Damien de Veuster, Priest

KNOW YOUR FAITH

SAINT DAMIEN OF MOLOKAI, SS.CC. or Saint Damien De Veuster (3 January 1840 – 15 April 1889), born Jozef De Veuster, was a Roman Catholic priest from Belgium and member of the Congregation of the Sacred Hearts of Jesus and Mary, a missionary religious institute. He won recognition for his ministry from 1873 to 1889 in the Kingdom of Hawai'i to people with leprosy (also known as Hansen's disease), who were required to live under a government-sanctioned medical quarantine on the island of Molokai on the Kalaupapa Peninsula.

During this time, he taught the Catholic faith to the people of Hawaii. Father Damien also cared for the patients himself and established leadership within the community to build houses, schools, roads, hospitals, and churches. He dressed residents' ulcers, built a reservoir, made coffins, dug graves, shared pipes, and ate poi from his hands with them, providing both medical and emotional support.

After sixteen years caring for the physical, spiritual, and emotional needs of those in the leper colony, Father Damien realized he had also contracted leprosy when he was scalded by hot water and felt no pain. He continued with his work despite the infection but finally succumbed to the disease on 15 April 1889. Father Damien has been described as a "martyr of charity." He was the tenth person in what is now the United States to be recognized as a saint by the Catholic Church.

COLLECT Almighty God, who hast given thine only Son to be unto us both a sacrifice for sin, and also an example of godly life: give us grace that we may always most thankfully receive his inestimable benefit; and also daily endeavour ourselves to follow the blessed steps of his most holy life; through the same Jesus Christ thy Son our Lord, who liveth and reigneth with thee, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, ever one God, world without end Amen.

FIRST READING Acts 5: 27-32, 40b-41

In those days: The high priest questioned the apostles, saying, "We strictly charged you not to teach in this name, yet here you have filled Jerusalem with your teaching and you intend to bring this man's blood upon us." But Peter and the apostles answered, "We must obey God rather than men. The God of our fathers raised Jesus whom you killed by hanging him on a tree. God exalted him at his right hand as Leader and Savior, to give repentance to Israel and forgiveness of sins. And we are witnesses to these things, and so is the Holy Spirit whom God has given to those who obey him." And they charged the apostles not to speak in the name of Jesus, and let them go. Then they left the presence of the council, rejoicing that they were counted worthy to suffer dishonor for the name.

APPOINTED PSALM Psalm 30: 1, 3-5, 11-13 Exaltabo te, Domine.

I WILL magnify thee, O Lord; for thou hast | set me | up, * and not made my foes to | triumph | over | me.

3 Thou, Lord, hast brought my soul | out of | hell: * thou hast kept my life, that I should not go | down in- | to the | pit.

4 Sing praises unto the Lord, O ye | saints of | his; * and give thanks unto him, for a remembrance | of his | holi- | ness.

5 For his wrath endureth but the twinkling of an eye, and in his pleasure | is _ | life; * heaviness may endure for a night, but joy | cometh | in the | morning.

11 Hear, O Lord, and have mercy up- | on _ | me; * Lord, | be _ | thou my | helper.

12 Thou hast turned my heaviness | into | joy; * thou hast put off my sackcloth, and | girded | me with | gladness:

13 Therefore shall every good man sing of thy praise | without | ceasing. * O my God, I will give thanks | unto | thee for | ever.

SECOND READING Revelation 5: 11-14

I John, looked, and I heard around the throne and the living creatures and the elders the voice of many angels, numbering myriads of myriads and thousands of thousands, saying with a loud voice, "Worthy is the Lamb who was slain, to receive power and wealth and wisdom and might and honor and glory and blessing!" And I heard every creature in heaven and on earth and under the earth and in the sea, and all therein, saying, "To him who sits upon the throne and to the Lamb be blessing and honor and glory and might for ever and ever!" And the four living creatures said, "Amen!" and the elders fell down and worshiped.
