We are delighted to have you with us.

We are a parish of the Personal Ordinariate of the Chair of Saint Peter, which was established on January 1, 2012 by Pope Benedict XVI in response to repeated requests by Anglicans seeking to become Catholic. Ordinariate parishes are fully Catholic while retaining elements of their Anglican heritage and traditions, including liturgical traditions.

OCTOBER IS STEWARDSHIP MONTH

See the bulletin insert for more information.

MITE BOX COLLECTION

Next Sunday is the second Sunday of the month, when we collect the spare change you are gathering for the Building Fund.

Don't have a mite box? You can get one from the ushers after mass and start collecting. And you can always just bring up whatever spare change you have in your pocket. No contribution is too small to matter.

CORPORAL WORK OF MERCY FOR OCTOBER: FEEDING THE HUNGRY

This month we will be assisting St. Martin of Tours Catholic Church as they prepare Thanksgiving baskets with turkeys. We will collect non-perishable food and checks made payable to St. Martin's Church. St. Martin's will pack the baskets on November 18. We urge you to send a donation earmarked for the Thanksgiving baskets [note it in the Memo line of the check] or bring non-perishable items that might be used to prepare a Thanksgiving dinner to Mass with you during the month of October and through November 18.

KNOW YOUR FAITH

SAINT DENIS was bishop of Paris in the third century and, together with two of his clergy, Rusticus and Eleutherius, was martyred for his faith by decapitation on the highest hill in Paris (now Montmartre), probably under the persecution of the emperor Decius shortly after ad 250. He is venerated as the patron saint of France and Paris.

Denis is the most famous cephalophore in Christian legend. A cephalophore (from the Greek for "head-carrier") is a saint who is generally depicted carrying his or her own head. In Christian art, this was usually meant to signify that the subject in question had been martyred by beheading. Handling the halo in this circumstance offers a unique challenge for the artist; some put the halo where the head used to be, others have the saint carrying the halo along with the head, and some split the difference. Associated legends often tell of the saint standing and carrying his own head after the beheading. A popular story about St. Denis' martyrdom claims that the decapitated bishop picked up his head and walked several miles while preaching a sermon on repentance.

FIRST READING Genesis 2: 18-24

The LORD God said, "It is not good that the man should be alone; I will make him a helper fit for him." So out of the ground the LORD God formed every beast of the field and every bird of the air, and brought them to the man to see what he would call them; and whatever the man called every living creature, that was its name. The man gave names to all cattle, and to the birds of the air, and to every beast of the field; but for the man there was not found a helper fit for him. So the LORD God caused a deep sleep to fall upon the man, and while he slept took one of his ribs and closed up its place with flesh; and the rib which the LORD God had taken from the man he made into a woman and brought her to the man. Then the man said, "This at last is bone of my bones and flesh of my flesh; she shall be called Woman, because she was taken out of Man." Therefore a man leaves his father and his mother and clings to his wife, and they become one flesh.

SECOND READING Hebrews 2: 9-11

We see Jesus, who for a little while was made lower than the angels, crowned with glory and honor because of the suffering of death, so that by the grace of God he might taste death for every one. For it was fitting that he, for whom and by whom all things exist, in bringing many sons to glory, should make the pioneer of their salvation perfect through suffering. For he who sanctifies and those who are sanctified have all one origin. That is why he is not ashamed to call them brethren.

cantor ALLELUIA Confitemini Domine [Psalm 105: 1]
Alleluia, alleluia. O give thanks unto the Lord, and call upon his Name: tell the people what things he hath done. Alleluia.

stand GOSPEL Mark 10: 2-16
Pharisees came up and in order to test Jesus asked, "Is it lawful for a man to divorce his wife?" He answered them, "What did Moses command you?" They said, "Moses allowed a man to write a certificate of divorce, and to put her away." But Jesus said to them, "For your hardness of heart he wrote you this commandment. But from the beginning of creation, 'God made them male and female.' 'For this reason a man shall leave his father and mother and be joined to his wife, and the two shall become one.' So they are no longer two but one. What therefore God has joined together, let not man put asunder." And in the house the disciples asked him again about this matter. And he said to them, "Whoever divorces his wife and marries another, commits adultery against her; and if she divorces her husband and marries another, she commits adultery." And they were bringing children to him, that he might touch them; and the disciples rebuked them. But when Jesus saw it he was indignant, and said to them, "Let the children come to me, do not hinder them; for to such belongs the kingdom of God. Truly, I say to you, whoever does not receive the kingdom of God like a child shall not enter it." And he took them in his arms and blessed them, laying his hands upon them.

POPE JOHN XXIII (born Angelo Giuseppe Roncalli, 25 November 1881 – 3 June 1963) was pope from 28 October 1958 to his death in 1963. Roncalli was the fourth of fourteen children born to a family of sharecroppers who lived in a village in Lombardy. He was ordained to the priesthood in 1904 and served in a number of posts, as nuncio in France and a delegate to Bulgaria, Greece and Turkey. Roncalli was elected pope in 1958 at age 76 after 11 ballots. Pope John XXIII surprised those who expected him to be a caretaker pope by calling the historic Second Vatican Council (1962–1965), the first session opening on 11 October 1962. Pope John XXIII did not live to see the Vatican Council to completion, dying of stomach cancer on 3 June 1963, four and a half years after his election and two months after the completion of his final encyclical, Pacem in terris. The Catholic Church celebrates his feast day not on the date of his death (3 June), as is usual, nor his birth, or even on the day of his papal coronation (as is the case with several canonised popes, such as John Paul II) but on 11 October – the day of the first session of the Second Vatican Council.
