Installation of the Ladies of Saint Anne

WITH THE HELP OF SAINT CECILIA PASTORAL REFLECTIONS

Pope Leo XIV spoke by video to the youth of our country last week, and his words were so touching that I wanted to share them with you in the place of my column this week. We are so blessed by our Holy Father. Please keep him in your prayers!

Dear young people,

As you have grow up, you may realize, especially having lived through the time of the pandemic - times of isolation, great difficulty, sometimes even difficulties in your families, or in our world today. Sometimes it may be that the context of your life has not given you the opportunity to live the faith, to live as participants in a faith community, and I'd like to take this opportunity to invite each one of you to look into your own hearts, to recognize that God is present and that, perhaps in many different ways, God is reaching out to you, calling you, inviting you to know his Son Jesus Christ, through the Scriptures, perhaps through a friend or a relative... a grandparent, who might be a person of faith. But to discover how important it is for each one of us to pay attention to the presence of God in our own hearts, to that longing for love in our lives, for ... searching, a true searching, for finding the ways that we may be able to do something with our own lives to serve others.

And in that service to others we may find that coming together in friendship, building up community, we too can find true meaning in our lives. Moments of anxiety, of loneliness. So many people who suffer from different experiences of depression or sadness - they can discover that the love of God is truly healing, that it brings hope, and that actually, coming together as friends, as brothers and sisters, in community, in a parish, in an experience of living our faith together, we can find that the Lord's grace, that the love of God can truly heal us, can give us the strength that we need, can be the source of that hope that we all need in our lives.

To share that message of hope with one another - in outreach, in service, in looking for ways to make our world a better place - gives true life to all of us, and is a sign of hope for the whole world. You are the promise of hope for so many of us. The world looks to you as you look around yourselves and say: we need you, we want you to come together to share with us in this common mission, as Church and in society, of announcing a message of true hope and of promoting peace, promoting harmony, among all peoples. We have to look beyond our own - if you will - egotistical ways. We have to look for ways of coming together and promoting a message of hope. Saint Augustine says to us that if we want the world to be a better place, we have to begin with ourselves, we have to begin with our own lives, our own hearts.¹

And so, in this sense, as you gather together as a faith community, as you celebrate in the Archdiocese of Chicago, as you offer your own experience of joy and of hope, you can find out, you can discover that you, too, are indeed beacons of hope. That light, that perhaps on the horizon is not very easy to see, and yet, as we grow in our unity, as we come together in communion, we can discover that that light will grow brighter and brighter. That light which is indeed our faith in Jesus Christ. And we can become that message of hope, to promote peace and unity throughout our world.

We all live with many questions in our hearts. Saint Augustine speaks so often of our “restless” hearts and says: “our hearts are restless until they rest in you, O God.”² That restlessness is not a bad thing, and we shouldn’t look for ways to put out the fire, to eliminate or even numb ourselves to the tensions that we feel, the difficulties that we experience. We should rather get in touch with our own hearts and recognize that God can work in our lives, through our lives, and through us reach out to other people.

So I would like to invite all of you to take a moment, to open up your own hearts to God, to God’s love, to that peace which only the Lord can give us. To feel how deeply beautiful, how strong, how meaningful the love of God is in our lives. And to recognize that while we do nothing to earn God’s love, God in his own generosity continues to pour out his love upon us. And as he gives us his love, he only asks us to be generous and to share what he has given us with others.

May you indeed be blessed as you gather together for this celebration. May the Lord’s love and peace come upon each and every one of you, upon your families, and may God bless all of you, so that you might always be beacons of hope, a sign of hope and peace throughout our world.

REFLECTIONS ON THE COLLECT

BY DANIEL MORRISSEY

Dear brothers and sisters,

In the weeks that follow during my stay with you, I will be sharing with you some short reflections to prayerfully ponder. I was inspired to write reflections on the 'Collect' prayer (pronounced KOL-ekt) which is the opening prayer that the priest prays at Mass. It's an important prayer because within it we, along with the priest, ask God for a particular grace for the day. I don't know about you, but I want to know what we are praying for!

