SAINT OF THE WEEK

Sts. Processus
& Martinian
Feast Day:

July 2nd

The Holy Martyrs Processus and Martinian were pagans and they served as guards at the Mamertine prison in Rome.

Mamertine Prison held State criminals, including Christians. Watching the Christian prisoners and listening to their preaching, Processus and Martinian gradually came to the knowledge of the Savior. When the holy Apostle Peter was locked up at the Mamertine prison, Processus and Martinian came to believe in Christ. They accepted holy Baptism from the apostle and released him from prison. The jailer Paulinus learned about this, and demanded that Processus and Martinian renounce Christ. But they fearlessly confessed Christ. Paulinus subjected them to torture. The martyrs were beaten with iron rods, scorched with fire, and finally, thrown into prison.

Sts. Processus and Martinian were beheaded by the sword (+ ca. 67). Today, their tomb is in the south transept of St. Peter's Basilica in Rome.

PASTOR'S MESSAGE

Dear Friends,

This last Sunday, I went to St. James in Lititz for Jim O'Blaney's going away celebration. Bishop Gainer reminded those gathered of the Redemptorists' history in the Lancaster Region – there was a need, and the Redemptorists came to preach the Gospel and administer the sacraments. Fr. Paul Borowski, C.Ss.R., the Redemptorist Provincial Superior, also offered some very meaningful words at the end of the Mass. He thanked Fr. O'Blaney, C.Ss.R. for his 20 years of service at St. James, but he made a point of it to thank the people of the parish. Fr. Paul said, "We will leave, but a part of us will be left behind, you will have within you the Redemptorist spirit, and a love for Mary – Our Mother of Perpetual Help – a part of us will always remain in you!"

Here, at OMPH parish, a fire has been lit in the hearts of many of our parishioners. Like the early Redemptorists who came to Ephrata to serve and build a community, we have a number of parishioners who are serving the parish by volunteering their time and talents, and creating wonderful changes in the parish.

This is your feast day – Our Mother of Perpetual Help! So many of you, like Mary, serve the church in simplicity and humility, and I thank you! I want to take this opportunity, however, to thank a few people who have responded to God's call in an extraordinary way.

- I want to thank Owen Wilczek who has been working on his Eagle project over at the grotto these last couple of months. His selfless attitude and kind nature has attracted others (too many names to mention) to assist him in giving their time and resources to renovate this shrine to our Blessed Lady.
- I want to thank the husband and wife team, Peter and Susan Giampietro. They came to me and said they wanted to help beautify the church entrance, and they have achieved their goal.
- Finally, I want to thank the Knights of Columbus. Under the direction of Greg Schlotterer, they have been preparing the school classrooms for the Fall – by painting, and removing old ceiling lights, preparing for new lights. Over 20 Knights volunteered this last week.

I could list more of our parishioners, but I wanted to highlight a few who have responded by giving of themselves selflessly for the building up of the church – the Body of Christ, thank you!

Happy and Blessed Feast Day to everyone,
Fr. John

The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults, or RCIA, is an adult faith formation process of conversion leading to reception into full communion with the Catholic Church. The RCIA may serve your needs if you:

- Were baptized in another Christian denomination and now wish to explore coming into full communion with the Catholic Church.
- Are an adult wanting to be baptized into the Catholic faith.
- Were baptized in the Catholic faith, but are in need of receiving the Sacraments of Eucharist and/or Confirmation.

If you have ever reflected on making such a decision, be at peace! God, the Holy Spirit, is calling you, and He will lead you. The RCIA process will help you to grow in faith and understanding of the teachings of Jesus and His Church.

The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adult Classes will begin in September, and continue until shortly after Easter the following year. The Monday evening classes are held in the Parish Meeting Room at 7:00 p.m.
