your gracious will. All things have been delivered to me by my Father; and no one knows the Son except the Father, and no one knows the Father except the Son and any one to whom the Son chooses to reveal him. Come to me, all who labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you, and learn from me; for I am gentle and lowly in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light."

KATERI TEKAKWITHA [1656 – April 17, 1680] given by her people the name Tekakwitha ("She who bumps into things"), baptized as Catherine and informally known as Lily of the Mohawks, was an Algonquin–Mohawk laywoman. Born in the Mohawk village of Ossernenon, on the south side of the Mohawk River [near present-day Auriesville, New York], she contracted smallpox in an epidemic; her family died and her face was scarred. She converted to Roman Catholicism at age nineteen, when she was renamed Kateri, baptized in honor of Saint Catherine of Siena. Refusing to marry, she left her village and moved for the remaining 5 years of her life to the Jesuit mission village of Kahnawake, south of Montreal in New France, now Canada.

Tekakwitha took a devout vow of perpetual virginity. Upon her death at the age of 24, witnesses said that minutes later her scars vanished and her face appeared radiant and beautiful. Known for her virtue of chastity and mortification of the flesh, as well as being shunned by some of her tribe for her religious conversion to Catholicism, she is the fourth Native American to be venerated in the Roman Catholic Church and the first to be canonized.
