“Lord, teach us how to pray.” One mistake we often make in prayer is to confuse “faith” and “feeling”. When we pray, we want to feel God’s presence. But what happens when we don’t feel God’s presence in prayer? Are we praying in an incorrect manner or is God not listening? Neither. We should not pray to get a “warm glow”, for this turns prayer into self-indulgence rather than an act of selfless love. When we pray, we simply rest in the arms of God and allow Him to hold us. Prayer is an awareness of God, that He truly is present to me when I cry out to Him. God is with us when we pray; the heart may not feel this, but faith tells us that He is truly near.

Ecclesiology, the role of the Church in salvation. What is ecumenism?

In the Vatican II document, Unitatis Redintegratio (Decree of Ecumenism), the council fathers stated, “The restoration of unity among Christians is one of the principal concerns of the Second Vatican Council” (UR, 1). The document expresses a great desire to remove and avoid further obstacles in dialogue with other Christians. It reminds Catholics and all Christians that in such dialogue, we must praise God for the core doctrines that we already hold in common: the Blessed Trinity; the Incarnation of Jesus; the redemptive nature of the Cross; the reverence of God’s Holy Word; the power of grace; the necessity of prayer; et.al. For years, disagreements on these core doctrines, the hierarchy of truths, often stemmed from questions of theological language, not the essential nature of these doctrines. Ecumenical dialogue has born great fruit in proclaiming common understandings of doctrines that should unite Christians, not divide them.

But while steps have been made towards Christian unity, there are still significant disagreements between the Catholic Church and other churches and ecclesial communities. They require further dialogue and we just can’t set them aside by asserting the mantra of “Doctrine divides, but charity unites.” It is not an option for the Church to ignore difficult doctrines merely for the hope of Christian unity. This is not being faithful to the commission to preach the Gospel to all nations; woe to us if we do not do so. (c.f. I Corinthians, 9:16). Too many Catholics have the false notion that “All churches are the same”. We are not. The areas of disagreement are many: the nature of authority in the Church; papal infallibility; the Magisterium; the role of Mary in salvation history (The Immaculate Conception; The Virgin Birth; The Assumption of Mary; etc.); eschatology (n.b., purgatory); and morality (the definition of marriage; contraception; etc.).

Again, we thank God for the strides Christians have made in charity and theological understanding through the ecumenical movement. It is indeed a gift of the Holy Spirit. But there is much work to be done to heal the divisions in the Body of Christ. Negating or downplaying contentious doctrines does not help the ecumenical endeavor; it merely creates a false unity. Continue praying for unity in the Body of Christ. This was one of Jesus’ last prayers on earth, “That they may all be one, as you Father are in me and I in you” (John 17:21). If the Lord urgently prayed for this desired unity, then so must we, His faithful followers.

Thank you for a wonderful day

Thank you to everyone who had a role in last Sunday’s youth fundraiser at Sacred Heart Parish. We raised about $2,300 for our State Fair trip. Special thanks to Kelsy Duppong for organizing the meal and to Lisa Staiger for assisting her; thank you to all of the youth and their parents who cooked and served the meal and helped with the clean-up afterwards; thank you to all who came to the meal and concert to support our youth; and special thanks and kudos to the Bluestems for sharing their amazing gift of bluegrass music. We are now on our way to the State Fair, so thank you to everyone who made this possible. We have sufficient funds, so I can have that deep-fried Twinkie and the deep-fried Oreo cookies at the State Fair food court. [Note to self: pack extra cholesterol pills].

Heading north

I will be joining the youth at the State Fair in Minot on Monday and Tuesday, July 25th and 26th, so in case of a pastoral emergency, please contact Fr. Bruce Krebs at Saint Ann’s rectory in Hebron. Please keep us in your prayers and know that when we gather for morning Mass on both days and for evening prayers, you will indeed be remembered as we bring you and your families' intentions to the Lord. Pray for me as I brave the carnival rides at the State Fair. If you hear me screaming all the way down in Glen Ullin and Hebron, you should assume that the rides got the best of me. On a positive note, watch for me on YouTube and hit the like button!

Happy feast day

For the parishioners of Saint Ann's, please join us for our parish feast day celebration, on Sunday, July 24th, after the 10:30 Mass at Saint Ann's Church (note the change of schedule). The Knights of Columbus will be providing hamburgers and hot dogs and everyone else is asked to please bring a potluck item. There will be games of cards after the meal, games for the kids, and a contest to see who can eat the most peach kuchen. [Spoiler alert: the trophy has already been engraved with Fr. Gary's name]. We will see you on Sunday! Saint Ann, mother of Mary and grandmother of Jesus . . . pray for us.

On the lighter side

A new pastor in town stood at the church door greeting the parishioners after they departed from Sunday Mass. The people were generous in complimenting the pastor for his homily, except one fellow who said to him, "Pretty dull homily, Father". And in a minute or two, the same man appeared in line and said, "Pretty dull homily, Father." Once again, the man appeared, this time muttering, "You really didn't say anything at all, Father." When he got the opportunity, the pastor pointed out the triple-threat pest to the deacon and inquired about him. "Oh, don't let that guy bother you", said the deacon. "He's a poor soul who goes around repeating whatever he hears other people saying."

A Christian point to ponder: To be right with God has often meant to be in trouble with men.

Parish News & Events

Votive Candles: We order our votive candles from Luxe Candles and they have now increased their price of the candles so we will be increasing the votive candle price from $3.00 to $3.50. Thank you.

Stewardship Message: Have you given real thought lately to how good God has been to you? Do you give in proportion to what God has given you?

Sacred Heart Parish Dinner: Mark your calendar! Sacred Heart Parish will be having a fall dinner & chinese auction on October 9th, 2022. Please keep this date open to come and enjoy a meal with family and friends. We will be looking for volunteers to help with the dinner, games, setting up and cleaning after it is done. As the date approaches we will have a signup sheets in the church entry for donations of needed items, volunteers, etc.

Prayer for Rain: Heavenly Father, we are in need of rain. The soil of our fields is dry and hard, our grains and pastures are parched, our gardens and orchards are parched. We recognize and admit our total dependence upon you. It is only from your heavens that the rain comes down and does not return there until it has watered the earth, making it fertile and fruitful, giving seed to those who sow and bread to those who eat. With confidence in your providence and with trust in your Fatherly care, we humble and earnestly ask that you, Father, send life giving rain upon our fields and pastures that our crops may grow and our livestock may increase; protect them from hail and storm. We ask all this through your son Jesus who lives and reigns with you forever and ever. Amen.

Events in the Diocese

Since our Thirst Conference has been canceled for this year, it is a great opportunity to offer this conference to your parishners.

• Redeemed Eucharistic Conference

"My flesh for the life of the World." - John 6:51

The Catholic Church teaches: "what Jesus did for the salvation of humanity is made present in the celebration of the Eucharist, including his sacrificial Death and Resurrection. Christ's sacrifice of himself to the Father was efficacious and salvific because of the supreme love with which he shed his blood, the price of our salvation, and offered himself to the Father on our behalf. His blood, shed for us, is the eternal sign of that love. As a memorial, the Eucharist is not another sacrifice, but the re-presentation of the sacrifice of Christ by which we are reconciled to the Father."

As part of the Eucharistic Revival, the Diocese of Fargo will host a Redeemed Eucharistic Conference in Fargo, September 23-24, 2022. Among the speakers will be Bishop John Folda, Bishop Andrew Cozzens of the Diocese of Crookston, MN, who is heading up the National Eucharistic Revival for the USCCB, Monsignor James Shea, President of the University of Mary in Bismarck, and other dignitaries and Eucharistic scholars.
