A Roman Catholic Church

OCTOBER 2, 2022

TWENTY-SEVENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

*The community of Queen of All Saints is committed to Christ, sharing God's gifts and building the Church together,
through word, worship and service.*

FROM FATHER SIMON

Last weekend, drawing inspiration from the Gospel, I highlighted the activities of our parish Outreach Commission. This weekend we hear the prophet Habakkuk lament to God: "Why do you let me see ruin; why must I look at misery? Destruction and violence are before me; there is strife and clamorous discord." A lot of people in the world today could make the same cry. Closer to home, the situation is not so drastic. Perhaps, in some ways, some have never had it so good.

Yet, as individuals, from time to time, the wrestle with God continues. "Why? Why me? And after all the effort I have made to be good!" The puzzled questioning often arises spontaneously in the minds of people diagnosed with a terminal illness and those who love them. The insistence of the questioning passes with time, but only because other agendas take center stage. For many, the question remains unanswered.

I think it is essential that we respect the deep questions of those confronted with suffering and death – whether it's their own or those in their care. In my limited experience of people dying, most people I have known have passed peacefully. Sometimes their peace may have been due to their loss of energy. Others see the grace of God at work. In my observation, one important factor is the presence around them of those who love them. The experience of being loved, respected, and treated as important is mysteriously comforting, reassuring, and a natural source of acceptance and peace.

Of the gifts of prayer and other assistance we may provide to the sick and the homebound, there is no greater and better gift than the gift of Christ himself. Our Ministers of Care bring the Eucharist to the sick and the homebound twice a month. If you are drawn to this ministry, please don't hesitate to contact Erika Tate, our Director of Faith Formation, to learn more about this ministry and the solace you will bring to those you serve.

On a personal note: Every five years, priests in the Archdiocese of Chicago go through a review process to help us become better priests and pastoral ministers. For more information about this process, please see the letter from Bishop Bartosic on the next page. My last review was in 2016, when I was an associate. The results from that survey helped me grow as a person and minister. Since then, my role has changed, and my responsibilities have expanded.

It is time for my review, and I invite you to participate in this year's review process. To do so, please take a few minutes to complete the review process survey. You can access the survey by typing the following link: <https://www.surveymonkey.com/r/English-2022>. You can also access the survey from our parish website, should that be more convenient.

Your participation and honest review will contribute to my ongoing growth as a person and minister and will be much appreciated.

Blessings!!

ARCHDIOCESE OF CHICAGO

Most Reverend Mark A. Bartosic
Auxiliary Bishop of Chicago
Episcopal Vicar — Vicariate II

1641 West Diversey Parkway
Chicago, IL 60614 773-388.8670 fax: 773-388.8676 mbartosic@archchicago.org

Dear Parishioners,

Your pastor, Fr. Braganza, will soon be participating in the Catholic Leadership 360 Review process. This review process is part of the ordinary structure required by Archdiocesan Policy of every diocesan priest approximately every five years. It is an opportunity for Fr. Braganza to recognize his talents and to grow to become a better priest and pastoral minister. Selected members of the parish staff and parish leadership, your Dean, and myself will be asked to be reviewers using this instrument.

According to Archdiocesan policies lay leadership and parishioners are to be given the opportunity to recognize Fr. Braganza's gifts and to share their sentiments about his ministry. So, we are providing a parish-wide survey as part of his review process. The survey can be easily accessed by going to the Archdiocese's web page (<https://www.archchicago.org/>) and clicking on Offices and Ministries on the top panel. This will bring you to an alphabetical listing of offices. Under 'M', select Ministerial Resources for Parishes. You will then be directed to the Ministerial Resources for Parishes webpage. In the middle of the page, you will find "Parish-wide survey review for priests". The survey is available in English, Spanish, and Polish. Please click on the word 'Link' next to your appropriate language to access the survey.

If you have any concerns or comments pertaining to Father's review, feel free to contact me directly. If you have any further questions or suggestions about the review process you may contact Fr. Bob Heidenreich, Coordinator of Ministerial Review and Priests Programs, by email (rheidenreich@archchicago.org) or by phone at the Priests' Placement Office (312-534-5058).

When the Catholic Leadership 360 Review process has been completed Fr. Braganza will be asked to share the insights he has received and his further developmental plans with you in the parish bulletin and on the parish web site.

Thank you in advance for your willingness to participate and provide constructive information.

Sincerely yours,

Most Reverend Bishop Mark A. Bartosic
Auxiliary Bishop of Chicago
Episcopal Vicar — Vicariate II

EUCCHARISTIC MINISTERS NEEDED

As Mass attendance continues to increase, we are in need of many new ministers to distribute Holy Communion to the people of God. Jesus took, blessed and broke bread at the Last Supper. He feeds us who hunger with his Body and Blood. Just as he instructed his apostles to do the same, so the Church entrusts the Body and Blood of Christ to ministers, who then give them to the faithful.

Eucharistic ministers are not scheduled. You simply sign up for a station at whatever Mass you happen to be attending. This ministry is open to all baptized Catholics in good standing, high school age and older.

