MITE BOX COLLECTION

Today is the second Sunday of the month, when we collect the spare change you are gathering for the Building Fund.

Don't have a mite box? You can get one from the ushers after mass and start collecting. And you can always just bring up whatever spare change you have in your pocket. No contribution is too small to matter. Help us Build Our Future by participating in the Mite Box Collection.

JULY CORPORAL WORK OF MERCY: MEN'S TRAVEL-SIZED TOILETRIES

This month, we will continue to collect travel-sized toiletries for homeless men. Soap, shampoo, conditioner, body lotion, and disposable razors are most welcome. Bring them to coffee hour or leave them with an usher. At the end of the month, they will be delivered to the Father McKenna Center, which carries on the mission of the late Jesuit Father Horace McKenna (1889-1982), who was known as the "priest to the poor."

KNOW YOUR FAITH

KATERI TEKEKWITHA [1656 – April 17, 1680] named by her people Tekakwitha ("She who bumps into things") and baptized as Catherine, was an Algonquin–Mohawk laywoman. Born near present-day Auriesville, New York, she contracted smallpox in an epidemic; her family died and her face was scarred. She converted to Roman Catholicism at age nineteen, when she was renamed Kateri in honor of St. Catherine of Siena. Refusing to marry, she left her village and moved for the remaining 5 years of her life to the Jesuit mission village south of Montreal.

Tekakwitha took a devout vow of perpetual virginity. Upon her death at the age of 24, witnesses said that minutes later her scars vanished and her face appeared radiant and beautiful. Known for her virtue of chastity and mortification of the flesh, she is the first Native American to be canonized.

INTROIT Dominus fortitudo [Psalm 28: 8, 9, 1]

The Lord is the strength of his people, and a stronghold of salvation to his Anointed One: O Lord, save thine own people, and give thy blessing unto thine inheritance; O feed them also, and set them up for ever. Ps. Unto thee will I cry, O Lord; my God, be not silent unto me: lest, if thou make as though thou hearest not, I become like them that go down into the pit. Glory be..., The Lord...

COLLECT O God, who hast prepared for them that love thee such good things as pass man's understanding: pour into our hearts such love toward thee, that we, loving thee in all things and above all things, may obtain thy promises, which exceed all that we can desire; through Jesus Christ thy Son our Lord, who liveth and reigneth with thee, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, ever one God, world without end. Amen.

FIRST READING Ezekiel 2: 2-5

In those days: The Spirit entered into me and set me upon my feet; and I heard him speaking to me. And he said to me, "Son of man, I send you to the people of Israel, to a nation of rebels, who have rebelled against me; they and their fathers have transgressed against me to this very day. The people also are impudent and stubborn: I send you to them; and you shall say to them, 'Thus says the Lord GOD.' And whether they hear or refuse to hear (for they are a rebellious house) they will know that there has been a prophet among them."

APPOINTED PSALM Psalm 123 Ad te levavi oculos meos.

UNTO thee lift I up | mine _ | eyes, * O thou that | dwellest | in the | heavens.

2 Behold, even as the eyes of servants look unto the hand of their masters, and as the eyes of a maiden unto the hand | of her | mistress, * even so our eyes wait upon the Lord our God, until he have | mercy | upon | us.

3 Have mercy upon us, O Lord, have mercy up- | on _ | us; * for we are | utter- | ly de- | spised.

4 Our soul is filled with the scornful reproof | of the | wealthy, * and with the de- | spiteful-ness | of the | proud.

SECOND READING 2 Corinthians 12: 7-10

Brethren: To keep me from being too elated by the abundance of revelations, a thorn was given me in the flesh, a messenger of Satan, to harass me, to keep me from being too elated. Three times I besought the Lord about this, that it should leave me; but he said to me, "My grace is sufficient for you, for my power is made perfect in weakness." I will all the more gladly boast of my weaknesses, that the power of Christ may rest upon me. For the sake of Christ, then, I am content with weaknesses, insults, hardships, persecutions, and calamities; for when I am weak, then I am strong.

ALLELUIA In te, Domine, speravi [Psalm 31: 1, 2]

Alleluia, alleluia. In thee, O Lord, have I put my trust, let me never be put to confusion: deliver me in righteousness; bow down thine ear to me, make haste to deliver me. Alleluia.

stand GOSPEL Mark 6: 1-6
 Jesus came to his own country; and his disciples followed him. And on the sabbath he began to teach in the synagogue; and many who heard him were astonished, saying, "Where did this man get all this? What is the wisdom given to him? What mighty works are wrought by his hands! Is not this the carpenter, the son of Mary and brother of James and Joses and Judas and Simon, and are not his sisters here with us?" And they took offense at him. And Jesus said to them, "A prophet is not without honor, except in his own country, and among his own kin, and in his own house." And he could do no mighty work there, except that he laid his hands upon a few sick people and healed them. And he marveled because of their unbelief. And he went about among the villages teaching.

OFFERTORY HYMN

Maestoso

I vow to thee, my coun try, all earth-ly things a - bove, En - tire and whole and per-fect, the ser-vice of my love, The love that asks no ques-tion, the love that stands the test, That lays up-on the al-tar the dear-est and the best. The love that ne-ver fal-ters, the love that pays the price, The love that makes un-daun-ted the fi-nal sac-ri-fice.

And there's another country, I've heard of long ago,
Most dear to them that love her, most great to them that know;
We may not count her armies, we may not see her King;
Her fortress is a faithful heart, her pride is suffering;
And soul by soul and silently her shining bounds increase,
And her ways are ways of gentleness and all her paths are peace.