What is the Collect this week? I encourage you to open your missalette to where it's written for this Sunday or listen as the Priest prays it after the Gloria. Careful you don't miss it because it happens quickly! This Sunday is the Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ where our attention is directed to Christ Jesus, truly present in the Eucharist. In the Collect we ask for the grace to revere the sacred mysteries of His Body and Blood truly made present there. According to the Merriam Webster Dictionary, to revere something means to show devotedness or to show that something is worthy of great honor. The grace we are asking for is to revere Christ Jesus present in the Eucharist. As Catholics we believe that God is really present in the Eucharist. His presence isn't figurative or symbolic. It's for real! God is really there in the tabernacle before we begin Mass, He is really there on the altar after the priest prays the words of consecration and it is really him that you receive into your body and soul at Communion ~~time~~. While we may already know this ~~already~~, but today we pray ~~again~~ for the grace to have our knowledge of his Presence in the Eucharist renewed and deepened.

Who is he in the Eucharist? He is Father, Son and Holy Spirit; the Almighty and Eternal God; the giver of all life who knows each one of us by name; Jesus Christ, true God and true man. It is his dead and Resurrected Body, Blood, Soul and Divinity; the One who has laid down his life for you and for all as our Savior and Redeemer; He is the Lover and we the beloved; it's he who wishes and longs to unite himself to us and bring us into Communion with him. This is who is before us and comes to dwell within us at Communion ~~time~~. Let us take some time this week to take that all in. How can we revere such a presence? By acknowledging who he really is before us. By turning our minds and hearts to his Eucharistic presence in silent prayer before and after Mass to speak and be spoken to by him. By uniting our very hearts and lives to His Sacrifice at the Mass. And by receiving him anew with pure hearts cleansed by true contrition and the Sacrament of Reconciliation.

And the Collect doesn't end there! If we but revere him in these Sacred Mysteries, God in his goodness wishes to bless our efforts by having us experience in ourselves the fruits of his redemption. What are some of these fruits? God's Fatherly love, mercy, grace, his very life and Spirit dwelling within your heart. And with the indwelling of the Holy Spirit come the fruits of the Spirit: charity, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, generosity, gentleness, faithfulness, modesty, self-control and chastity. All this can be experienced if we seek to love him in the Eucharist. The word Eucharist means thanksgiving; let us give renewed thanks to God for His Eucharistic presence among us!

The presidents of the Serra Clubs of Northern and Southern Worcester County pose with Bishop McManus during their annual Bishop's night celebration here at Saint Cecilia's last week. Over a hundred members gathered with the seminarians of the Diocese for a Mass with the Bishop and a religious meal (including this incredible cake!).

BISHOP MCMANUS ENCOURAGES YOU TO DONATE TO NEXT WEEK'S PETER'S PENCE COLLECTION

My dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

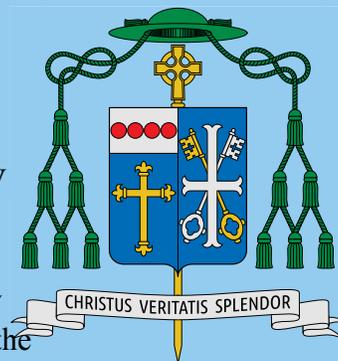

On the weekend of June 29, the Solemnity of Saints Peter and Paul, our diocese will participate in the global Peter's Pence Collection. This annual collection provides essential support for the Holy See's activities and helps Pope Leo XIV assist the victims of war, oppression, and natural disaster around the world.

