MITE BOX COLLECTION

Today is the second Sunday of the month, when we collect the spare change you are gathering for the Building Fund.

Don't have a mite box? You can get one from the ushers after mass and start collecting. And you can always just bring up whatever spare change you have in your pocket. No contribution is too small to matter. Help us Build Our Future by participating in the Mite Box Collection.

CORPORAL WORK OF MERCY FOR SEPTEMBER: SCHOOL SUPPLIES

We continue this month collecting school supplies for San Miguel Catholic School, which serves low-income youth in the DC area who would not otherwise have access to a high quality private Catholic education. This year San Miguel is particularly requesting items that will help with their athletic program and science and tech classes. Some of these items are pricey and we suggest going in with another parishioner to purchase one. You can check their wish list for details:

EVENSONG AT THE ABBEY will next be held Saturday, October 6th at 4 pm at St. Anselm's Abbey, with a Low Mass offered immediately after, followed by a time of fellowship in the Abbey's Fort Augustus Room. This quiet service of thanksgiving and reflection is held on the first Saturday of each month from September to May at St. Anselm's Abbey [4501 South Dakota Ave. NE, Washington DC]. All are welcome.

KNOW YOUR FAITH

JOHN CHRYSOSTOM [c. 349 – 407], Archbishop of Constantinople, was an important Early Church Father. He is known for his preaching and public speaking, and for his ascetic sensibilities. The epithet Χρυσόστομος (Chrysostomos, anglicized as Chrysostom) means “golden-mouthed” in Greek and denotes his eloquence.

John was ordained a presbyter (priest) in 386. In Antioch, over the course of twelve years (386–397), John gained popularity because of the eloquence of his public speaking at Antioch's cathedral. He called upon the rich to lay aside materialism in favor of helping the poor, often employing all of his rhetorical skills to shame wealthy people to abandon conspicuous consumption:

“Do you pay such honor to your excrements as to receive them into a silver chamber-pot when another man made in the image of God is perishing in the cold?”

His straightforward understanding of the Scriptures meant that his talks were practical, explaining the Bible's application to everyday life. Such straightforward preaching helped Chrysostom to garner popular support.

Beyond his preaching, the other lasting legacy of John is his influence on Christian liturgy. He revised the prayers and rubrics of the Divine Liturgy, or celebration of the Holy Eucharist. To this day, Eastern Orthodox and Eastern Catholic Churches of the Byzantine Rite typically celebrate the Divine Liturgy of St. John Chrysostom as the normal Eucharistic liturgy, although his exact connection with it remains a matter of debate.

KYRIE Second Communion Service [Healey Willan]

GLORIA Second Communion Service [Healey Willan]

COLLECT Keep, we beseech thee, O Lord, thy Church with thy perpetual mercy: and, because the frailty of man without thee cannot but fall; keep us ever by thy help from all things hurtful, and lead us to all things profitable to our salvation; through Jesus Christ thy Son our Lord, who liveth and reigneth with thee, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, ever one God, world without end. Amen.

FIRST READING Isaiah 35: 4-7a

Say to those who are of a fearful heart, “Be strong; fear not! Behold, your God will come with vengeance, with the recompense of God. He will come and save you.” Then the eyes of the blind shall be opened, and the ears of the deaf unstopped; then shall the lame man leap like a hart, and the tongue of the dumb sing for joy. For waters shall break forth in the wilderness, and streams in the desert; the burning sand shall become a pool, and the thirsty ground springs of water.

APPOINTED PSALM Psalm 146: 1, 7-10 Lauda, anima mea.

PRAISE the Lord, O my soul: while I live, will I | praise the | Lord; * yea, as long as I have any being, I will sing | praises un- | to my | God.

7 The Lord looseth men | out of | prison; * the Lord giveth | sight _ | to the | blind.

8 The Lord helpeth them | that are | fallen; * the Lord | careth | for the | righteous.

9 The Lord careth for the strangers; he defendeth the fatherless | and _ | widow: * as for the way of the ungodly, he | turneth it | upside | down.

10 The Lord thy God, O Sion, shall be King for | ever- | more, * and through- | out all | gene- | rations.

SECOND READING James 2: 1-5

My brethren, show no partiality as you hold the faith of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Lord of glory. For if a man with gold rings and in fine clothing comes into your assembly, and a poor man in shabby clothing also comes in, and you pay attention to the one who wears the fine clothing and say, “Have a seat here, please,” while you say to the poor man, “Stand there,” or, “Sit at my feet,” have you not made distinctions among yourselves, and become judges with evil thoughts? Listen, my beloved brethren. Has not God chosen those who are poor in the world to be rich in faith and heirs of the kingdom which he has promised to those who love him?

Alleluia, alleluia. For the Lord is a great God: and a great King over all the earth. Alleluia.

stand GOSPEL Mark 7: 31-37

At that time: Jesus returned from the region of Tyre, and went through Sidon to the Sea of Galilee, through the region of the Decapolis. And they brought to him a man who was deaf and had an impediment in his speech; and they besought him to lay his hand upon him. And taking him aside from the multitude privately, he put his fingers into his ears, and he spat and touched his tongue; and looking up to heaven, he sighed, and said to him, "Ephphatha," that is, "Be opened." And his ears were opened, his tongue was released, and he spoke plainly. And he charged them to tell no one; but the more he charged them, the more zealously they proclaimed it. And they were astonished beyond measure, saying, "He has done all things well; he even makes the deaf hear and the dumb speak."
