WITH THE HELP OF SAINT CECILIA PASTORAL REFLECTIONS

Dear brothers and sisters,

Next Thursday is the feast of Saint Oswald. Who is Saint Oswald, you might ask?

Bishop John Wright, the first Bishop of the Diocese of Worcester, put statues of two saints on either side of his Cathedra, both of whom were early Bishops of the Worcester Cathedral: Saints Oswald and Wulfstan.

Saint Oswald as a seventh century King of Northumbria, which included the later Cathedral city of Worcestershire. Bede the Venerable reports that Oswald was a saintly king, who in his youth was converted to Christianity. He and his army would erect a Cross on each battlefield and kneel before it in prayer before the hostilities began.

He imported Northumbria's first Bishop from Ireland and set about baptizing his army and converting his subjects. When the Irish Bishop would preach in his native Irish, the King would translate his sermons. Bede tells us that Oswald fed and housed the poor and welcomed strangers willingly. One Easter, as he was dining with his Bishop, when a servant informed him that a crowd of hungry people were outside the castle gates begging for something to eat. Oswald demanded the table be cleared and the food distributed to the poor.

After his death, many miracles were reported at the site of his burial, from which people took so much dirt that a big hole needed to be refilled repeatedly.

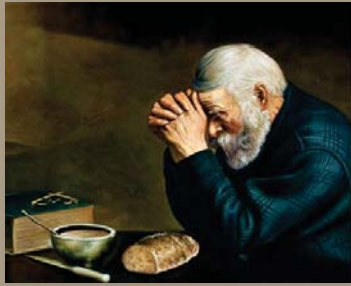

And so we pray:

Lord God our King,
who by the hand of your servant Oswald Lifted up the Cross in the land of Northumbria, that your Gospel might be preached in that land:
Plant the standard of the Cross in our hearts,
so that many may be drawn to the knowledge and love of you.

In the Lord,

Monsignor Moroney

PRAY WITH US!

Pray for all who are sick, and especially for:

Ronald Girouard, Marie Cyr, Francis Wada and Maureen Sullivan.

Pray for all who live in the Holy land, that God might bring peace to that troubled land.

Join us in praying for those who have died recently. Pray for their families, as well, that they may be consoled by the promises of Christ.

If you know someone who needs prayers, call the rectory or email office@stceciliachurch.net and we will add them to our prayer list for the next several weeks.

The Lenten Food Drive is off to a great start due to the generosity of the parishioners of Saint Cecilia's. Catholic Charities is extremely grateful.

Next weekend we will be collecting: canned fruits, canned juice, bars of soap, cereal (boxed or instant), pancake mix, Bisquick, and maple syrup.

Wednesday Lenten Soup Suppers
Serving 4pm - 7pm

This week - Hearty Hamburg Soup

Free will offerings will be accepted for the benefit of the St. Vincent de Paul

We will continue learning more about our Catholic faith by taking a closer look at Isaiah. The book of Isaiah gives prophetic witness to the complex study of God's judgment against Israel and the enduring promise of divine redemption. Isaiah continues to enrich readers with its powerful condemnation of corruption and an uncompromising call for social justice. We will begin this study on Thursday, February 29th from 9:30 to 11:00am in the Parish Center. If you would like to join us, please call Pat Secino at the Rectory 978-537-6541.

Last Weekend's Parish Collections totalled $8,115.

thank you!

RITE OF ELECTION

Last Sunday Marco Jimenez, who has been preparing to be Baptized, Confirmed and receive First Communion at the Easter Vigil and Noah Albert, who will be received into the Church and receive the Sacraments at the Easter Vigil, were blessed and chosen by Bishop McManus during the Rite of Election at Saint Paul's Cathedral. They were blessed and sent by Monsignor at the 11:15am Mass. Please keep Marco and Noah in your prayers as they enter their final period of preparation to receive the Easter Sacraments.

A NEW SACRARIUM

Thanks to the consummate wood-working skills of Denis Leger, our sacrarium has a beautiful new wooden cover, suitable to its sacred purpose. What is a sacrarium?

The sacrarium is a special sink in the sacristy which is used for the reverent disposal of sacred liquids. It has a cover and a special pipe and drain that empty directly into the earth, rather than into the sewer system. Since about the 9th century, the sacrarium has been used for the disposal of holy water, the water used to purify the chalice and clean stocks of holy oils and other sacred vessels. It is also used to “pre-rinse” linens which have come into contact with the Holy Eucharist.

My dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

For more than a half century, the Collection for the Church in Latin America has been a sign of the solidarity of the Church in the United States with the Church in Latin America and the Caribbean.

The countries of South America have diverse populations from Indigenous, African, European, and Asian ancestries, all with different cultural experiences. By welcoming and understanding people from so many backgrounds, the Church grows and continues its mission of making disciples of all peoples. In Brazil, the Brazilian Bishops' Conference organized visits and meetings to engage Afro-Brazilian Catholic leaders in discussing a variety of themes, including social pastoral ministry and the vision of Pope Francis. In Peru, missionaries working in the Peruvian Amazon bring the Gospel to the Ashaninka and Matsigenka communities of about 60,000 people.

Such encounters and engagement with the peoples of South America are made possible when Catholics in our diocese are generous to the Collection for the Church in Latin America. Your participation in the collection truly becomes a way to share your faith and support evangelization efforts among all peoples.

A significant portion of this collection is also used to assist in the ongoing efforts of our local Diocesan Hispanic Ministry, which serves the large number of Hispanic and Latino Catholics who are now in the Diocese of Worcester. It is gratifying to see the life of faith flourishing in these parish communities as their faith life enriches us all.

I encourage you to respond to the national theme to "Share your Faith" by supporting the special Collection for the Church in Latin America on the weekend of February 25. Please be assured of my appreciation for your generous response.

With every prayerful best wish, I remain,

+ Robert J. McManus

Most Reverend Robert J. McManus
Bishop of Worcester

A Help Button Should Go Where You Go!

To be truly independent,
your personal emergency device needs to work on the go.

MobileHelp® allows you to summon emergency help 24 hours a day, 7 days a week by simply pressing your personal help button. Unlike traditional systems that only work inside your home, a MobileHelp medical alert system extends help beyond the home. Now you can participate in all your favorite activities such as gardening, taking walks, shopping and traveling all with the peace of mind of having a personal alert system with you. MobileHelp, the "on-the-go" help button, is powered by one of the nation's largest cellular networks, so there's virtually no limit to your help button's range.

No landline? No problem! While traditional alert systems require a landline, with the MobileHelp system, a landline is not necessary.
Whether you are home or away from home, a simple press of your help button activates your system, providing the central station with your information and location. Our trained emergency operators will know who you are and where you are located. If you're one of the millions of people that have waited for an alert service because it didn't fit your lifestyle, or settled for a traditional system even though it only worked in the home, then we welcome you to try MobileHelp. Experience peace of mind in the home or on the go.
