

QUEEN OF ALL SAINTS BASILICA

A Roman Catholic Church

OCTOBER 9, 2022

TWENTY-EIGHTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

*The community of Queen of All Saints is committed to Christ, sharing God's gifts and building the Church together,
through word, worship and service.*

FROM FATHER SIMON

Every language in the world has a way of saying "thank you." This is because gratitude is an inherent quality that resides within each human being and is triggered and expressed spontaneously in various contexts. Gratitude crosses all boundaries—creed, age, vocation, gender, and nation—and is emphasized by all the great religious traditions.

Gratitude is a feeling that spontaneously emerges from within. However, it is not simply an emotional response. It is also a choice we make. We can choose to be grateful, or we can choose to be ungrateful and take our gifts and blessings for granted.

This weekend we hear the familiar gospel of the ten lepers who were healed. Although ten were cleansed of their leprosy, only one chose to return to give thanks to God. St. Paul tells us we should give thanks in all circumstances and for all things. We thank him for our being, the created world we live in; for the food we eat and the air we breathe; for our family and friends, our occupation, our health, those we live with, our country, and its relative peace and prosperity. We thank him for special moments of grace, the inspiration of a good example, and the sources of encouragement, consolation, and joy that come our way.

And we are here now because we know that the best way to express our thanks to God for all his gifts is through participation in the Holy Eucharist. The Greek word Luke uses for the leper's thanksgiving in today's story is "eucharistein." Here is made present Christ's self-gift to the end: his body offered for us in sacrifice, and his blood poured out for us. Here Jesus gives us himself, not in part but wholly. He gives not, of course, craving our gratitude, but freely, simply, out of love. Yet we are the ones who will benefit if we receive him with open hearts and minds; if we notice what he has done for us and return due thanks. With that attitude of mind, we will truly live the Eucharist and receive the life, blessing, health, and holiness Jesus wants to give us.

This past Sunday, Cardinal Cupich recognized and honored several laypersons in the Archdiocese of Chicago with the Christifidelis award. This award is bestowed upon individual Catholic laypersons who, through their participation in parish life, demonstrate their calling and commitment to responsibility for the church's life springing from the gift and mission of their baptism.

Among those receiving the Christifidelis award this year is one of our parishioners, David Kennedy. Dave is a longtime parishioner, father of four children, each of whom attended QAS School and is actively involved in the QAS Choir and Men's Club. Also, for the past few years, Dave has been leading the efforts of our Share Christmas Program and the parish's St. Vincent de Paul Ministry. Dave's actions, along with those of others, have extended the generosity of many of our parishioners to others both within and outside of the boundaries of our parish, bringing joy to families during the holidays and hope to many struggling to make ends meet. Following the message of today's gospel, please join me in expressing my gratitude by saying thanks to David for his contribution to the life and ministry of our parish.

Blessings!!

PARISH NEWS

A NOTE FROM FR. SIMON. . .

Every five years, priests in the Archdiocese of Chicago go through a review process to help us become better priests and pastoral ministers. My last review was in 2016, when I was an associate. The results from that survey helped me grow as a person and minister. Since then, my role has changed, and my responsibilities have expanded.

It is time for my review, and I invite you to participate in this year's review process. To do so, please take a few minutes to complete the review process survey. You can access the survey by typing the following link: <https://www.surveymonkey.com/r/English-2022>. You can also access the survey from our parish website, or by using the QR code to the right.

Your participation and honest review will contribute to my ongoing growth as a person and minister and will be much appreciated.

EUCCHARISTIC MINISTERS NEEDED

As Mass attendance continues to increase, we are in need of many new ministers to distribute Holy Communion to the people of God. Jesus took, blessed and broke bread at the Last Supper. He feeds us who hunger with his Body and Blood. Just as he instructed his apostles to do the same, so the church entrusts the Body and Blood of Christ to ministers, who then give them to the faithful.

Eucharistic ministers are not scheduled. You simply sign up for a station at whichever Mass you happen to be attending. This ministry is open to all baptized Catholics in good standing, high school age and older.

To get started, you need to attend one of the training and formation sessions below. Choose from one of the following: Tuesday, October 11th, 4pm, Thursday, October 13th, 7pm, Saturday, October 15th, 11:15am.

Again, you only need to attend one training session. Please consider serving in this important ministry. If you have questions, please contact Paul at paul.scavone@qasparish.org.

WOMEN'S GUILD MAHJONG

We have free lessons and playing time every Wednesday from 7pm to 9pm in the Parish Center beginning October 19. Enter through the north side of the Lemont school building. Note the change in location and day. Refreshments, snacks, and game boards will be provided! Questions? Contact Mary Asnis at 773-458-5990.

WIDOWED GROUP

All widowed men and women are welcome to join the QAS Widowed Group.

Our next lunch on October 13 at 2pm is at Emma's Bagels located at 9306 Skokie Blvd., Skokie. This was the earliest available time for a group. Please RSVP no later than October 3rd.

