Welcome to St. Luke's
at Immaculate Conception.

We are delighted to have you with us.

We are a parish of the Personal Ordinariate of the Chair of Saint Peter, which was established on January 1, 2012 by Pope Benedict XVI in response to repeated requests by Anglicans seeking to become Catholic.

Ordinariate parishes are fully Catholic while retaining elements of their Anglican heritage and traditions, including liturgical traditions.

If you are visiting,
please introduce yourself
to the priest and join us for refreshments
after the Mass
in the school auditorium.

EIGHTEENTH SUNDAY AFTER TRINITY OCTOBER 15, 2017

PARISH NOVENA PRAYER: OCTOBER 9TH TO 18TH

We are in the middle of our annual parish Novena of Thanksgiving. This year the novena will close on Sunday, October 22nd, when we will celebrate the Feast of St. Luke, as it is our patronal feastday and thus a solemnity. Please join in this celebration by praying our novena prayer every day.

Most gracious Lord, whose mercy is over all thy works; We praise thy holy Name that thou hast been pleased to conduct thy servants in safety, through the perils of life's journey, to the haven of thy Holy Catholic Church, the blessed company of all faithful people.

We now desire to return our thanks unto thee for thy holy Church, begging thee to confirm and strengthen it in purity of faith, in holiness of life, and in perfectness of love, and to restore to it the witness of visible unity; and more especially for the gift of the Ordinariate, planted by God as an instrument of unity, whereof we are members; that in all things it may work according to God's will, serve him faithfully, and worship him acceptably.

And may we remain duly sensible of thy merciful providence towards us, and ever express this thankfulness by a holy trust in thee, and obedience to thy laws; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Our Lady of Walsingham, pray for us.

OCTOBER CORPORAL WORK OF MERCY: THE LITTLE SISTERS OF THE POOR

The Little Sisters of the Poor serve the elderly poor in over 30 countries by offering the neediest elderly of every race and religion a home where they will be welcomed as Christ, cared for as family, and accompanied with dignity until God calls them to Himself. They are sustained entirely by 'begging' and trusting the Lord to open hearts to be generous.

This month we are begging you on the behalf of the Jeanne Jugan Residence and St. Joseph's Villa, located on Harewood Road here in DC. Please drop a check made out to the Little Sisters of the Poor in the plate this month [or pop some cash in an envelope and mark it for them.]. You could also mail it directly to them: Little Sisters of the Poor/Jeanne Jugan Residence/4200 Harewood Road, NE/ Washington, DC 20017-1554.

For more information about the Little Sisters, see the parish newsletter.

KNOW YOUR FAITH

In the 17th century, Jesuit missionaries worked among the Huron, an Iroquoian-speaking people who occupied territory in the Georgian Bay area of Central Ontario. Sainte-Marie among the Hurons was the headquarters for the French Jesuit Mission to the Huron Wendat people. By the late 1640s the Jesuits believed they were making progress in their mission to the Huron, and claimed to have made many converts. But the priests were not universally trusted.

The nations of the Iroquois Confederacy considered the Jesuits legitimate targets of their raids and warfare, as the missionaries were nominally allies of the Huron and French fur traders. In 1642, the Mohawk captured René Goupil, and Father Isaac Jogues, bringing them back to their village of Ossernenon, south of the Mohawk River. They ritually tortured both men and killed Goupil. After several months of captivity, Jogues was ransomed by Dutch traders. He returned for a time to France, but then sailed back to Quebec. In 1646 he and Jean de Lalande were killed during a visit to Ossernenon intended to achieve peace between the French and the Mohawk.

Other Jesuit missionaries were killed by the Mohawk and martyred in the following years: Antoine Daniel (1648), Jean de Brébeuf (1649), Noël Chabanel (1649), Charles Garnier (1649), and Gabriel Lalemant (1649). All were canonized in 1930 as the NORTH AMERICAN MARTYRS.

Lord, we beseech thee, grant thy people grace to withstand the temptations of the world, the flesh, and the devil: and with pure hearts and minds to follow thee the only God; through Jesus Christ thy Son our Lord, who liveth and reigneth with thee, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, ever one God, world without end. Amen.

FIRST READING Isaiah 25: 6-10a

On this mountain the LORD of hosts will make for all peoples a feast of fat things, a feast of choice wines, of fat things full of marrow, of choice wines well refined. And he will destroy on this mountain the covering that is cast over all peoples, the veil that is spread over all nations. He will swallow up death for ever, and the Lord GOD will wipe away tears from all faces, and the reproach of his people he will take away from all the earth; for the LORD has spoken. It will be said on that day, "Behold, this is our God; we have waited for him, that he might save us. This is the LORD; we have waited for him; let us be glad and rejoice in his salvation." For the hand of the LORD will rest on this mountain.

SECOND READING Philippians 4: 12-14, 19-20

Brethren: I know how to be abased, and I know how to abound; in any and all circumstances I have learned the secret of facing plenty and hunger, abundance and want. I can do all things in him who strengthens me. Yet it was kind of you to share my trouble. And my God will supply every need of yours according to his riches in glory in Christ Jesus. To our God and Father be glory for ever and ever. Amen.

stand GOSPEL Matthew 22: 1-14

At that time: Again Jesus spoke to the chief priests and elders of the people, in parables, saying, "The kingdom of heaven may be compared to a king who gave a marriage feast for his son, and sent his servants to call those who were invited to the marriage feast; but they would not come. Again he sent other servants, saying, "Tell those who are invited, Behold, I have made ready my dinner, my oxen and my fat calves are killed, and everything is ready; come to the marriage feast.' But they made light of it and went off, one to his farm, another to his business, while the rest seized his servants, treated them shamefully, and killed them. The king was angry, and he sent his troops and destroyed those murderers and burned their city. Then he said to his servants, "The wedding is ready, but those invited were not worthy. Go therefore to the streets, and invite to the marriage feast as many as you find.' And those servants went out into the streets and gathered all whom they found, both bad and good; so the wedding hall was filled with guests. But when the king came in to look at the guests, he saw there a man who had no wedding garment; and he said to him, 'Friend, how did you get in here without a wedding garment?' And he was speechless. Then the king said to the attendants, 'Bind him hand and foot, and cast him into the outer darkness; where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.' For many are called, but few are chosen."

IGNATIUS OF ANTIOCH converted to Christianity at a young age. Tradition claims that he was one of the children whom Jesus took in his arms and blessed. Ignatius, along with his friend Polycarp, was a disciple of John the Apostle. Later in his life Ignatius was chosen to serve as third Bishop of Antioch, (if we include St. Peter). Ignatius was arrested during the persecution of Domitian against the Christians of Syria. He was taken to Rome for execution.

During the journey to Rome, Ignatius and his entourage of soldiers made a number of stops in Asia Minor. Along the route Ignatius wrote six letters to the churches in the region and one to Polycarp, then bishop of Smyrna. This correspondence now forms a central part of the later collection known as the Apostolic Fathers. In speaking of the authority of the church, he was the first to use the phrase "catholic church" in writing. Eusebius dates Ignatius's death in AD 108. Although Ignatius himself wrote that he would be thrown to the beasts, "lions" are explicitly mentioned first in the fourth century by Jerome, and John Chrysostom is the first to allude to the Colosseum as the place of Ignatius' martyrdom.
