Catacombs of Via Latina, Rome

WITH THE HELP OF SAINT CECILIA PASTORAL REFLECTIONS

Dear brothers and sisters,

I am delighted to announce that Bishop McManus has chosen to award the Mother Theresa Pro-Life Award to our own Deacon Robert and Irene Connor. What a wonderful choice the Bishop has made. I know of no couple who has done more to defend life and live out the Gospel of Life! The award will be presented at the Bishop's Pro-Life Mass on Friday, March 24th at 10am at Saint Paul's Cathedral. I encourage as many of you as possible to be present for this wonderful event. Congratulations, Bob and Irene!

Speaking of Congratulations, our friends at the Spanish American Cultural Center recently received a generous donation from Rollstone Bank and Trust. I was happy to join Neddy Latimer, Executive Director of SAC and some of the young people of the after-school program for the presentation. How wonderful to have the classrooms in the Parish Hall buzzing with activity every weekday afternoon and how grateful we are for the new income stream provided to the parish by this wonderful collaboration!

Lots to report on the repair of the gutters, now that April is in sight (if it will just stop snowing!) The final water testing is scheduled for the end of March, with the repairs to masonry, drains and roof surfaces to commence soon thereafter. On the next page you will see the schematics being used for pricing. I can't wait for the engineers to certify that we have definitively repaired the sources of the leaks, so we can get in to the interior repairs and restorations.

Speaking of which, within the next two weeks you will be seeing the publication of our preliminary plans for repair and restoration of Saint Cecilia's magnificent Church. We have been working with Rohn Design on everything from color schemes to liturgical enhancements, restoration of the sanctuary floor, lighting, etc. The Memorial Brochure, which should be published this month, will provide opportunities for people to donate towards various aspects of the project in memory of a deceased (or living) loved one. We will undertake each of these restorations and enhancements only once sufficient funds have been pledged.

Which reminds me, the memorial plaques with the names of all the generous folks who made the Chapel of Divine Mercy and Saint Joseph possible have been mounted on the wall outside the Chapel. While we made every effort to get everything correct, if you notice any errors, we can always correct them in the future. It is my hope that these plaques will remind people for generations to come of your immense generosity.

In the Lord,

Monsignor Moroney

DISPENSATION

The Liturgical Commemoration of St. Patrick, the patron saint of Ireland, March 17, is observed this year, 2023 on a Friday of Lent that the Church prescribes as a Day of Abstinence from meat. In light of the importance of this feast day for many in the Diocese of Worcester, I am granting a dispensation from the rule of abstinence on Friday, March 17, 2023.

I ask that those who take advantage of this dispensation perform another act of penance in its place on that day.

THE WOMAN AT THE WELL

By Pope Benedict XVI

This third Sunday of Lent is characterized by the Jesus' famous conversation with the Samaritan woman, recounted by the Evangelist John. The woman went every day to draw water from an ancient well that dated back to the Patriarch Jacob and on that day she found Jesus sitting beside the well, "wearied from his journey" (Jn 4:6). St Augustine comments: "Not for nothing was Jesus tried.... The strength of Christ created you, the weakness of Christ recreated you.... With his strength he created us, with his weakness he came to seek us out" (In Ioh, Ev., 15, 2).

Jesus' weariness, a sign of his true humanity, can be seen as a prelude to the Passion with which he brought to fulfillment the work of our redemption. In the encounter with the Samaritan woman at the well, the topic of Christ's "thirst" stands out in particular. It culminated in his cry on the Cross "I thirst" (Jn 19:28). This thirst, like his weariness, had a physical basis. Yet Jesus, as St Augustine says further, "thirsted for the faith of that woman" (In Ioh. Ev. 15,11), as he thirsted for the faith of us all.

God the Father sent him to quench our thirst for eternal life, giving us his love, but to give us this gift Jesus asks for our faith. The omnipotence of Love always respects human freedom; it knocks at the door of man's heart and waits patiently for his answer.

In the encounter with the Samaritan woman the symbol of water stands out in the foreground, alluding clearly to the sacrament of Baptism, the source of new life for faith in God's Grace. This Gospel, in fact is part of the ancient journey of the catechumen's preparation for Christian Initiation, which took place at the great Easter Vigil. "Whoever drinks of the water that I shall give him", Jesus said, "will never thirst; the water that I shall give him will become in him a spring of water welling up to eternal life" (Jn 4:14).

This water represents the Holy Spirit, the "gift" par excellence that Jesus came to bring on the part of God the Father. Whoever is reborn by water and by the Holy Spirit, that is, in Baptism, enters into a real relationship with God, a filial relationship, and can worship him "in spirit and in truth" (Jn 4:23, 24), as Jesus went on to reveal to the Samaritan woman. Thanks to the meeting with Jesus Christ and to the gift of the Holy Spirit, the human being's faith attains fulfillment, as a response to the fullness of God's revelation.

Each one of us can identify himself with the Samaritan woman: Jesus is waiting for us, especially in this Season of Lent, to speak to our hearts, to my heart. Let us pause a moment in silence, in our room or in a church or in a separate place. Let us listen to his voice which tells us "If you knew the gift of God...". May the Virgin Mary help us not to miss this appointment, on which our true happiness depends.

Third Sunday of Lent

QUENCHING OUR HUNGER AND THIRST

How thirsty we are! Like the Chosen People wandering in the desert,<sup>1</sup> we grumble that we are thirsty. Perhaps we are thirsty for love or for justice or for peace. But, nonetheless, we thirst.

God heard the prayer of the Chosen People, and through the action of Moses brought water from a rock. So too, God quenches our thirst with the Precious Blood of his Son, flowing from his wounded side, having been offered for us on the altar of the Cross. This is what the Lord means when he says, "If anyone is thirsty, let him come to me and drink."<sup>2</sup>

This reality is at the heart of Jesus' encounter with the Samaritan woman at Jacob's well. She comes to believe that Jesus can give her living water that will ever satisfy her thirst. For he has told her that he is the "spring of water welling up to eternal life."<sup>3</sup>

We are reminded of his words after the miracle of the multiplication of the loaves and fishes, "I am the bread of life; whoever comes to me will never hunger, and whoever believes in me will never thirst."<sup>4</sup>

Or, as the Preface for the Feast of the Precious Blood reminds us,

...raised up high on the Cross, he gave himself up for us with a wonderful love and poured out blood and water from his pierced side, the wellspring of the Church's Sacraments, so that, won over to the open heart of the Savior, all might draw water joyfully from the springs of salvation.<sup>5</sup>