Please contact Pat Steiner at 773-771-3746 if you will be attending our lunch or if you have questions.

SAVE THE DATE

October 16 - First Grade Family Mass at 9am

MOPPETS & ME COORDINATOR WANTED

The QAS Moppets & Me Ministry is a social play group for children ages 0 to 5 along with their moms, dads, grandparents or babysitters. Currently our group is on hold due to the lack of a coordinator(s). Traditionally the group meets on selected Thursday mornings from 9:30 to 11am, usually twice a month. Toys are provided, volunteers bring snacks to share and parents and tots have a low-key place to build community. Please know that the meeting times and days can be flexible.

If you are interested, contact the rectory at qasoffice@qasparish.org or call us at 773-736-6060.

ST. DYMPHNA SOCIETY MEETING

St. Dymphna is the patroness of persons with mental and nervous disorders. Our Society promotes the devotion to her so that she may heal and cure those with these disorders through her intercession.

All are invited to attend our meeting on Wednesday, October 19th at 7pm in the Benedict Center, 2nd floor (located at 6275 N. Ionia. Please use the rear entrance).

We will have St. Dymphna literature, including prayer cards available and we will share and discuss mental and nervous disorders. Light refreshments will be served. Questions, contact Theresa Marie Weber at 773-558-8222.

RCIA

A JOURNEY OF FAITH RCIA: Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults

What is RCIA?

R.C.I.A. (Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults) is a process whereby those interested in learning about the Catholic faith come together on a weekly basis to learn about the scriptures and the teachings of the Roman Catholic Church and at the same time, to discover where God is present in their lives. A team of people from QAS guides the entire RCIA journey. Each member has a sponsor that accompanies them. A sponsor can be provided if desired. The whole community prays for and with those who are preparing for initiation.

Is RCIA right for you?

- ◆ Are you thinking about becoming Catholic? Are you curious about Jesus Christ?
- ◆ Do you want to complete your Sacraments of Initiation (First Communion and/or confirmation)?
- ◆ Have you been away from the church for a while and are now thinking about returning?
- ◆ Were you baptized in another Christian denomination?
- ◆ Have you never been baptized?
- ◆ Do you want to join your children, spouse, partner, friends, and family members when they receive communion?

RCIA is open to anyone interested and desiring to grow in a relationship with Jesus Christ. Whether you are baptized or not. Catholic or not, religious or not, all are invited to these sessions to learn more about Jesus and the church. For more information contact Erika Tate at etate@qasparish.org.

ELIZABETH MINISTRY KNIT/CROCHET NIGHT

The Elizabeth Ministry will be hosting a “Knit/Crochet Night” in the Benedict Center Fireplace Room the second Thursday of the month. Our first meeting will be on October 13 at 7pm. All women of the parish are welcome!

This is an opportunity for women of the parish to gather and crochet or knit, and find community in our craft ministry. If you do not crochet or knit you are still welcome. Jennie Goodman will provide instruction on knitting to anyone who might need help. We hope to create prayer shawls and blankets. We will then present these to the RCIA candidates, breast cancer patients and newly baptized.

Future Knit/Crochet Nights will take place at 7 pm in the Benedict Center Fireplace Room on the following evenings:

November 10, 2022
December 8, 2022
January 12, 2023
February 9, 2023

March 9, 2023
April 13, 2023
May 11, 2023

If you have questions or would like more information, contact Elizabeth Keaton at 773-203-1106.

WE REMEMBER THEM

ALL SOULS MEMORIAL MASS

WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 2

7:30PM

On All Souls Day, the Catholic Church commemorates and intercedes for those who have died. We invite the entire parish to remember our dearly departed, especially those who have died in the past year.

Those who have been buried from Queen of All Saints since last October (2021) will be listed in the Parish Book. Their families, as well as those from the community who have attended our Bereavement Support Group will receive an invitation.

During the Mass, your loved one's name will be read aloud and a candle will be lit in their memory as each name is read.

We look forward to sharing this special time with you and your guests.

*Many parishioners have close family members who were not buried from Queen of All Saints. These persons are unknown to us. If you would like the name of an immediate relative to be acknowledged at this November 2nd liturgy, please complete the form below and return it to the rectory by Monday, October 31.

PARISH NEWS

IN MEMORY OF OUR LOVED ONES...

November is the month of All Souls. To remember those who have died this last year Queen of All Saints will create a memorial shrine at the altar of the statue of the Sacred Heart of Jesus. You are invited to bring a framed picture of your beloved deceased family member or friend to be part of the memorial shrine. These pictures will stay up through the entire month of November starting on the feast of All Souls. We hope it will bring comfort to those who have lost their loved ones. Please bring your pictures during the month of October to Mass and set them in the bin in front of the Sacred Heart statue. You may also bring them to the rectory and place them in the bin outside the door.

Requirements for pictures:

- ◆ Framed 5x7 (or smaller) picture of the deceased person (group pictures will not be included)
- ◆ The name of the deceased person, your name, and your telephone number written clearly on the back of the picture frame

For questions contact Erika Tate at etate@qasparish.org.

