THIS WEEK'S BULLETIN

A Letter from Fr. Simon

Back in the day, when I made my First Communion, the date depended on the availability of the bishop. I received my First Communion and confirmation on October 24. Here at Queen of All Saints, First Communion and confirmation usually take place in the spring. Have you ever wondered why it is so?

Stewardship & Ways to Donate

Stewardship - A Time to Provide for Our future - This is the first week of May, the month in which the earth springs into bloom (at least in Chicago) and we start thinking about planting gardens, family picnics and making vacation plans. It's also the Month of Mary, the Queen of All Saints, the patroness of our parish...CONTINUE.

Ways to Donate - There are many ways to donate to Queen of All Saints, the simplest is to bring your envelope to Mass. For other ways to contribute, click HERE.
