TWENTY-FOURTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME - SEPTEMBER 11, 2022

Collect

Look upon us, O God, Creator and ruler of all things,
and, that we may feel the working of your mercy,
grant that we may serve you with all our heart.
Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever.

Prayer over the Offerings

Look with favor on our supplications, O Lord, and in your kindness accept these,
your servants' offerings, that what each has offered to the honor of your name may serve the salvation of all.
Through Christ our Lord.

Prayer after Communion

May the working of this heavenly gift, O Lord, we pray, take possession of our minds and bodies, so that its effects, and not our own desires,
may always prevail in us.
Through Christ our Lord.

ONE THE THE LORD'S PRAYER - CONTINUED

What does this relationship require of us?

This relationship with God as Father requires of us a gratitude expressed in humility and a desire to live the new life offered in Christ. (2779-2785)

Whoever humbles himself like this child ... is the greatest in the kingdom of heaven. (Mt 18:4)

Where is God's heaven?

When we pray to "Our Father who art in heaven," we are addressing God in his transcendence. God is the Being from which everything else receives being; he is above all other beings in majesty and power. Heaven is not a place, but the presence of God. We will find our eternal home in him. (2794-2796)

Here we groan, because we long to put on our heavenly dwelling... (2 Cor 5:2)

What does it mean to "hallow"?

When we pray that God's name may be hallowed, we are praying to enter into his holy plan: that by our lives, work, and prayers, his holiness may be recognized and glorified. (2807-2815)

Consecrate yourselves therefore, and be holy, for I am holy. (Lev 11:44)

PARISH ANNOUNCEMENTS

*From the Catholic News Agency
by Courtney Mares, AC Wimmer
Rome Newsroom, Aug 27, 2022 / 08:34 am*

THE DATE IS SET: 'APOSTLE OF THE CATECHISM' TO BE DECLARED A SAINT OF THE CATHOLIC CHURCH

A renowned Italian priest and bishop dedicated to evangelization and teaching the Catechism will be declared a saint of the Catholic Church on Oct. 9, 2022.

At the consistory on Saturday, Cardinal Marcello Semeraro, Prefect of the Dicastery for the Causes of Saints, announced that the pope set Oct. 9 as the date for the canonization of Blessed Giovanni Battista Scalabrini together with Blessed Artemide Zatti. Pope Francis previously approved the canonizations in a degree promulgated on May 21, 2022, with a dispensation from the requirement for a second miracle in the case of Scalabrini.

A native of the Italian region of Lombardy, Scalabrini (1839-1905) was ordained a priest in 1863 and made bishop of Piacenza in 1876.

As bishop, he founded the Missionaries of St. Charles Borromeo (also known as the Scalabrinians). He also created the "Saint Raphael Association", which, like the order he founded, was dedicated to offering pastoral care to migrants leaving Italy at the turn of the 20th century.

Scalabrini was convinced of the need for institutions to accompany the journey of migrants in all its stages, taking care not to abruptly sever cultural ties with the homeland, maintaining the mother tongue as a bond of unity with the other compatriots.

According to a report by ACI Prensa, CNA's Spanish-language partner agency, he also believed that migration could lead to an imbalance between the countries of origin and destination.

Scalabrini is also remembered for founding a diocesan newspaper, for caring for the poor and elderly, for being a promoter of Eucharistic adoration and a protector of correct liturgical chant.

In 1901, he visited his missionaries in the United States and was received at the White House by President Theodore Roosevelt. Pope Pius IX once described Scalabrini as "the apostle of the Catechism."

Speaking to members of the Congregation founded by Scalabrini in October 2018, Pope Francis called on the religious to walk with migrants, following the charism of their founder, by paying attention to the "dignity of the human person, especially where it is most wounded and threatened."