QAS Bereavement Support Group

Grief is the experience of loss. As human beings we form attachments, and when these attachments end or are broken we may feel shock, sadness, loneliness, anger, guilt or betrayal. These feelings are normal, a part of human existence, yet so painful. We all grieve in our own personal way, but we need not grieve alone. Healing is an active process that requires emotional, physical, intellectual and spiritual energy. Others who are grieving are on a similar journey, and we can all be uplifted by journeying together. We are grace-filled when we open ourselves to the support of fellow travelers.

Sunday, October 23, 2022

1:30 - 3:30pm

STEWARDSHIP

OUR MOST IMPORTANT GIFT

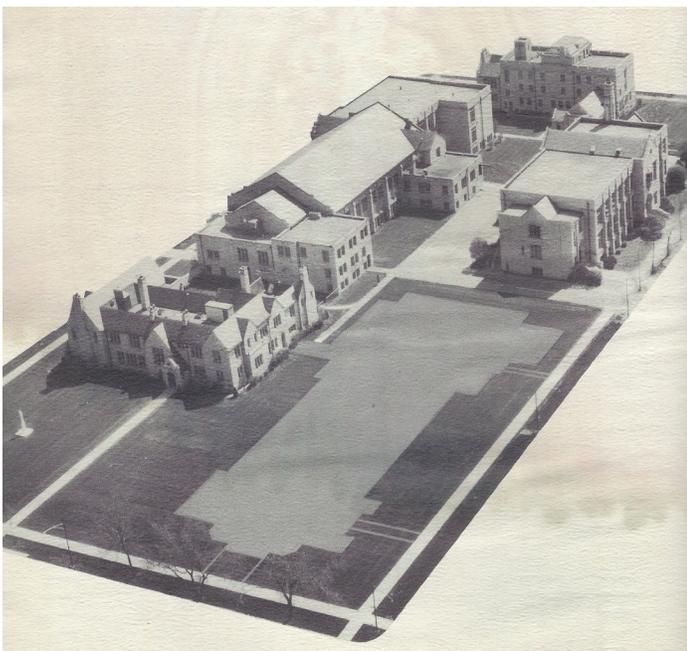

Here is how our parish campus looked in 1955, when all our buildings had been erected except for the new church. Then, as now, all those other buildings were in heavy use as important parts of a healthy and vibrant parish, including squeezing Masses into multiple cramped spaces in the Keene and Lemont buildings. Solving that situation was the final piece and crowning glory of our parish's early years.

We talk about the stewardship of time, talent and treasure, and on this page we talk a lot about the generosity of treasure that has marked our parish from the start and made possible the magnificent basilica completed in 1959 where you received this bulletin.

Let us, the bulletin readers, continue to spread the word about our Catholic obligation to attend Mass, to be physically present in this sacred space, together with our fellow parishioners, in shared worship.

Let's remind our friends, family and neighbors that our parish gathers together as one to celebrate the Eucharist and that our experience in the presence of Christ is a privilege that can be enjoyed continually throughout the year.

Let's all be together at Mass, now more than ever.

TODAY'S READINGS

"Has none but this foreigner returned to give thanks to God?"
- Luke 17:18

Most of us live relatively "easy" lives. We have food, shelter, clothing and money. We go on vacation every year and own a car or two. Most of us take this all for granted.

Did you ever notice that people with the least amount of possessions are usually the most grateful? Shouldn't this be the other way around? Take time every day and thank God for all he has given you and discern how he is calling you to share your gifts.

The Sacrament of Reconciliation

Saturday.....After the 8:00am Mass until all are heard

The Sacrament of Baptism

Queen of All Saints rejoices in the incorporation of new members into the Body of Christ through the sacrament of baptism. If you are a registered parishioner, please come to the rectory during business hours to schedule your child's baptism, or visit our website for our baptism dates and the baptism registration form. The sacrament of baptism for infants is celebrated on Sundays. A baptismal preparation class for the parents is required. Please contact the rectory with any questions or for further details. If an adult or a school age child seeks baptism, special arrangements should be made with one of the priests.

The Sacrament of Matrimony

Queen of All Saints helps couples prepare not only for their wedding day, but also for the lifelong commitment of living a Christian marriage. Parishioners of Queen of All Saints Basilica who are baptized and free to marry in the Catholic Church may celebrate their marriage in Queen of All Saints Basilica. Couples from Queen of All Saints seeking marriage in Queen of All Saints Basilica should contact one of the parish priests at least six months prior to their intended date of marriage. The couple must meet with one of the priests before the date for the marriage can be confirmed.

Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick

The sacrament of the anointing of the sick is not just a sacrament for those who are at the point of death. As soon as one of the faithful begins to be in danger of death from sickness or old age, the fitting time for him or her to receive this sacrament has certainly already arrived. Therefore, any member of the faithful who is seriously ill because of sickness or advanced age may properly receive this sacrament.
