THE TWENTY-SIXTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

September 27, 2020

Humbly regard others
as more important
than yourselves,
each looking out not
for his own interests,
but also for those of others.

Philippians 2:3-4

Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass © 2001, 1998, 1997, 1986, 1970, CCD.

Por humildad,
cada uno considere
a los demás como superiores a sí mismo y no
busque su propio interés,
sino el del prójimo.

Filipenses 2:3-4

PARISH ANNOUNCEMENTS

Learn Latin

Want to learn the classical language that is also the official language of the Catholic Church? Young and old are invited to sign up for weekly classes! Cédric Ebner is a St. Madeleine parishioner, Pomona resident, husband and father. He has been teaching languages at Loyola High School for the past 20+ years. Classes will be held on Friday afternoons. Contact the office for details.

24 Hour Adoration

St. Madeleine is offering a 24 Hour Adoration every first and third Friday of every month, if there are enough people to cover every hour. Adoration begins on Friday after the morning Mass and concludes on Saturday at 12 noon. Anyone interested in volunteering to spend an hour or more with Jesus, please call Karen Ortiz at 909-764-7097, Dolores Cazares at 909-634-6112 or Dennis & Anna Duvall at 909-263-1582.

Candles

If you want to remind people to pray for your intentions placed at the front of the church, please do not place or light the candle yourself. Make sure the candle is saved for Padre and he will place the candle and make sure it is lit. This is to prevent unnecessary contact caused by passing candles and lighters around. You can pick up a candle from the office or from the Religious Education Office.

Missalettes Available

We are unable to use the missalettes since articles and books cannot be passed around. This is to prevent the spread of disease. If you would like a missalette for a $2 donation, contact the office to make the arrangement.

Food Bag Distribution

St. Madeleine provides bags of groceries for those in need. As you would expect, the number of families coming for help continues to grow each week. If you can help, we are in need of donations of canned vegetables, rice, beans, pasta & sauce, cereal, oatmeal, oil, jelly, peanut butter, tortillas, bread, and milk. Thank you to the many familiar faces who show up during the week at St. Madeleine with bags of grocery donations.

If you have questions or would like to help in any way, please call the office at 909-629-9495 and let us know. Thank you for being a loving and caring people and such a great presentation of the Body of Christ in such a troubled time.

Thank you!!! Thank you!!! Thank you!!!

Guardians for Valuable Souls

So valuable to heaven is the dignity of the human soul that every member of the human race has a guardian angel from the moment the person begins to be.

—St. Jerome

Guardianes Para Almas Valiosas

Tan valiosa para el cielo es cada alma humana que cada miembro de la raza humana tiene un ángel de la guardia desde el momento en que la persona comienza a existir.

—San Jerónimo

Impossible

Start by doing what is necessary, then do what is possible; suddenly you are doing the impossible.

—St. Francis of Assisi

Lo Imposible

Empieza a hacer lo que es necesario, luego lo que es posible, de pronto estarás haciendo lo que es imposible.

The Little Ones

Jim Burrows

Jesus said to the chief priests and elders of the people:
"The man came to the second son and said the same thing;
and he answered, 'I will, sir'; but he did not go.
Which of the two did the will of his father?"
They said, "The first." Mt 21:30-31

Jesús dijo a los principales sacerdotes y los ancianos del pueblo:
"Y llegando al otro, le dijo lo mismo, pero él respondió y dijo:
'Yo iré, señor'; y no fue. ¿Cuál de los dos hizo la voluntad del padre?"
Ellos dijeron: "El primero." Mt 21:30-31

Saint Thérèse of the Child Jesus (1873-1897) October 1

"The cornerstone's dated 1872, but the stained glass is much later," explained the pastor, astonished when his visitor accurately dated it to just before the Great Depression, explaining, "The window for the Little Flower"—Thérèse's nickname—"gives it away." From her canonization in 1925, her statues and windows adorn most churches where European immigrants worshiped. Entering Carmel at fifteen, victim of tuberculosis at twenty-four, Thérèse proposed her "Little Way" to sanctity: doing ordinary tasks with extraordinary love. Thus ordinary Catholics, many of whom had lost loved ones to tuberculosis, embraced her. Though she never left her cloister, this Carmelite's spiritual communion and devoted correspondence with missionaries earned her the title Patroness of Missions. Her autobiography, Story of a Soul, continuously in print since her death, chronicles her prayerful perseverance through doubt and caused her to be the youngest person ever named a Doctor of the Church. Countless physical healings and spiritual conversions testify to her fulfillment of her deathbed promise: "After my death, I will let fall a shower of roses. I will spend my heaven doing good upon earth!"

