

SAINT CECILIA'S CHURCH

Jesus Heals the Leper (Rembrandt)

WITH THE HELP OF SAINT CECILIA PASTORAL REFLECTIONS

Dear brothers and sisters,

Lent begins this week, which means it's time for more prayer, more fasting and more almsgiving. All so that we can celebrate the Paschal Mystery at Easter with pure minds and hearts. Indeed, we might say that the whole purpose of Lent is to repent of our sins and receive the mercy of God.

If you've been to confession recently, you know the almost unimaginable feeling of having your sins forgiven. When the priest says, "I absolve you" in the name of the Blessed Trinity, we know our sins are forgiven by the one who said to his apostles, "what you loose on earth is loosed in heaven!"

Confession is the only remedy for sin, but it is humbling. It is, in the words of the Liturgy, being 'bowed down by our conscience.' For when we truly listen to our conscience and realize how petty and small our selfish little hearts can be, and how infinite is God's love for us, we cannot help but be lifted up by his mercy.

We are little and God is big. We are weighed down with our sins, and he is ever lifting us up with his mercy.

Do you remember the words we pray in dialogue with the priest before the great Eucharistic Prayer? "Lift up your hearts," he says to us. But we cannot lift up our hearts by ourselves, we need the power of God, the power of his infinite mercy to pick us up from the dunghill of our selfishness and sin.

Confession, then, is the way to be raised up from our sins. That's why we celebrate this Sacrament four times a week at Saint Cecilia's: on Wednesday nights at 6:30pm, Thursday mornings at 9:30am and on Saturdays at 9:30am and 3:00pm.

We are so blessed that in Leominster there are Confessions heard every day of the week (except Sunday)! You will find a listing of all those opportunities to get to Confession or Pray the Stations or Adore the Eucharist on the Lenten Devotion Finder in this week's bulletin!

In the Lord,

Monsignor Moroney

A LETTER FROM BISHOP MCMANUS

ASH WEDNESDAY 2024

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

When a young man is ordained, you, his parishioners, become his family and he becomes your spiritual father. Through the joys of Baptisms, First Holy Communions, Confirmations and weddings, the priest is at the heart of parish and family life. When sickness, strain, tragedy and death strike, your spiritual father is there to steady you, reassure you and give you hope by pointing to Jesus Christ and to the mystery of his suffering, death, and resurrection.

As family members, we grow with our priests. In time, we or they move on, but their love, support and lessons remain with us. Like every family there comes a time when those who have nourished, nurtured, and supported us grow old and need our support.

On Ash Wednesday we will hold a collection at all Masses for the support of our forty-nine priests who have retired in good standing. Our expenses for retired priests include a monthly stipend, medical insurance, nursing care and, for some assisted living and nursing home costs. Last year our total cost for priest retirement was $2,390,298.

These retired priests have served with dedication, fidelity, and love. Many continue to serve. Four remain in parishes full time as senior priests. Others have stepped in to administer parishes and say daily Mass. Still others regularly fill in on weekends, cover vacations and serve in prison ministry and on Diocesan Boards and the Tribunal.

Our forty-nine retired priests and senior priests have served in 77 of our 89 parishes (or their predecessors). They are Bishop Emeritus Daniel P. Reilly, Monsignors Richard E. Collette, Anthony S. Czarnecki, John E. Doran, Michael G. Foley, and Francis D. Kelly; Fathers Ernest P. Allega, Roger R. Boucher, Paul F. Campbell, James F. Carmody, George A. Charland, William N. Cormier, Andre E. Dargis, Ralph A. DiOrio, David E. Doiron, Charles J. Dumphy, George A. Dunkley, John A. Dwyer, Thomas F. Egan, Lawrence J. Esposito, John J. Foley, David B. Galonek, Raymond M. Goodwin, Bernard J. Grochowski, J. Andre Guenette, John F. Hamm, John E. Horgan, James A. Houston, Joseph J. Jurgelonis, Theodore R. Laperle, Leo-Paul LeBlanc, Richard P. Lewandowski, Joseph A. Marcotte, Thirburs F. Millott, Chester J. Misiewicz, Charles F. Monroe, Son A. Nguyen, Paul T. O'Connell, Emerito Ortiz, James B. O'Shea, Conrad S. Pecevich, Andre N. Remillard, Francis J. Roach, Michael Roy, Edward M. Ryan, William F. Sanders, Thaddeus X. Stachura, James M. Steuterman, Paul J. Tougas, and Peter H. White. On their behalf, I thank you for your prayers and support of them in their retirement years.

With every prayerful best wish I remain,

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Bishop of Worcester

PRAY WITH US!

Pray for all who are sick, and especially for:

Greta Vaillette, Marie Cyr, Francis Wada, Maureen Sullivan, Charles LeBlanc and Stephanie Matthews.

Pray for all who live in the Holy land, that God might bring peace to that troubled land.

Join us in praying for those who have died recently. Pray for their families, as well, that they may be consoled by the promises of Christ.

If you know someone who needs prayers, call the rectory or email office@stceciliachurch.net and we will add them to our prayer list for the next several weeks.

Once again St. Cecilia's Parish will be holding its Lenten Food Drive starting next weekend. Flyers are available in church this weekend detailing which food items will be collected weekly. Please pick one up. As in the past, the weekly bulletin will also list the foods to be collected the following weekend. Donations of any size are gratefully accepted and all food collected will be given to Catholic Charities in Leominster. Next weekend we will be collecting: canned soup, canned stew (any type), peanut butter, jelly, marshmallow fluff and crackers.

“If he lives in us, he does so in order to motivate our lives and actions by his own love of his Father and his fellow men. In some he is momentarily transfigured, and afterwards it is certain that they will experience his desolation on the Cross. In some he lives a life approximating to his excited life in Egypt, in some his life as a worker, a preacher, a healer; in some he is homeless, in some he is in prison. In some he is stripped of his garments; in some he is nailed to the Cross; in some, those in mortal sin, he is dead waiting for the resurrection; and in some he is risen from the dead. If all in whom Christ lives, surrendered themselves to Him, resting in him, that he might rest in them, in each one of them redemption would begin as it began in Mary, the Mother of God. Christ is formed in us, and we are formed into Christ, when we rest in him and he rests in us.”

Caryll Houselander

“As Lent is the time for greater love, listen to Jesus' thirst...Repent and believe Jesus tells us. What are we to repent? Our indifference, our hardness of heart. What are we to believe? Jesus thirsts even now, in your heart and in the poor -- He knows your weakness. He wants only your love, wants only the chance to love you.

A Help Button Should Go Where You Go!

To be truly independent,
your personal emergency device needs to work on the go.

MobileHelp® allows you to summon emergency help 24 hours a day, 7 days a week by simply pressing your personal help button. Unlike traditional systems that only work inside your home, a MobileHelp medical alert system extends help beyond the home. Now you can participate in all your favorite activities such as gardening, taking walks, shopping and traveling all with the peace of mind of having a personal alert system with you. MobileHelp, the "on-the-go" help button, is powered by one of the nation's largest cellular networks, so there's virtually no limit to your help button's range.

No landline? No problem! While traditional alert systems require a landline, with the MobileHelp system, a landline is not necessary.
Whether you are home or away from home, a simple press of your help button activates your system, providing the central station with your information and location. Our trained emergency operators will know who you are and where you are located. If you're one of the millions of people that have waited for an alert service because it didn't fit your lifestyle, or settled for a traditional system even though it only worked in the home, then we welcome you to try MobileHelp. Experience peace of mind in the home or on the go.