To get started, you need to attend one of the training and formation sessions below. Choose from one of the following: Tuesday, October 11th, 4:00pm, Thursday, October 13th, 7:00pm, Saturday, October 15th, 11:15am.

Again, you only need to attend one training session. Please consider serving in this important ministry. If you have questions, please contact Paul at paul.scavone@qasparish.org.

ST. DYMPHNA SOCIETY MEETING

St. Dymphna is the patroness of persons with mental and nervous disorders. Our Society promotes the devotion to her so that she may heal and cure those with these disorders through her intercession.

All are invited to attend our meeting on Wednesday, October 19th at 7pm in the Benedict Center, 2nd floor (located at 6275 N. Ionia. Please use the rear entrance).

We will have St. Dymphna literature, including prayer cards available and we will share and discuss mental and nervous disorders. Light refreshments will be served. Questions, contact Theresa Marie Weber at 773-558-8222.

QAS Bereavement Support Group

Grief is the experience of loss. As human beings we form attachments, and when these attachments end or are broken we may feel shock, sadness, loneliness, anger, guilt or betrayal. These feelings are normal, a part of human existence, yet so painful. We all grieve in our own personal way, but we need not grieve alone. Healing is an active process that requires emotional, physical, intellectual and spiritual energy. Others who are grieving are on a similar journey, and we can all be uplifted by journeying together. We are grace-filled when we open ourselves to the support of fellow travelers.

RCIA

What is RCIA?

R.C.I.A. (Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults) is a process whereby those interested in learning about the Catholic faith come together on a weekly basis to learn about the scriptures and the teachings of the Roman Catholic Church, and at the same time, to discover where God is present in their lives. A team of people from Queen of All Saints guides the entire RCIA journey. Each member has a sponsor that accompanies them. A sponsor can be provided if desired. The whole community prays for and with those who are preparing for initiation.

Is RCIA right for you?

- Are you thinking about becoming Catholic? Are you curious about Jesus Christ?
- Do you want to complete your Sacraments of Initiation (First Communion and/or confirmation)?
- Have you been away from the church for a while and are now thinking about returning?
- Were you baptized in another Christian denomination?
- Have you never been baptized?
- Do you want to join your children, spouse, partner, friends, and family members when they receive communion?

RCIA is open to anyone interested and desiring to grow in a relationship with Jesus Christ. Whether you are baptized or not, Catholic or not, religious or not, all are invited to these sessions to learn more about Jesus and the Church.

STEWARDSHIP

OUR GIFTS OF TIME, TALENT AND TREASURE

Prayer - Spending Time with God

Stewardship involves spending time with God. Recognizing that every day is a gift from God, we strive to spend some of each day with God, through prayer, Mass, Eucharistic Adoration, scripture reading, quiet, meditation and other spiritual activities. During this time we ask God how he wants us to use the gifts he has given to us.

Participation - Sharing Talent

Stewardship involves sharing talent. Recognizing that God has given each individual unique skills and talents so that together we can do the work of our Lord, we strive to share our own talents and to encourage and welcome others to also use their talents to participate in the mission and ministry of the church.

Proportionate Giving

Stewardship calls us to realize that each of us is called to give as God has given to us. We no longer base our giving on what others are giving. We no longer excuse ourselves from giving because we do not see others giving. Rather we give in proportion to all that God has given to us.

Our parish is our family in faith, and like any good family we are called to be present for each other.

*We support each other in
our shared worship,
in our shared prayers,
and in our shared experiences.*

TODAY'S READINGS

"For God did not give us a spirit of cowardice but rather of power and love and self-control."

- 2 Timothy 1:7

Many of us compartmentalize our faith, we bring it out only when we attend Mass or when we attend a parish event. Being a good steward requires discipline and striving to put God first in everything - all the time.

The next time you are at a neighborhood party or at work or out shopping, would your words and actions signal to others that you are a good and faithful servant of our Lord?

If you are a registered parishioner, please come to the rectory during business hours to schedule your child's baptism, or visit our website for our baptism dates and the baptism registration form. The sacrament of baptism for infants is celebrated on Sundays. A baptismal preparation class for the parents is required. Please contact the rectory with any questions or for further details. If an adult or a school age child seeks baptism, special arrangements should be made with one of the priests.

The Sacrament of Matrimony

Queen of All Saints helps couples prepare not only for their wedding day, but also for the lifelong commitment of living a Christian marriage. Parishioners of Queen of All Saints Basilica who are baptized and free to marry in the Catholic Church may celebrate their marriage in Queen of All Saints Basilica. Couples from Queen of All Saints seeking marriage in Queen of All Saints Basilica should contact one of the parish priests at least six months prior to their intended date of marriage. The couple must meet with one of the priests before the date for the marriage can be confirmed.

Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick

The sacrament of the anointing of the sick is not just a sacrament for those who are at the point of death. As soon as one of the faithful begins to be in danger of death from sickness or old age, the fitting time for him or her to receive this sacrament has certainly already arrived. Therefore, any member of the faithful who is seriously ill because of sickness or advanced age may properly receive this sacrament.