Santa Teresita del Niño Jesús (1873-1897) 1o de octubre

Teresita es la más joven de las doctoras de la Iglesia, pues murió a los 24 años, víctima de la tuberculosis. Jamás salió del convento carmelita en que vivía, pero siempre oró intensamente por los sacerdotes y los misioneros, llegando a ser la patrona de las misiones. Su vida no fue fácil, pues quedó huérfana de madre a los 4 años y se vio forzada a emigrar a otra ciudad con su padre y tres hermanas María, Paulina y Celina. Desde los 9 años se dio cuenta de que quería ser carmelita, pero su edad se lo impedía, hasta que a los 15 años le pide personalmente al Papa León XIII que le otorgue el permiso para ser admitida como religiosa carmelita. Así fue. Como religiosa destacó por la profundidad de su relación con Dios y la austeridad con que vivía, practicando la oración y la mortificación cristiana, pese a una salud muy delicada. Respecto a sus sufrimientos escribió: "He llegado a un punto en el que me es imposible sufrir, porque todo sufrimiento es dulce". Fue canonizada en 1925.

Familiar Insights

Spiritual teachers tend to repeat themselves, and to repeat other teachers. Maybe there really aren't that many different truths to tell. Just a lot of slow, sleepy human beings—like us—who need to hear the basics over and over. Consider today's readings. People complain God isn't "fair," and Ezekiel answers that God is more than fair. People choose their own fates, and people can change. Even evildoers can turn, do right, and live. "Actions speak louder than words." A fresh new insight? Hardly. Paul tells the Philippians that he would truly be encouraged if those who claimed to be believers would, in fact, look to others' interests and not their own. "The proof of the pudding is in the eating." A novel idea? I don't think so. In Jesus' story of the farmer and his sons, everyone knows that the one who said he wouldn't work—but did—is way ahead of the one who said he would work—but didn't. "Talk is cheap." Heard that before?

Enseñanzas Familiares

Los maestros espirituales suelen repetir sus enseñanzas, y repetir las de otros maestros. Quizás no existen muchas verdades diferentes que decir. Sólo muchos seres humanos lentos y aletargados, como nosotros, que necesitan oír lo básico una y otra vez. Considera, por ejemplo las lecturas de hoy. La gente se queja de que Dios no es "justo" y Ezequiel responde que Dios es más que justo. Las personas eligen su propio destino, y las personas pueden cambiar. Hasta los malhechores pueden cambiar de rumbo, hacer lo que es justo, y vivir. "Los hechos valen más que las palabras". ¿Un nuevo discernimiento? Para nada. Pablo dice a los filipenses que lo llenarían de alegría si los que claman ser creyentes, de hecho, buscan el interés de los otros y no el propio. "Obras son amores y no buenas razones". ¿Una idea novedosa? No lo creo. En el relato de Jesús del viñador y sus dos hijos, todos saben que el que dijo que no trabajaría, pero lo hizo le lleva la delantera al que dijo que trabajaría, pero no lo hizo. "Fácil es hablar". ¿Ya lo oíste antes?

Treasures From Our Tradition

Did you ever notice how often the angels are referred to during Mass? We commonly meet them in the Confratour ("I ask blessed Mary, every virgin, all the angels and saints"), prefaces ("with angels and archangels and the whole company of heaven"), the Roman Canon ("we pray that your angel may take this sacrifice"), and Eucharistic Prayer IV ("countless hosts of angels stand before you to do your will"). Last week and this week angels abound as we celebrated Michael, Gabriel, and Raphael yesterday and will honor the Guardian Angels on October 2.

September 29 was originally the feast day for Michael alone. Gabriel and Raphael joined him in the 1969 reform of the Church calendar. The celebration of the Guardian Angels has been observed since the sixteenth century in Spain. Pope Clement X assigned the feast to the first free day after St. Michael's in 1670, and there it has remained. Take some time this week to reflect on these, God's messengers and our protectors, and maybe even celebrate with a little angel food cake!

Tradiciones de Nuestra Fe

En 1648 el franciscano, Matías Abad llegó a la selva chocoana en la costa pacífica de Colombia. Allí, a pesar de los ataques indígenas en contra de los misioneros, pudo celebrar la fiesta de san Francisco (4 de octubre). Al pasar de los años la devoción a San Francisco en Chocó se convirtió en una mezcla de la fe católica, las religiones africanas y la brujería. Este sincretismo es una forma de superstición que busca utilizar al santo en lugar de imitarlo.

