Welcome to St. Luke's at Immaculate Conception.
We are delighted to have you with us.

We are a parish of the Personal Ordinariate of the Chair of Saint Peter, which was established on January 1, 2012 by Pope Benedict XVI in response to repeated requests by Anglicans seeking to become Catholic. Ordinariate parishes are fully Catholic while retaining elements of their Anglican heritage and traditions, including liturgical traditions.

ORDINATION OF MATTHEW WHITEHEAD

As every reader of The Epistle knows, this Thursday evening in Houston our own Matt Whitehead will be ordained to the priesthood. Fr. Vidal and Deacon Arbeen will be present on our behalf to witness this exciting event. We ask all the parish to offer their prayers this week for Matt [and his whole family] as he gives himself to the Lord's service in this most blessed manner.

Matt will be our celebrant for Mass on June 10th. Be sure to be present that day to congratulate him and to receive a First Blessing from his newly-consecrated hands.

And if you haven't read The Epistle, but want to, visit our website stlukesordinariate.com and click on News>Newsletters.

MAY CORPORAL WORK OF MERCY: INFANT FORMULA

What could be a better way during this month of May to honor the Blessed Virgin Mary, Mother of our Lord, than by donating baby formula to help a young mother in need? If you can contribute, the Northwest Center's Maternity Home is in need of Similac, Similac Advance, and Similac Sensitive. Bring your baby formula to Mass or coffee hour.

Marcellinus and Peter, Martyrs

KNOW YOUR FAITH

MARCELLINUS AND PETER were Roman martyrs who died in the year 304, during the Diocletianic Persecution. Very little is known about their lives except that Marcellinus was a priest and Peter an exorcist. Pope Damasus I [whose account account is the oldest source on them] heard the story of these two martyrs from their executioner who became a Christian after their deaths.

Damasus states that they were killed at an out-of-the-way spot by the magistrate Severus or Serenus, so that other Christians would not have a chance to bury and venerate their bodies. The two saints happily cleared the spot chosen for their death: a thicket overgrown with thorns, brambles, and briars three miles from Rome. They were beheaded and buried in that spot.

Two women, Lucilla and Firmina, assisted by divine revelation, found the bodies, however, and had them properly buried near the body of St. Tiburtius on the Via Labicana in what became known as the Catacombs of Marcellinus and Peter.

Around the 6th century, a passio connected the martyrdom of Marcellinus and Peter with that of the jailer Artemius, who was converted to Christianity by Marcellinus. Artemius' wife Secunda (or Candida) and daughter Paulina were also converted. Artemius was beheaded; Secunda and Paulina were buried alive under a pile of stones. The passio states that they were killed at the 12th milestone on the Via Aurelia in a place called Silva Candida ("Whitewood", also called Silva Nigra, "Blackwood", or at Lorium). Their executioner, Dorotheus, was said to have been converted by Pope Julius I.

FIRST READING Exodus 34: 4b-6, 8-9

In those days: Moses rose early in the morning and went up on Mount Sinai, as the LORD had commanded him, and took in his hand two tables of stone. And the LORD descended in the cloud and stood with him there, and proclaimed the name of the LORD. The LORD passed before him, and proclaimed, "The LORD, the LORD, a God merciful and gracious, slow to anger, and abounding in steadfast love and faithfulness." And Moses made haste to bow his head toward the earth, and worshipped. And he said, "If now I have found favor in thy sight, O Lord, let the Lord, I pray thee, go in the midst of us, although it is a stiff-necked people; and pardon our iniquity and our sin, and take us for thy inheritance."

but that the world might be saved through him. He who believes in him is not condemned; he who does not believe is condemned already, because he has not believed in the name of the only Son of God.

BANNS OF MARRIAGE

Francisco Sean Madan of Immaculate Conception Parish, son of Lilian Casas Madan and the late Dr. Rafael F. Madan of Oakton VA, and Carolyn Sylvest Hansen of this parish, daughter of Dr. Cynthia Behling and Dr. John Hansen of San Diego CA, to be married June 9, 2018, at this church. If any of you know cause or just impediment why these two persons should not be joined together in Holy Matrimony, you are to declare it. This is the second time of asking. Kindly keep them in your prayers.

YOU ARE INVITED

Holy Mass is an act of the whole Church, hence the Mass, the Divine Office, and the sacraments are by nature public. Believing this most sincerely, Franco Madan and Carolyn Hansen invite the parishioners of St. Luke's to attend their Nuptial Mass, which will be held here at Immaculate Conception Church on Saturday, June 9th at 2:30 pm. Pray and rejoice with them as they start their life together.

REQUEST A MASS INTENTION

The usual Mass stipend is $10.

"All sorts of people are fond of repeating the Christian statement that 'God is love.' But they seem not to notice that the words 'God is love' have no real meaning unless God contains at least two persons. Love is something that one person has for another person. If God was a single person, then before the world was made, He was not love."
