The Joy of Evangelizing

Goodness always tends to spread. Every authentic experience of truth and goodness seeks by its very nature to grow within us, and any person who has experienced a profound liberation becomes more sensitive to the needs of others. As it expands, goodness takes root and develops. If we wish to lead a dignified and fulfilling life, we have to reach out to others and seek their good. In this regard, several sayings of Saint Paul will not surprise us: "The love of Christ urges us on" (2 Cor 5:14); "Woe to me if I do not proclaim the Gospel" (1 Cor 9:16). The Gospel offers us the chance to live life on a higher plane, but with no less intensity: "Life grows by being given away, and it weakens in isolation and comfort. Indeed, those who enjoy life most are those who leave security on the shore and become excited by the mission of communicating life to others". When the Church summons Christians to take up the task of evangelization, she is simply pointing to the source of authentic personal fulfillment. For "here we discover a profound law of reality: that life is attained and matures in the measure that it is offered up in order to give life to others. This is certainly what mission means". Consequently, an evangelizer must never look like someone who has just come back from a funeral! Let us recover and deepen our enthusiasm, that "delightful and comforting joy of evangelizing, even when it is in tears that we must sow... And may the world of our time, which is searching, sometimes with anguish, sometimes with hope, be enabled to receive the good news not from evangelizers who are dejected, discouraged, impatient or anxious, but from ministers of the Gospel whose lives glow with fervor, who have first received the joy of Christ".

A renewal of preaching can offer believers, as well as the lukewarm and the non-practicing, new joy in the faith and fruitfulness in the work of evangelization. The heart of its message will always be the same: the God who revealed his immense love in the crucified and risen Christ. God constantly renews his faithful ones, whatever their age: "They shall mount up with wings like eagles, they shall run and not be weary, they shall walk and not be faint" (Is 40:31). Christ is the "eternal Gospel" (Rev 14:6); he "is the same yesterday and today and forever" (Heb 13:8), yet his riches and beauty are inexhaustible. He is forever young and a constant source of newness. The Church never fails to be amazed at "the depth of the riches and wisdom and knowledge of God" (Rom 11:33). Saint John of the Cross says that "the thicket of God's wisdom and knowledge is so deep and so broad that the soul, however much it has come to know of it, can always penetrate deeper within it". Or as Saint Irenaeus writes: "By his coming, Christ brought with him all newness". With this newness he is always able to renew our lives and our communities, and even if the Christian message has known periods of darkness and ecclesial weakness, it will never grow old. Jesus can also break through the dull categories with which we would enclose him and he constantly amazes us by his divine creativity. Whenever we make the effort to return to the source and to recover the original freshness of the Gospel, new avenues arise, new paths of creativity open up, with different forms of expression, more eloquent signs and words with new meaning for today's world. Every form of authentic evangelization is always "new".

Though it is true that this mission demands great generosity on our part, it would be wrong to see it as a heroic individual undertaking, for it is first and foremost the Lord's work, surpassing anything which we can see and understand. Jesus is "the first and greatest evangelizer". In every activity of evangelization, the primacy always belongs to God, who has called us to cooperate with him and who leads us on by the power of his Spirit. The real newness is the newness which God himself mysteriously brings about and inspires, provokes, guides and accompanies in a thousand ways. The life of the Church should always reveal clearly that God takes the initiative, that "he has loved us first" (1 Jn 4:19) and that he alone "gives the growth" (1 Cor 3:7). This conviction enables us to maintain a spirit of joy in the midst of a task so demanding and challenging that it engages our entire life. God asks everything of us, yet at the same time he offers everything to us. Nor should we see the newness of this mission as entailing a kind of displacement or forgetfulness of the living history which surrounds us and carries us forward. Memory is a dimension of our faith which we might call "deuteronomic", not unlike the memory of Israel itself. Jesus leaves us the Eucharist as the Church's daily remembrance of, and deeper sharing in, the event of his Passover (cf. Lk 22:19). The joy of evangelizing always arises from grateful remembrance: it is a grace which we constantly need to implore. The apostles never forgot the moment when Jesus touched their hearts: "It was about four o'clock in the afternoon" (Jn 1:39).

John Paul II asked us to recognize that "there must be no lessening of the impetus to preach the Gospel" to those who are far from Christ, "because this is the first task of the Church". Indeed, "today missionary activity still represents the greatest challenge for the Church" and "the missionary task must remain foremost". This task continues to be a source of immense joy for the Church.

Sympathy

We express our most sincere sympathy to Ardie Jurgens and her family upon the death of her brother, Royal Gustafson from West St. Paul. May the Lord whom he sought in his life now keep him in everlasting joy.