Esta confianza en imágenes y estatuas es común y hasta peligrosa entre los latinoamericanos. Las hazañas de ciertas imágenes milagrosas llegan a proporciones exageradas. Por ejemplo, la imagen de "San Pachito", como lo llaman los chocoanos, se le atribuye haber apagado un incendio que amenazaba la población. La pusieron delante de las llamas y las apagó con su propio sudor.

Hay que tener cuidado con la importancia de las imágenes sagradas de nuestras tradiciones. En un descuido pueden convertirse en ídolos o amuletos en lugar del recuerdo de la presencia divina y el desafío de vivir en santidad.

DID YOU KNOW?

Words Can Be Warning Signs of Abuse

Many children will be learning in their own homes this fall, but that does not mean they will be fully protected from abuse. Sadly, most children are abused by someone considered to be a “known and trusted” person – that person may be a family member – even someone living in the same house as the child. Pay attention to the conversations your children are having, as words can be indicators that a child is being groomed or harmed. If your child or their friend(s) seem to “know” more about sexual topics than would be expected for their age, or seems unusually focused on such topics, it could be an indicator that something inappropriate and harmful is happening. Talk to your child about it, reassuring them that it is both important and safe to tell you what is happening. For more information on this topic, visit <https://lacatholics.org/did-you-know/>.

¿SABÍA QUE?

Las palabras pueden ser señales de alerta de abuso

Muchos niños estarán aprendiendo desde sus propios hogares este otoño, pero eso no significa que estarán completamente protegidos de abuso. Lamentablemente, la mayoría de los niños son abusados por alguien que se considera una persona “conocida y de confianza”, que pudiera ser un miembro de la familia, y que hasta puede vivir en la misma casa que el niño o niña. Preste atención a las conversaciones de sus hijos, ya que las palabras pueden ser indicadores de que un niño está siendo abusado o dañado sexualmente. Si su hijo/a o sus amigos parecen “saber” más sobre temas sexuales de lo que se espera para su edad, o parecen inusualmente enfocados en esos temas, esto puede ser indicador de que algo inapropiado o dañino está sucediendo. Hable con sus hijos sobre estos temas, asegurándoles que es importante y seguro que ellos le digan lo que está sucediendo. Para obtener más información sobre este tema, visite <https://lacatholics.org/did-you-know/>.

Prayer in the Time of the Coronavirus

Holy Virgin of Guadalupe, Queen of the Angels and Mother of the Americas.

We fly to you today as your beloved children. We ask you to intercede for us with your Son, as you did at the wedding in Cana. Pray for us, loving Mother, and gain for our nation and world, and for all our families and loved ones, the protection of your holy angels, that we may be spared the worst of this illness. For those already afflicted, we ask you to obtain the grace of healing and deliverance. Hear the cries of those who are vulnerable and fearful, wipe away their tears and help them to trust. In this time of trial and testing, teach all of us in the Church to love one another and to be patient and kind. Help us to bring the peace of Jesus to our land and to our hearts. We come to you with confidence, knowing that you truly are our compassionate mother, health of the sick and cause of our joy. Shelter us under the mantle of your protection, keep us in the embrace of your arms, help us always to know the love of your Son, Jesus. Amen.

Oración en el tiempo del coronavirus

Santa Virgen de Guadalupe, Reina de los ángeles y Madre de las Américas, Acudimos a ti hoy como tus amados hijos. Te pedimos intercedas por nosotros ante tu Hijo, así como lo hiciste en las Bodas de Caná. Ora por nosotros, amorosa Madre, y obtén para nuestra nación y para el mundo, y para todas nuestras familias y nuestros seres queridos, la protección de tus santos ángeles, que seamos librados de lo peor de esta enfermedad. Para aquellos que ya están afligidos, te pedimos que obtengas la gracia de la sanación. Escucha el lamento de quienes están vulnerables y temerosos, limpia sus lágrimas y ayúdalos a confiar. En este tiempo de prueba, enséñanos a todos en la Iglesia a amarnos unos a otros y a ser pacientes y amables. Ayúdanos a traer la paz de Jesús a nuestra tierra y a nuestros corazones. Venimos a ti con confianza, sabiendo que tú eres realmente nuestra madre compasiva, la sanación de los enfermos y la causa de nuestra alegría. Danos albergue bajo el manto de tu protección, manténnos bajo tu abrazo, ayúdanos siempre a conocer el amor de tu Hijo, Jesús. Amén.
