From the Pastor's Desk: Divine Mercy Sunday

This Sunday, April 7, is Divine Mercy Sunday. Mercy comes from the Latin word "misere," which means "misery" or "need," and from misericordia with "cor, cordis," which signifies "heart," and "ia," which expresses "towards others." In Hebrew, the word for mercy is "rehamîm," which figuratively means "bowels" and conveys a deep, intimate, and loving feeling that binds two people together. Mercy is the quality of God that allows us to receive forgiveness for our sins, no matter how great our sins may be. God loves us all and wants us to acknowledge that His mercy is greater than our sins, so that we may approach Him with confidence, receive His Mercy, and let it overflow onto others. In short, we should ask for His mercy, be merciful, and trust completely in Jesus.

The Supreme Pontiff, St. John Paul II, defined indulgences as follows: A plenary indulgence is granted, under the usual conditions of sacramental confession, Eucharistic communion, and prayer for the intentions of the Supreme Pontiff, to the faithful who, on the Second Sunday of Easter, known as Divine Mercy Sunday, participate in acts of piety performed in honor of Divine Mercy or at least recite prayers in the presence of the Most Blessed Sacrament of the Eucharist, publicly exposed or reserved in the tabernacle. PLEASE JOIN US AT 2:30PM THIS SUNDAY FOR EXPOSITION OF THE BLESSED SACRAMENT AND THE SACRAMENT OF CONFESSION.

Desde el Escritorio del Pastor : Domingo de la Divina Misericordia

Este domingo, 7 de abril, es el Domingo de la Divina Misericordia. La misericordia proviene de la palabra latina "misere," que significa "miseria" o "necesidad," y de misericordia con "cor, cordis," que significa "corazón," y "ia," que expresa "hacia los demás." En hebreo, la palabra para misericordia es "rehamîm," que figurativamente significa "entrañas" y transmite un sentimiento profundo, íntimo y amoroso que une a dos personas. La misericordia es la cualidad de Dios que nos permite recibir perdón por nuestros pecados, sin importar cuán grandes sean. Dios nos ama a todos y quiere que reconozcamos que Su misericordia es mayor que nuestros pecados, para que podamos acercarnos a Él con confianza, recibir Su misericordia y dejar que se desborde hacia los demás. En resumen, debemos pedir Su misericordia, ser misericordiosos y confiar completamente en Jesús.

El Sumo Pontífice, San Juan Pablo II, definió las indulgencias de la siguiente manera: Se concede una indulgencia plenaria, bajo las condiciones habituales de confesión sacramental, comunión eucarística y oración por las intenciones del Sumo Pontífice, a los fieles que, el Segundo Domingo de Pascua, conocido como Domingo de la Divina Misericordia, participen en actos de piedad realizados en honor a la Divina Misericordia o al menos reciten oraciones en presencia del Santísimo Sacramento de la Eucaristía, públicamente expuesto o reservado en el sagrario. POR FAVOR, ACOMPÁÑENOS ESTE DOMINGO A LAS 2:30 P. M. PARA LA EXPOSICIÓN DEL SANTÍSIMO SACRAMENTO Y EL SACRAMENTO DE LA CONFESIÓN.
