PASTOR POINTS

Dear Friends,

On the last weekend of the month of September we usually hold our annual Parish Ministry and Organizations Sign Up. As you know from year's past, we gather mem-bers of our parish on our patio to help facilitate the signups after Masses for a particular area of ministry or parish spon-sored organization. This year, with the Covid-19 re-strictions placed on gatherings and congregating, we are not going to be doing the signups in person. However, I would ask you to consider how you might become more involved and offer your particular gift to be of service to our parish family.

What makes a parish a true faith community is certainly the giving of time and talent by many individuals. These gifts are given to be at the service of our faith community. Here at St. Mary's there are so many ways to be involved and to offer your special gifts and abilities. Did you realize that during a normal weekend of scheduled Masses it take nearly 50 people to fill the ministerial roles at the Masses to help us to worship well? These are the liturgical ministries of lectors, Extraordinary ministers of Holy Communion, altar servers, ushers, sacristans; music ministries of choir, cantors, and instrumentalists. That's quite a number of pa-rishioners offering themselves for the good of the entire community each weekend.

This year I encourage you to go to our parish website (www.stmaryschurchstc.com) to review the various minis-tries and organizations, and consider how you might take a more active role here at St. Mary's parish. The web pages contain the descriptions and contacts for these various min-istries and organizations. Please pray that our parish family will continue to build up the kingdom of God by giving of the Time and Talent needed to serve each other well. Please do your part and take part in our parish family's ac-tivities and ministries.

Faithful Disciples Continuing to Build God's Kingdom

This week you will receive a brochure detailing the Faith-ful Disciples Continuing to Build God's Kingdom our parish will be participating in over the next few weeks. This in-formative brochure is intended to communicate the finan-cial needs of our parish and why we are having a dedicated focus on our parish offertory. We encourage all parishion-ers to spend time in prayer and discussion with your fami-ly reflecting on the parish's needs and your current level of giving. We look forward to seeing all of our parishion-ers at Mass next weekend in person or online for this very important Commitment Sunday. If you have any ques-tions regarding the Faithful Disciples Continuing to Build God's Kingdom, please feel free to contact Father Tom or the parish finance office.

Bishop Jeffrey Monforton is inviting all parishioners to attend a "Unite Our Nation" Mass, Eucharistic rosary procession, and Prayer Service, to be held in Steubenville on Saturday, October 3rd.

The events are in union with other Unite Our Nation prayer events held across the country to help bring peace and prayer to local communities and healing to our nation. Events begin at 8:00am with Mass in Finnegan Fieldhouse at Franciscan University of Steubenville. A Eucharistic Rosary Procession will form after the Mass at about 9:00am and proceed from the campus to the front of Holy Name Cathedral, S. Fifth Street. There, an outdoor Interreligious Prayer Service will begin at about 10:45am. Those who do not want to join the procession may attend just the prayer service. The service will include Bishop Monforton, Fr. Dave Pivonka, president of Franciscan University, Rev. Dr. Vaughn Foster, Rev. Ashley Steele of the Urban Mission, and a Franciscan University student.

Steubenville Register News: The Diocese of Steubenville will continue to publish the biweekly version of The Steubenville Register and mail it to every parishioner in the diocese as well as have the electronic version available online on the diocesan website - <https://diosteub.org/the-steubenville-register>. In order to cut the cost of postage, if you only read the paper online and do not want to receive the printed version, please contact Dino Orsatti at dorsatti@diosteub.org or call (740)282-3631, ext. 340 and just say "remove me from the print mailing list." Those who want to continue receiving the printed version do not need to take any action. Thank you readers, for your loyal support!

HAVE YOU PRAYED TODAY?

GOSPEL MEDITATION - ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE September 27th - Twenty-sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time

What prompts you to make the decisions you make? When confronted with a decision, whether one that is more trivial and mundane or one that is more significant and profound, we rely on guidance. That guidance can be the result of impulse and passion or the fruit of the interior voice of conscience. Decisions made on impulse and passion can be misguided and erroneous. Decisions based on conscience, or the moral voice within, will reflect the depth and maturity of our soul work. A more contemplative soul will make more contemplative decisions. A less developed conscience will make decisions based on the individual's level of development.

Conversion and a change of heart are at the core of Jesus' message precisely because of this reality. We are works in progress. For the person on fire with the Holy Spirit and centered on God, life reflects an ever-deepening awareness and heightened sense of God's presence and a greater willingness to do God's will. What is happening internally is validated by what is witnessed externally. The hypocrite is the one who says yes when they really mean no. From the start, they had no desire to do the virtuous act but wanted to outwardly appear as if they did.

Where are you on the road of integrity? Honesty is all that is required. God is good with that. It is okay to struggle with our decisions and wrestle with ourselves. Consciences on the path to maturity and greater depth are not always going to know what action is immediately best. We may, at first, say no to what we know is right and, after prayerful reflection and thought, come around to doing it. Conversion happens when our no changes to yes, regardless of how sinful or out of sync we may be at the time. God is anxious to welcome us to Himself. But we cannot embrace Him unless we want to. Learning to orient our gift of free will to what is of divine origin, right, and best is a discipline we must always tweak and perfect. ©LPi

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP - RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS - Is It the Thought That Counts?

I can remember times when I received a gift that I would not have chosen for myself. At those times I certainly thought to myself that "it was the thought that counts." I was happy that the gift-giver thought of me at all. Then there have been times when my children have not given me a gift and then chose to tell me all about what they were going to give me. They would then follow it up by saying, "it was the thought that really counts." Really!?! I don't think so. I could think of sending my wife on a cruise, but that is not in any way the same as going on the cruise. I think there are times when all of us think we are more generous than we are, simply because we were thinking about being generous.

This way of thinking can be dangerous. Jesus teaches us to say what we mean and mean what we say. The intentionality of our actions is important, but intentionality without action is meaningless. How we act and what we give serves as evidence of our intentions and indicates where our heart truly lies. If we fool ourselves into thinking we are someone we are not, it can become difficult to see the truth. We need to look for the fruit in our lives. We need to make sure our desires and thoughts are moving us to act. You know that other saying about intentions, don't you? Don't pave the road to a place no one wants to end up with your intentions. Instead, let your intentions and actions lead others to another place where Jesus can be found. — Tracy Earl Welliver ©LPi