PHÚC ÂM: Mc 7, 31-37

"Người làm cho kẻ điếc nghe được và người câm nói được".

Tin Mừng Chúa Giêsu Kitô theo Thánh Marcô.

Khi ấy, Chúa Giêsu từ địa hạt Tyrô, qua Sidon, đến gần biển Galilêa giữa miền thập tỉnh. Người ta đem một kẻ câm điếc đến cùng Người và xin Người đặt tay trên kẻ ấy. Người đem anh ta ra khỏi đám đông, đặt ngón tay vào tai anh và bôi nước miếng vào lưỡi anh ta. Đoạn người mặt lên trời, Người thở dài và bảo: "Effetha!" (nghĩa là "Hãy mở ra!"), tức thì tai anh ta mở ra, và lưỡi anh ta được tháo gỡ, và anh nói được rõ ràng. Chúa Giêsu liền cấm họ đừng nói điều đó với ai. Nhưng Người càng cấm, thì họ càng loan truyền mạnh hơn. Họ đầy lòng thần phục mà rằng: "Người làm mọi sự tốt đẹp, Người làm cho kẻ điếc nghe được và người câm nói được!" Đó là lời Chúa.

Catechesis of the Good Shepherd is an approach to the religious formation of children ages 3 years old through 6th grade. It is rooted in the Bible, the Liturgy of the Church, and the educational principles of Maria Montessori. If you are interested in more information, please join us for our Open House on the 3rd floor of the Parish Offices, following the 9:30 am Mass on Sunday, September 12th. We are still accepting registrations for our Level III class which is held on Tuesday's at 4:00 pm.

[Level I & II classes are full] Orientations will begin on Tuesday September 14th.

Grades 1st-6th: Children gather each week to continue to grow in knowledge of their Faith and prayers, as they prepare to receive their Sacraments. Sessions are held on Wednesdays from 6:00pm-7:30 pm in the Fitzgerald building. Classes begin September 15

The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA): is a gradual process of conversion and initiation into the Catholic Christian community providing individuals the opportunity to encounter God and respond to His invitation to a new way of life in the Catholic Faith. This class helps to catechize adults that have not yet received the Sacraments. Sessions are held on Wednesdays from 6:00pm-7:30 pm in the Fitzgerald building. Classes begin September 15

Ablaze Youth Ministry: Phase I, II, and III Confirmation Preparation, Discipleship, and Mission. For all 7th-12th Grade students preparing to receive the Sacrament of Confirmation [Phase I & II] AND those that have already received the Sacrament [Phase III] Parent/Student Orientation for Phase I & II will be held Sunday, September 12th in the Upper Room- 4th Floor of Xavier Hall directly following our 9:30 am Mass. Sessions are held on Wednesdays from 6:00pm-8:30 pm in the Upper Room, 4th floor of Xavier Hall- Classes begin September 22

Vision: to help students come to a deeper realization of the JOY that is found in putting; Jesus first, Others second, and You third.

Mission: To introduce students in concrete ways to the graces found in discipleship and forming Christ-centered friendships; to teach and help students understand the beauty found in living out Catholic morality in their every day lives; to form students in prayer; and to offer encounter and formation opportunities to prepare students for the Sacrament of Confirmation. It is through these means we strive to help our students better discover their identity, and unique calling in Christ in order to fulfill the great commission to be set

ABLAZE with God's love in order to "Go into the world and make disciples of all nations." Mt 28:19

Pro Life

The Church has consistently taught that every human life is precious and worthy of protection.

Evangelion

En aquel tiempo, dejó Jesús el territorio de Tiro, pasó por Sidón, camino del lago de Galilea, atravesando la Decápolis. Y le presentaron un sordo que, además, apenas podía hablar; y le piden que le imponga las manos. Él, apartándolo de la gente a un lado, le metió los dedos en los oídos y con la saliva le tocó la lengua. Y, mirando al cielo, suspiró y le dijo: «Effetá», esto es: «Ábrete.» Y al momento se le abrieron los oídos, se le soltó la traba de la lengua y hablaba sin dificultad. Él les mandó que no lo dijeran a nadie; pero, cuanto más se lo mandaba, con más insistencia lo proclamaban ellos. Y en el colmo del asombro decían: «Todo lo ha hecho bien; hace oír a los sordos y hablar a los mudos.»

Intenciones masivas

A partir del 1 de enero de 2022, ofreceremos una intención de misa para las misas de la mañana. También ofreceremos 1 intención a las 5:15 p. M. El sábado y a las 7:30 a. M. Y a las 11:15 a. M. El domingo. La misa de las 9:30 AM se ofrecerá a los feligreses.