This tangible expression of unity with the Holy Father has a dual purpose set by the Holy See: to support the Holy Father's mission, which extends throughout the entire world, from the proclamation of the Gospel to the promotion of integral human development, education, peace, and brotherhood among peoples: thanks also to the many activities of service carried out by the dicasteries, bodies and organs of the Holy See that assist him every day. It also supports the numerous charitable works assisting people and families in difficulty, populations afflicted by natural disasters and wars, or who are in need of humanitarian assistance or support for development.

I invite you to join with our brothers and sisters in faith from around the globe to help our Holy Father in his charitable outreach. Thank you for considering how you can respond to the call to "be a sign of mercy" by your prayers, by your spreading the word about this good work, and by your financial support.

Sincerely your in Christ,

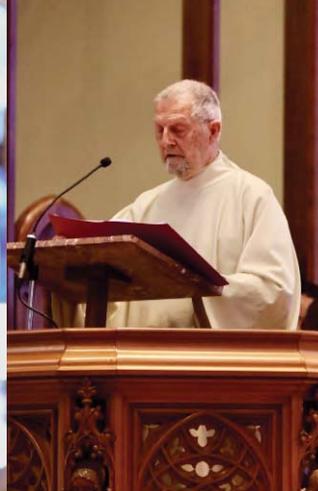

Most Reverend Robert J. McManus
Bishop of Worcester

Grant us, O Lord, we pray, that we may participate worthily in these mysteries, for whenever the memorial of this sacrifice is celebrated the work of our redemption is accomplished.
Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

“They all ate and were satisfied. Do not think that your gift is too small or insignificant! Each of us has a role in God's plan; you just need to place your trust in the Lord. Nothing is impossible with God. You just may be the answer to someone else's prayer.

WHERE IT ALL BEGAN!

A few interesting building notes: St. Cecilia church is built with structural steel making it fire-proof. There is only a basement under the sacristy and chapel, while under the main body of the church there is a series of tunnels to access the plumbing of the church. The height of the ceiling from the main floor is 82 feet (Notre Dame is 115 feet). The tallest steeple is 227 feet (Notre Dame is 226 feet). St. Cecilia's Church originally had a seating capacity of 1,500 but was reduced to 1,200 during subsequent renovations, making it the largest in the diocese. The floor is 18 inches higher in the rear of the church than at the sanctuary to allow unobstructed views.

St. Teresa of Calcutta said, "If you can't feed a hundred people, then feed just one," and "Spread love everywhere you go." Will you help us spread LOVE?

Our parish is in a rotation with other groups in the community to provide meals throughout the year to the North Star Family Services (NSFS) homeless shelter located at the corner of Main St. and Tolman Ave. in Leominster. We provide a week of meals four times a year. When a family comes to them, they anticipate their stay could be as long as 6 months. Their goal is to educate and support families through wellness and skill building trainings and break the cycle of homelessness.

Would you like to help by providing a meal a couple times during the year? Maybe you aren't a cook but could help on Tuesday evenings to play and supervise the children from 6:30-7:30P while trainings are provided to the parents. Want more information on how to get involved? Reach out to Paula at 978.990.0425 or doucetjp1982@gmail.com or at work 978.537.5596 or pd@stceciliachurch.net

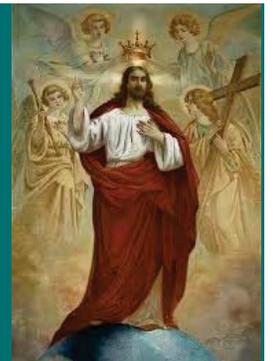

All are invited to attend an evening of prayer in honor of "Jesus King of All Nations" at St. Bernard's Parish at St. Camillus Church located at 333 Mechanic Street in Fitchburg on Wednesday, June 25, 2025.

Holy Mass commences at 6pm, prayers and veneration of the image of "Jesus King of All Nations", will be after Mass.

Religious items will be available for purchase and a free will offering would be appreciated.

A Petition Basket will be placed before the image of Jesus. For more information, please contact Marline at 978-400-6068.
